

Local News In Brief

COMING EVENTS

June 8, 9, 10—Union Livestock Show at Union, Ore.
July 21, 22, 23—State American Legion convention in La Grande.

October (definite date not decided on) Oregon Parent-Teacher association convention here.

Here From Union—
Herbert Mues, of Union, spent yesterday visiting in La Grande.

Home From Portland—
Held Batten has returned from a trip to Portland.

Here From Boardman—
Charles A. Barnes, of Boardman, is a business visitor in La Grande. He is registered at the Foley hotel.

Baker Man Here—
Bud Kyle, of the Standard Oil company at Baker, is in the city on business.

From Nampa—
Norman Parver, Nampa business man, is registered at the Foley hotel.

Here From Walla Walla—
T. J. Barnes, of Walla Walla, is visiting in La Grande. He is at the Foley hotel.

Here From Imbler—
Mrs. J. McKinnis, of Imbler, was a La Grande visitor yesterday. She is at the ay shopping.

Visited From Imbler—
Mrs. Emma Fisher and Mrs. Lucy Allen, of Imbler, were La Grande visitors Tuesday.

Visiting Sister—
Mrs. J. G. Arnold, of Pendleton, is visiting here with her sister, Mrs. H. G. Hale. She will return in a few days.

At La Grande—
Miss Emma Waldoer is seriously ill at Hot Lake. Miss Waldoer is employed by the J. C. Penney company.

Here From Union—
Mrs. Ernest Scroggins, of Union, visited with friends in La Grande yesterday. Mrs. and Mrs. Scroggins have a sheep ranch near Union.

Working at Crescent—
Vigilant Koenigsberger began work this morning with the Crescent Mill company. He will work during the summer months.

Working at Penney—
Henry Chip started work this week with the J. C. Penney company. He is a member of the junior class at the local high school.

Improving—
Peter O. Bowman, who was thrown from a horse Sunday, is improving at the hospital. He will not be home for some time, however.

Here From Imbler—
Mr. and Mrs. Roy Knight were in this city yesterday. They completed arrangements for the funeral of Mr. Knight's mother, which was held here today.

Orchestra Here—
Dean Richmond's Arcadians, who are scheduled to arrive here today, will play at the La Grande hotel and at the La Grande high school.

Here On Business—
Ben Osborne, secretary of the La Grande Federation of Labor, arrived here yesterday and will spend several days visiting local unions. He attended the local chamber of commerce meeting last night and will be present at the meeting of the Central Labor council this evening.

On Vacation—
Mrs. Harry Gilmore is vacationing in coast cities for a few weeks. Her position as stenographer for the Oregon State Bank and Trust Co. is being filled by Miss E. R. Gilmore. Mr. Gilmore is being replaced by Miss E. R. Gilmore. Miss E. R. Gilmore is being replaced by Miss E. R. Gilmore.

Returns Home—
Mrs. Harold Wade and baby son returned this morning to their home at Enterprise after visiting with Mrs. Wade's parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Garfield, in Rogers, where Mrs. Wade also returned to Enterprise.

Meeting at Church—
Members of the junior and intermediate departments of the Methodist Episcopal Sunday school are asked to meet at the church at 10 o'clock tomorrow morning for the rehearsal of a children's day program. Members of Mrs. Parker's high school girls class are also urged to be present.

Here From—
Four high school boys, I don't know when I've been more impressed," said J. L. Soule, of Baker. Mr. Soule arrived here yesterday after spending about three weeks at Hot Lake on business. He attended the band concert at the lake Monday evening. Mr. Soule will spend several days here before returning to his home in Baker.

Council Meeting Tonight—
There will be a meeting of the Central Labor council tonight at the regular hall. Members of all local unions are specially requested to attend as plans will be discussed for a Labor day celebration this fall. While no definite steps will be taken at this date, committee will in all probability be appointed and arrangements made for notifying neighboring towns. Ben Osborne, secretary of the state federation of labor, will also be present.

Here From—
Mrs. Fred Fox, of Union, was in La Grande this afternoon.

In Town—
Mrs. F. Barnes and daughter, Phyllis, of Kamela, are here today.

Here From Kamela—
Mrs. Pete Bicker is spending a few days visiting in La Grande. Her home is at Kamela.

Here From Portland—
Master Wayne Foster left this morning for Marshfield where he will visit for several weeks.

Is Improving—
Mrs. Ira L. Howell, who has been very ill for some time, is reported to be much improved.

License to Wed—
A marriage license was issued this morning to John McInnis and Velma Canfield, both of Imbler.

At Piggy Wiggly—
Waymond Scott, who graduated from high school this spring, began work this week with the Piggy Wiggly grocery store.

