Ask Meggers To Serve Pastorate Another Season

At the annual meeting of the Nazarene church last Wednesday evening, the Rev. L. D. Meggers was re-elected as pastor for another year, by unanimous vote of the church.

Mr. Lang, Mr. Jordan and Mr. Webster were elected trustees and Mr. Cameron, Mrs. Nelson, Mr. Moore, Mrs. Moore and Mrs. Smith, all were elected stewards. Mrs. Mason and Mrs. Long will represent this church at the district assembly of the Idaho-Oregon district which convenes July 1.

The reports brought in by all departments were most pleasing, with everything paid in full except a small amount on the new church building, which is covered by pledges and will be taken care of soon, Mr. Meggers reports.

BOTH APPOINTED SALEM, Ore., May 14 (AP)—Governor Patterson has reappointed Archie Roth, at Portland, as a member of the state automobile board, and he will resume the chairmanship. The board has been dormant for a year, but Roth will immediately call the board together for a conference in Salem with Secretary of State Kenna and the state traffic department. The board has jurisdiction over the licensing of pilots and judging airplanes as to their fitness for service.
