AUSTRALIA HAS NEW DAVIS CUP HOPE
SYDNEY, Australia — Great hopes are being built on Davis Cup possibilities displayed by Jack Crawford 18, of this city. When Gerald Patterson beat him in the Victorian championship final 4-6, 6-2, 6-4, 6-4, young Crawford gave a fine exhibition of well-concealed placements, combined with dash and stamina.

GOLFER BOASTS NINE HOLE-IN-ONE SHOTS
KANNAH CITY — Paul A. Deeser, Kannah City, thinks he is the world's champion hole-in-one. He knows he is the Kannah City champion. In five years of golfing Deeser has hung up a total of nine hole-in-ones. All except the last two were made on different courses. The last two were made on municipal course No. 1.

HOUSE'S PICTURE DOWN
NEW YORK — Colonel House has disappeared from the Pantheon de la Guerre, great war panorama made by French artist, which has arrived in New York for exhibition. In his place is Ambassador Herrick. In the original the colonel was next to Woodrow Wilson among the 600 figures in the painting. The exhibitors and some the colonel was deleted in the interest of historical accuracy since he had no official position.

ETCHERS GETS $10,000 FROM SALE OF PRINTS
CHICAGO — Etchings have become popular among art fanciers of moderate means here, some of whom have great faith in their increasing financial value. At a recent show of the Chicago Society of Etchers at the Art Institute 250 prints selling at moderate prices brought a total of $3,037. One connoisseur predicted that a decade hence these same prints, if sold, would bring in many times their current valuation.
