MENUS

By Sister Mary

BREAKFAST—Shredded fresh pineapple, broiled cottage ham, creamed potatoes, bran and raisin muffins, milk, coffee.

LUNCHEON — Baked lima beans, lettuce sandwiches, orange custard, milk, tea.

DINNER — Baked pork chops, scalloped potatoes, new beets in piquant sauce, stuffed celery, dutch apple pie, milk, coffee.

No cereal is suggested in the breakfast menu so bran and raisin muffins are used. Children under school age should be served a cereal and crisp toast but adults will enjoy the menu as it is planned. During the spring months a good breakfast is imperative for every one but school children particularly need a nourishing unhurried meal to start their day.

Bran and Raisin Muffins

Two eggs, 1 tablespoon sugar, 1 tablespoon molasses, 1 tablespoon melted butter, 1 cup white flour, 2 cups bran, 1 teaspoon salt, 1 teaspoon soda, 1 cup sour milk, ½ cup seeded raisins.

Beat eggs until light. Add sugar, molasses and melted butter. Mix well and add bran and salt. Dissolve soda in sour milk and stir into mixture. Sift flour over raisins and add. Mix thoroughly and drop from spoon into oiled and floured gem pans. Bake 25 to 30 minutes in a moderately hot oven.

HONOR GIRL GRADUATE FOR SCHOLARSHIP

BATON ROUGE, La.—In all the years graduating classes have left Louisiana State University, the valedictory address has always been delivered by a man, the honor being selective.

This year, however, the valedictorian was chosen on the basis of scholarship during the four year course and all traditions were overthrown. Miss Caroline Tiebout of Baton Rouge won with an average of more than 95 per cent, and another co-ed rated second.

TEACH AFGHAN WOMEN MODERN LIBERTY

CONSTANTINOPLE — Emancipation of Afghanistan women is foreseen in the fact that the Emir has sent for Madame Hurchid Bey, Turkish feminist, to be first maid of honor to the Afghan queen.

Madame Hurchid Bey, who has lectured in the United States, was chosen because she represents the conservative type of emancipated Moslem women and because of her knowledge of court etiquette. Her father was a distinguished admiral under Abdul Hamid, her husband a chamberlian in the palace of Sultan Rechat. She will introduce the etiquette of the dead Ottoman palace into court life at Kaboul.

English will be spoken exclusively with the queen and English methods of education established for the court ladies. Her most delicate duty will be to introduce ideas of liberty for women without offending the fanatical Afghans who were shocked by Turkish women's liberty.

who buy oil for the car

MEN like to feel that the care of a motor is one of those subjects too deep for the feminine mind. As a matter of fact, it is as simple as can be.

The principal item in the care of a car is the use of the right motor oil. And women can buy the right oil for the family car with the same good judgment that they use in their home-keeping.

Thousands of women who do buy the oil for cars have found that it pays to buy only the best. And so they do more than ask for Eastern oil. They insist on getting Veedol, the oil that gives the famous "film of protection" that safeguards a motor from wear and repair.

Next time you buy oil, stop at the orange and black Veedol sign. Ask for Veedol by name—or, if you drive a Ford, ask for Veedol Forzol. Then the family car will be the most economical and smooth running department of the home.

Which side of the bed is the wrong side

THAT'S a riddle most of us never trouble to answer. All we know is whether we hop out of bed feeling tip-top or crawl out feeling "low." But, even so, there's breakfast; and that's the time to let those "blues" go up in smoke—that fragrant wisp of smoke that curls up from your pot of M·J·B.

For M·J·B has a rousing good-morning flavor—a cheerio flavor that sets you right with the world. And it is this flavor that has made M·J·B stand for contentment—no matter how you make your coffee or how you drink it: strong, mild or in-between!
