Y. W. E. A. Banquet Will Be Tonight

In addition to the banquet, which will be enjoyed by members and friends of the Young Women's Educational auxiliary of the First Methodist Episcopal church this evening in the basement of the church, a splendid program has been prepared by the committee in charge of the meeting.

This will be the annual meeting of the auxiliary and officers for the coming year will be chosen and installed.

The annual banquet is a highlight of the year for auxiliary members, and this year's committee, which is headed by Miss Bertha Wainwright, is planning a meeting which will come up to the usual standards in menu, program and decorations.

Plans for a pageant "Brotherhood's Adventures in America," to be presented during the World Wide Guild rally to be held in La Grande May 29, were discussed Saturday afternoon and parts were given out, when a business meeting of the local guild was held with the counselor, at the Foley hotel.

Arrangements were also made for a Mother's day program, which will be held Saturday, May 7, at the home of Mrs. Schultz on East Pennsylvania avenue. Miss Jennie Dolbow is chairman of the committee in charge. The high school seniors of the guild will also be honored on that day.

Announcement was made that Miss Mildred Jane, member of the La Grande guild, and a guild member from Grants Pass tied in the state theme contest, which just closed. The theme written by Miss Jennie Dolbow, which was second best in the contest, was read during the meeting. Also the theme written by Miss Ethel Brown.

A letter was read from Mrs. Ida Warnock, Baptist missionary in Nicaragua.

After the guild meeting a special meeting of the cabinet was held.

LADD CANYON (Special).—Members of the Get-Together club of Ladd Canyon spent an enjoyable afternoon Thursday when they met at the home of Mrs. Claude Deale. Five ladies of the Cove Women's club were present in the interest of the Federated Women's clubs. They were Mrs.

Helene Lincoln, Mrs. W. Conklin, Mrs. Joe Goyette, Mrs. Logan Anderson and Mrs. W. A. McNeill.

After the business meeting Mrs. A. E. Peebler, chairman of the program committee, gave an interesting entertainment, consisting of a recitation by Barbara Council, a reading by Mrs. Laura Braden, a vocal solo by Mrs. Adolph Peebler and a piano solo by Mrs. Clyde Hoppel.

Owing to illness in the family of one of the participants, Mrs. Peebler was unable to give the program as she had planned and it will be given when the club meets at the home of Mrs. Laura Braden in La Grande, May 12.

P.-T. Association Hears Bird Talk

The Island City Parent-Teacher association met Friday afternoon at the school building, Mrs. Lloyd B. Pierce, president, presiding over the business meeting.

Following the business session Mrs. L. L. Bussey, conservation chairman for the Oregon Federation of Women's clubs, talked on birds.

A social was enjoyed before adjournment when cookies and punch which were prepared by the girls' cooking club of the school, were served by the boys' cooking club.

ENTERPRISE (Special).—Chapter II of P. E. O. entertained the members of the senior class of the high school and their advisors, Superintendent and Mrs. L. Lee Williams and Miss Hally Thursday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jay Dobbin.

Dinner was served at 6 o'clock, covers being laid for 24 at one long table which was decorated with baskets of the season's flowers.

After dinner games and music were enjoyed during the remainder of the evening. The hostess committee acting for the P. E. O. consisted of Mesdames J. Dobbin, Nan Heaton, Dan Boyd, E. W. Rowland, W. S. Strickler and G. L. Booth.

ENTERPRISE (Special).—At the regular meeting of the Eastern Star Tuesday evening two new applicants were initiated. Fifty members were in attendance and at the close of the lodge session a social was enjoyed, when the hostess committee served refreshments.

Girl Scouts Give Demonstration

ENTERPRISE (Special).—The girl scouts, a new organization here, with a membership of about 35 girls, under the direction of their organizer and captain, Miss Andrews, gave a demonstration of their work before the Woman's club at the high school auditorium Thursday afternoon with about 50 women present.

The program started with the singing of the organization and several yell. Patrol No. 1 demonstrated the tenderfoot test, patrol No. 2 bandaging and care of trees and shrubs, also the girl scout drill work and setting up exercises.

The girls sang their chart song, after which patrols Nos. 5 and 6 demonstrated fire making and signaling. Miss Andrews awarded tenderfoot pins, after which the program closed with the singing of "The Star Spangled Banner."

After the program, members of the Woman's club served refreshments in the domestic science room of the school.

The meeting of the club is the last one of the month and was presided over by Mrs. J. D. Walker. The next meeting will be May 5, when officers for the new year will be elected.

The last meeting in May will be a banquet for the senior class of the high school. Mrs. Jordan is chairman of the May committee.

LADD CANYON (Special).—Friends of Reginald L. Heryford, who used to make his home in Ladd Canyon, have received announcement of his marriage at Los Angeles Easter Sunday to Mrs. Alice Jane Holsten. Mrs. Heryford is a nurse in a large hospital in Glendale, a suburb of Los Angeles and Mr. Heryford is associated with a grocery company.

INTON (Special).—Monday evening the girls' basketball team of the high school and the coach, Miss Opal Kicker, were hostesses at a kitchen shower honoring Mrs. Guy Berry, a recent bride, at the home of Miss Marie Smith.

LADY LAVERY HELPS HUSBAND IN EXHIBITS

LONDON—Being the wife of an artist means more than posing without pay as his favorite model and acting as hostess at important functions. Lady Lavery, the American wife of Sir John Lavery, famous Irish painter, accepts both those duties, but she also assists her husband in arranging his exhibitions. She helped him recently to arrange one which included many of the subjects painted last year on their visit to the United States.

Lady Lavery was the widow of Edward Livingston Trudeau of New York. She is the daughter of Edward Jenner Martyn of Chicago.

MENUS

By Sister Mary
BREAKFAST—Baked bananas, cereal, cream, crisp broiled bacon, corn bread, croquettes, spinach ball salad, rye bread, old-fashioned bread pudding, milk, tea.

DINNER—Stuffed mutton chops, turnips in lemon sauce, lettuce and tomato salad, whole wheat bread, rice and pineapple pudding, milk, coffee.

Spinach ball salad is a bit "off-ferent" and rather more attractive than the usual mound of spinach. Cooked dandelion greens can be used in place of spinach if preferred.
