BEAVERS DEFEAT SEATTLE AGAIN

McCurdy's Homer with Three on Puts Portland in First Division

PACIFIC COAST LEAGUE

W. L. Pct.
Sacramento 18 16 .543
San Francisco 15 13 .536
Portland 15 14 .517
Oakland 14 14 .500
Seattle 14 14 .500
Mission 14 14 .500
Los Angeles 11 16 .407
Hollywood 9 16 .360

By the Associated Press
Portland, playing at home, won the fourth straight win by beating the Seattle Indians, 6 to 3. Fyo ran rally in the sixth featured by McCurdy's homer with the bases full won the game for the Beavers. Batteries: Mills and Schmidt; Kinney and Wendell.

The Mission Bells evened their series with Los Angeles by winning yesterday's game 6 to 3. The Bells hit Hamilton, Angel heaver, hard and often, while (Woe) Lajolph was letting the Southerners down with five hits. Batteries: Hamilton and Sandberg; Ludolph and Whitney.

Oaks Win Again
At Oakland, the fast stepping Acorns handed Sacramento and 8 to 1 trouncing behind gilt edged pitching by Art Delaney, who was robbed of a shutout when Governor dropped a fly to let Sacramento score her lone tally in the first inning. Batteries: Rachac, Keete and Koshler; Delaney and Baker.

Hollywood took San Francisco down the line at Los Angeles by a 4 to 0 score due largely to the sensational hurling of Frank Shellenback, veteran spit baller, who yielded but one hit to the Stars, a double by Vargan in the eighth. The Stars clinched the game in the fifth inning, when Sweeney homed with two men on bases. Batteries: Geary, Moody, Turpin and Vargan; Shellenback and J. Murphy.

University Nine To Play Huskies

EUGENE, Ore., Apr. 28 (AP)—Coach Billy Reinhart and 14 of his University of Oregon baseball players left here this morning for Seattle, where they will engage the University of Washington nine in combat Friday and Saturday.

Since the two defeats at the hands of the Oregon Aggies, Coach Reinhart has made several shifts in his lineup, in an effort to bolster the team. The batting order also has been changed.

The Oregon team is decidedly shy on pitchers and is depending on Bill Baker to pull them through the first game, and possibly to hit a part of the second.

Today's question to try on your friends: Why does a plumber never become a successful fireman?

With a sport by the St. Louis Browns which carried them to second place in the American league, the battle for the lead today waxed hotter.

The fighting Browns won in the tenth over Cleveland, 4 to 2. While the Yankees and the Senators were idle because of rain, the Athletics took another step forward by beating the Red Sox, 4 to 1, and went into a tie with Washington for third place.

A pitchers' battle between Blake of the Cubs and Donohue of the Reds broke in favor of the Chicago hurler in the eighth when his team mates eked out a second run for a hard won 2 to 1 victory.

For the second time in three days, George Connelly did a rousing act for the White Sox. This time it was Jacobs who weakened under a Detroit batting attack, but the quick substitution of Connelly confined the Tigers to just six safeties, half off each the twirlers. The swinging Chicago bats meanwhile sent the count to 7 to 2.

Bob Kruse Wins From J. Kilonis

PORTLAND, Ore., Apr. 28 (AP)—Bob Kruse, Portland, won two out of three falls from John Kilonis, Boston light heavyweight, here last night. Kilonis won the first fall after one hour, one minute of mat work. Kruse took the second in three minutes, 26 seconds and the third in four minutes, 24 seconds.

FRIENDS CALL GIRL COACH "POKER FACE"

LAWTON, Okla.,—Max Hopkins, 165-pound pilot of a national championship basketball team, has acquired the sobriquet "Poker Face."

Miss Hopkins instilled into the Lawton high school girls' basketball team "the fight" spirit that brought it to the top of the heap in the national tournament at Wichita, Kas., recently. Her method, however, remains a puzzle to observers who in the most crucial moments of the tournament never saw her face lose its unperturbed expression.

Miss Hopkins is a graduate of the Guthrie, Okla., high school which won the girls' national championship in 1925, and was defeated by the Edmonton, Alta., Commercial Grads for the International title.

READ HOLDS BRITISH "PRO" TENNIS TITLE

LONDON—No challenge having been received for the professional lawn tennis championship of Great Britain, C. R. Read, of Queens club, retains the title for 1927.

CHIP OFF OLD BLOCK

PORTLAND, Maine—Don Lord is a chip off the old block. Harry Lord was a star third baseman for the White and Red Sox. Don pitched for South Portland high in order to see him play. Mrs. Lord was excused from jury duty by Justice Chapman, who once pitched for Bowdoin college.

DEPUY EYES EXCHANGE

NEW YORK—Chauncey Depuy at 33 keeps an eye on what is doing in Wall street. Folks who noted him visiting friends there could think of no particular reason, especially since New York Central, of which he is chairman, was firm and his slogan is the optimist always wins.

"Jolly Cap!"

—NEA New York Bureau
Sir Thomas Lipton has a jolly good time whether he wins or loses. The famous English tea magnate and yacht racer, who has been trying vainly for years to win the international yacht trophy, was snapped at the New York Yankees' ball park. He insisted on putting on one of the player's caps to help along in the fun.

Klamath Wallops Whiskered Team

KLAMATH FALLS, Ore., Apr. 28 (AP)—A wobbly, zig-zag, deceptive spit-ball spelled defeat yesterday for the noted House of David baseball team at the hands of the Klamath Falls Pelicans. The score was 8 to 1.

Chase Klamath twirler, put up one of the best exhibitions of pitching ever seen on a Klamath Falls team. The big portlander held the Benton Harbor, Mich., sluggers at his mercy throughout.

While Chase's spit ball was causing the House of David team misery, his team mates were clouting the ball to all corners of the lot. Chase clinaxed one batting rally with a sizzling home run.

BERLENBACH'S RISE AND FALL DRAMATIC

NEW YORK—Few if any other modern fighters have had as dramatic and rapid a rise and fall as Paul Berlenbach, now retired at 25, an age when most fighters are just reaching their prime.

Two four-round knockouts proved high spots in his career. He was stopped in four rounds by Jack Delaney three years ago after bowling over 23 successive opponents with a liberal use of his crushing left hook.

The defeat fired Berlenbach to a comeback which carried him to the world's light heavyweight title and an even break with Delaney in two 14 round matches. He reached his climax this year when he was knocked out in four rounds by the man from whom he had taken the crown, Mike Metzger, a 28-year-old warrior come back to new fight life.

HE IS HENPECKED!

HOBOKEN, N. J.—The most henpecked husband in the world has been discovered by Judge Carsten, William Keuntje received one five-cent cigar daily from his wife and one package of gum per week. The Mex had him arrested when, in a rebellious mood, he turned over only $34.75 instead of his full week's pay of $34.75, as usual. The judge showed her from the court room.
