OFFICE AT THE THEATERS

Double Feature Program On At The Star

The Star theater, today and Wednesday, will present another double feature program that has proven so popular to the Star patrons. This program will feature Johnny Hines in his latest comedy picture, "All Aboard" and the favorite Western star Jack Hoxie in, "Tough and Ready."

"All Aboard" is an adaptation of the story by Matt Taylor, who contributed "Sleeping Alone" to the comedian for his last vehicle. In brief, it depicts Johnny as a forgetful young man who works as a shoe salesman and eventually loses his job because of his continual absent-mindedness. Fortune smiles on him, however, and he finds another position as a tour conductor with the responsible duties of taking a party of tourists across the Atlantic and into the Algebrin desert.

The tour is declared to be a hilarious laugh cruise from start to finish, with a number of thrills thrown in for good measure when Johnny rescues the girl from an amorous sheik. More thrills come in the sheik's stronghold, when the comedian flings himself face to face with a huge lion. Indeed, animals play a big part in the comedian's picture, including his famous parrot, Loreta, a herd of camels, donkeys, sheep, goats and so on.

For originality and thrills, "Tough and Ready," the Universal jewel which is the other feature attraction of the program, is by far the best Western that has come to town in many a long moon. Jack Hoxie rises to heights that he has never before achieved. His riding is ever a thing of delight.

Viola Dana In Picture At Sherrys Today

Bubbling with the vivacity of Viola Dana at her inimitable best, "Bred in Old Kentucky," a splendidly entertaining film of the "Sport of Kings," is now showing at the Sherry theater. Striking a new note, and a refreshing one, in racing pictures, the production is delightfully suited to Miss Dana's and gives the dainty little favorite unlimited opportunities for her dramatic and humorous abilities. Director Eddie Dillon has invested the entire film with an air of genuineness, and has built up the story values to a climax that is filled with suspense and surprise. With Jerry Milley in the leading male role, and an excellent supporting cast that embraces such well-known players as Jed Prouty, James Mason, Roy Ladlaw and Josephine Crowell, "Bred in Old Kentucky" is a vivid and thoroughly worth-while presentation, and will do much toward increasing Miss Dana's already enormous army of admirers. Louis Wedlock and C. D. Lanester wrote the original story, which was scenarized by Gerald Duffy.

Comedy showing "Sweet Baby."

Comedy At Arcade Made From Old Play

Anybody who fears that laughter may increase their girth is hereby warned to stay away from the Arcade theater, where "McBadden's Flats" had its premiere yesterday.

Two of the reasons for the complete success of this picture are Edna and Dorothy. The comedy duo, who have teamed up for the first time in this production, Charlie, always exuberantly funny, finds greater opportunities than ever in his association with the gifted Conklin.

The eye filling members of the company are Edna Murphy, who plays the part of Charlie's beautiful daughter, and Dorothy Dwan, her chum. One would hardly imagine that a production such as "McBadden's Flats" would give the opportunity to do for elaborate costumes and even strikingly trim bathing suits. But there they are, and it may be added, both Edna and Dorothy know how to wear them.

Other important roles are exceptionally well handled by Larry Kent, DeWitt Jennings, Annie Her-ring, Freeman Wood, Dol Farley, Olney Fitzgerald and Leo White, Richard Wallace directed.

"McBadden's Flats" will be presented at the Arcade theater again today and Wednesday.

NO RETURN TICKETS

The well-known straight and narrow path is just a one-way track. Along which we can travel up. But cannot journey back.

DOWN ON THE FARM

You'd hardly know the old place now. The place where you turned into the lane when bringing home the cows has been rented for a barbecue.

Just across the way a company has leased ground from grandpa for a filling station.

The wood lot is a camp for tin-can tourists.

The old homestead is an antique shop.

The pasture is a golf course.

Grandpa is a Floridian.

The only familiar thing about the old farm is the mortgage.
