DEL ALLEN WILL FIGHT J. MOTZEL

O. A. C. Boxing Instructor and La Grande Welter Signed

Delmer Allen, La Grande welterweight, who polished off Jack Riley, of Portland, here Saturday night, is just about through with preliminaries.

Allen, who has won his fights consistently during the past year, will meet Johnny Motzel, boxing instructor at O. A. C., in a 10-round main event in Happy Canyon at Pendleton Friday night, May 20. Motzel does not spend all of his time coaching at Corvallis but goes out and meets the best in his division.

He recently went six rounds with Don Frazier, Spokane, and has many other fights to his credit.

"Allen is a prime favorite in Pendleton and vicinity and has never yet failed to please with his work," the Pendleton East-Oregonian says. Allen, with his varied style of attack, has been fighting the best boys in the section for some time.

ASKS FOR TOWLER PLAN

The state athletic board has asked for copies of E. D. Towler's state championship football plan. Many expect it to meet considerable opposition along with other similar plans but the general opinion is that a state football championship will be worked out in the near future.

* * *

Had it not been for the change in altitude and accidents to Davis and Anson, La Grande high distances' runners, the Tigers may have scored more points at the first state interscholastic meet at Corvallis last Saturday.

Anson and Davis both fell down and reports are that Anson was spiked. This, coupled with the change in altitude, made both unable to place.

La Grande high has one state championship this year, however. It had the best quarter-miler in prep schools in Lynn Smutz and he won his race in very fast time, in addition to winning his heat.

* * *

La Grande will lose several track high school athletes this week by graduation, including Richard Laman, Lynn Smutz, Irvin Zundel and others. Coach MacKenzie, however, has some good material coming up for next year and the L. H. S. students assure all that they will be "in it" next year as strong as ever.

That duel of champions—between the winners of the world crown in 1925 and 1926—was on today in the National league with the St. Louis Cardinals again in second place and the Pirates back in third. The Giants still led the parade as New York retained its monopoly on the front rank of both leagues.

The Cardinals renewed their bid to repeat the title triumph of last year by knocking off the Phillies, 2 to 1, while the Pirates were losing to the Brooklyn Robins, 9 to 5.

Robins Advance

As the Buccaneers dropped back in the ranking column, the lowly Robins went up at their expense, taking sixth place, above the recumbent Reds and Braves. After a bad beginning, the Robins seem well on their way to a place among the contenders.

In the American league all three of the leaders won their latest games and widened the gap between themselves and the ruck.

New York stayed well out ahead of the field by beating a strong Detroit team, 6 to 2.

Lyons Right

The clash of the Red Hose and the White Sox was featured by the pitching of Ted Lyons, who thereby won his fifth victory of the season for the Chicago club, 5 to 2.

Four home runs helped the Athletics to their 10 to 4 decision over the Browns.

U. OF O. ATHLETE DROWNS IN RIVER

Football Star and Editor of The Student Daily Victim of Accident

EUGENE, May 17. (AP)—Harold Mangum, 23, University of Oregon athlete and editor of The Student Daily, was drowned in the Willamette river yesterday afternoon when the canoe in which he was riding capsized. Arden X. Pangborn, 20, who was with him in the canoe, escaped death by clinging to the overturned craft. Neither student could swim.

The river was dragged in the vicinity of the accident last night, but no trace of the body was found. Motorboats are out on the river again this morning, seeking the body.

Mangum and Pangborn had paddled their canoe up the millrace, and out into the river. The swift current upset the canoe, and the two youths were swept out into the rapids. Mangum grasped for the overturned craft, but lost his grip and was swept away. Pangborn managed to cling to the canoe, and kicked his way to shore.

Mangum was the son of Mr. and Mrs. W. Mangum, 534 East Oak street, Portland. He was a university football letterman, having won his award as a guard on last year's varsity. He was elected editor of the Emerald, student daily, at the balloting held last month.

He was president of Ye Tabard Inn of Sigma Upsilon, honorary writers' fraternity, and was a member of Sigma Delta Chi, honorary journalism fraternity.

L. W. CROCKER DROWNS

ROSEBURG, Ore., May 17 (AP)—L. W. Crocker, well-known Douglas county fisherman and engineer on the Southern Pacific, was drowned late yesterday afternoon in the rapids at Hutton Grove on the North Umpqua when the rowboat in which he and his companion, Lloyd Wangeman, overturned. Both men clung to the sides of the boat for two hours shouting for help and when no one arrived, Crocker decided to try for the shore. He had made it a short way from the boat when he turned and yelled to Wangeman that he could not make it. "Tell my folks goodbye," he said as he sunk into the water never to be seen alive again. Wangeman stayed with the boat for an hour and realizing that he was becoming chilled, decided to attempt to swim out. He removed his clothes and struck for the shore. After much effort he made it and ran to a nearby farmhouse, secured some clothes and drove to this city for help.

DON'T PAUSE NOW

Progress in the last hundred years has exceeded even the imaginative anticipations of Jules Verne, says a magazine writer. But Mr. Verne ever wrote anything about old maids' bodies? . . . The great waste places of the world have been explored. Time enough, but nothing has been found to make hair grow there. . . . Artificial genuine can be taken from coal. Now if we can just find somebody to dig it . . . Tools are made even from zealousness. There's no fuel like an old one, however. . . . Serums have been found effective against almost every known ailment—except the bite of the deadly gall bug.

On motion, the secretary was instructed to forward to the Oregon Trail association the sum of $20 as payment of Union's quota.

There was an encouraging report on the matter of the Catherine creek road improvements and it is thought petitions will be in circulation soon covering that matter and the election to be held June 28.

Frequent whipping of children was advocated in 1850 by an author who declared it a healthful practice because it stimulated the blood and made the skin tingle.

HOT ROADS ahead!
—but Silvertowns "run cool"

When heat waves dance on the road before you—watch your tires.

Summer and friction makes them hot—and the greater the friction, the hotter they get.

But Silvertowns have reduced friction. Their tread has a flexible center—it bends without crowding the surrounding rubber. That's why they "run cool."

You get added miles from this Silvertown feature—protection from hot weather driving at no more cost.

This age of high standards welcomes the Camel quality

MODERN smokers are the most exacting ever known, and they place Camel first among cigarettes.

For Camel was created to succeed in the hardest-to-please age ever known. It was made to satisfy those who demand the utmost, and modern smokers have given it such popularity as no other cigarette ever had.

If you're downright hard to please, just try Camels. Tobacco taste and fragrance will be revealed as never before, for Camels are rolled of the choicest Turkish and Domestic tobaccos, supremely blended. This modern cigarette exceeds all other standards but its own. To light one is to find taste fulfilment. "Have a Camel!"
