The committee metched at the Sommer hotel 401 North.

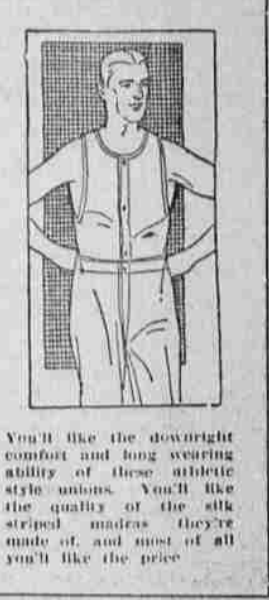

(INEA, New York Herald)
 Mrs. Lloyd Bertrand and Mrs. Clarence Chamberlin, wives of the women who are to attempt the non-stop New York-to-Paris hop, are confident of their husbands' success. That is, if their thoughts are faithfully reflected by the smiles with which they are here watching a test at Curtis Field, Long Island, of the Wright-Bellanca monoplane in which the attempt is to be made. It was the same machine which Chamberlin and Bert Amos recently piloted to a world's sustained flight record over New York.

STATE BUILDING PLANS IN DOUBT

Circuit Judge McMahan Says Legislative Act Unconstitutional
 SALEM, Ore., May 18 (AP)—Without submitting a written opinion, Circuit Judge L. H. McMahan today held unconstitutional the act of the last legislature providing $500,000 for a new state office building in Salem. The act provided that the money for the new structure be loaned from funds of the industrial accident commission.
 "Unquestionably the construction of this building is a good business proposition and should go through," said Judge McMahan in announcing his decision.
 "But that does not alter the law in the case. The act is shot through with unconstitutional features."
 "However, I will not dwell on them as my opinion in the case is perfunctory at the best inasmuch as this matter will ultimately be decided in the supreme court, regardless of what my opinion may be."
 The board of control, pending development of the litigation, had gone ahead with preliminary plans for construction of a seven-story building on a site near the present supreme court building and architects had been retained to draw the plans. The suit was started more or less as a friendly proposition to ascertain the validity of the act before money had been expended. Peter Peterson and others who contributed funds to the workers' compensation board, were plaintiffs in the case against Gov. Patterson and members of the state board of control.

Savings In Men's Unions

You'll like the downright comfort and long wearing ability of these athletic style unions. You'll like the quality of the silk striped linings they're made of, and most of all you'll like the price.

Odd Fellows Name Grand Officers
 ASTORIA, May 18 (AP)—H. E. Walker, of Eugene, grand patriarch of Oregon lodge, I. O. O. F., was chosen delegate to the governing grand lodge at the state convention now in session here.
 James T. Jones, of Portland, high priest, was chosen grand patriarch; James Shannon, of Oregon City, grand senior warden, was promoted from grand senior warden to high priest; G. W. Hays, of Ontario, from grand junior to grand senior warden, and E. J. Pratt, of McMinnville, was elected grand junior warden.

DENIES STORY OF DROPPING RAIL PROJECT

PORTLAND, May 18 (AP)—Southern Pacific company officials today discredited a newspaper article carrying what purported to be intimations that the company had abandoned some of its building projects in Southern Oregon and Northern California.
 John M. Scott, assistant passenger traffic manager, produced old-time tables to show that a plan indicating projected lines, which was made the basis of the article had been printed 18 months ago, and Scott said that it had been used in a recent issue by mistake. He said that no information had been received here from headquarters indicating that there had been any change in the project.
 Although plans of proposed purchase and improvement of the Nevada-California-Oregon line.

'Hawk Tax' Favored By Holly, Ore. Man

SALEM, Ore., May 18 (AP)—Daniel C. Burkholder, of Holly, Oregon, in a letter to Gov. Patterson, urges a tax of fifty cents each upon everyone in Oregon, to be known as "hawk tax." He would have the money used as a bounty fund, 50 cents to be paid for every hawk hawk properly turned in, thereby to rid the state of an agricultural pest. He opposes having the people vote on the measure, fearing it wouldn't pass, and thinks the state tax officials should create the tax.

WORK OF MEDICS SPEEDS NEW ERA

 much remains to be done."
 Says Better Era
 Mr. Coolidge looked forward to an era of "right living and right thinking of good will, and of peace, in accordance with the teaching of the Great Physician," and asserted that "if humanity could be brought to a state of physical well-being, many of our social problems would disappear."
 "If we could effectively rid our systems of poison," he added, "not only would our bodily vigor be strengthened but our vision would be clearer, our judgment more accurate, and our moral power increased."
 Mr. Coolidge called attention to the spread of consumption and tuberculosis in the profession and gave national status and importance to the preservation of health and the conservation of life on its part public functions.
 The president's speech was heard by an audience of nearly 700 in the Arcadia auditorium and contained individualism over the radio.

Jan Destroyer In Fight With Chinese

SHANGHAI, May 18 (AP)—The Japanese destroyer Momo proceeded to Hankow with a Japanese foreign office mission to investigate conditions in the Yangtze valley, was fired on by Northern Chinese troops while anchored off Chongking last night. The destroyer replied with its heavy guns, the firing continuing for two hours.
 A warrant officer on the bridge was wounded.