Attended Funeral—
Mr. and Mrs. George Bates, of Baker, were here yesterday to attend the funeral services for Mrs. Rhoades.

Official Here—
A. W. Shoemaker, representative of the Missouri-Pacific railway company was in La Grande yesterday.

Gone to Portland—
Mrs. Earl Larsen left last night for Portland and Corvallis where she will visit with Miss Irma Lyman. She plans to return Saturday.

Here From Elgin—
Sheriff Jesse Breckhauser returned today from Elgin, where he has been most of the week. He reports that his son, "Buster," who has been very ill, is slightly improved.

Here From Union—
George Benson and Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Hinchinson, of Union, visited in this city today.

Visited Here—
Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Gordon have returned to Weston after visiting here over the past week and with Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Reynaud.

Transacting Business—
H. H. Travis, superintendent of the American Railway Express company at Portland, was transacting business in La Grande today.

Here From Kamela—
Mrs. S. A. Ingerson and daughter, Bernice, and Mary, arrived here this morning from Kamela where they have been visiting Mr. Ingerson.

Teachers Goes to Portland—
Miss Blanche Sparks, who has been teaching for the past year at Central school, left last night for Portland where she will spend part of the summer holidays.

Home From Corvallis—
Mrs. A. J. Stangs and daughter, Ann, are expected home tonight from Corvallis and Portland where they have been visiting since Friday. They are driving home.

On Vacation—
Chris Trank, owner of the shoe shining parlor next to Sherrys theater, is vacationing on a farm this week. Chris declares that picking hay will be a welcome change from shining boots.

Expected Home—
George T. Cochran, member of the firm Cochran & Eschard of this city, was scheduled to arrive home today from Portland where he has been since Sunday. He was called there for a federal court case.

Returns Home—
Mrs. Harold Wade and baby son returned this morning to their home at Enterprise after visiting with Mrs. Wade's parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Garfield, in Rogers, where Mrs. Wade also returned to Enterprise.

Meeting at Church—
Members of the junior and intermediate departments of the Methodist Episcopal Sunday school are asked to meet at the church at 10 o'clock tomorrow morning for the rehearsal of a children's day program. Members of Mrs. Parker's high school girls class are also urged to be present.

Here From—
Four high school boys, I don't know when I've been more impressed," said J. L. Soule, of Baker. Mr. Soule arrived here yesterday after spending about three weeks at Hot Lake on business. He attended the band concert at the lake Monday evening. Mr. Soule will spend several days here before returning to his home in Baker.

Council Meeting Tonight—
There will be a meeting of the Central Labor council tonight at the regular hall. Members of all local unions are specially requested to attend as plans will be discussed for a Labor day celebration this fall. While no definite steps will be taken at this date, committee will in all probability be appointed and arrangements made for notifying neighboring towns. Ben Osborne, secretary of the state federation of labor, will also be present.

Here From—
Mrs. Fred Fox, of Union, was in La Grande this afternoon.

In Town—
Mrs. F. Barnes and daughter, Phyllis, of Kamela, are here today.

Here From Kamela—
Mrs. Pete Bicker is spending a few days visiting in La Grande. Her home is at Kamela.

Here From Portland—
Master Wayne Foster left this morning for Marshfield where he will visit for several weeks.

Is Improving—
Mrs. Ira L. Howell, who has been very ill for some time, is reported to be much improved.

License to Wed—
A marriage license was issued this morning to John McInnis and Velma Canfield, both of Imbler.

At Piggy Wiggly—
Waymond Scott, who graduated from high school this spring, began work this week with the Piggy Wiggly grocery store.

Attended Funeral—
Mr. and Mrs. George Bates, of Baker, were here yesterday to attend the funeral services for Mrs. Rhoades.

Official Here—
A. W. Shoemaker, representative of the Missouri-Pacific railway company was in La Grande yesterday.

Gone to Portland—
Mrs. Earl Larsen left last night for Portland and Corvallis where she will visit with Miss Irma Lyman. She plans to return Saturday.

Here From Elgin—
Sheriff Jesse Breckhauser returned today from Elgin, where he has been most of the week. He reports that his son, "Buster," who has been very ill, is slightly improved.

Here From Union—
George Benson and Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Hinchinson, of Union, visited in this city today.

Visited Here—
Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Gordon have returned to Weston after visiting here over the past week and with Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Reynaud.

Transacting Business—
H. H. Travis, superintendent of the American Railway Express company at Portland, was transacting business in La Grande today.

Here From Kamela—
Mrs. S. A. Ingerson and daughter, Bernice, and Mary, arrived here this morning from Kamela where they have been visiting Mr. Ingerson.

Teachers Goes to Portland—
Miss Blanche Sparks, who has been teaching for the past year at Central school, left last night for Portland where she will spend part of the summer holidays.

Home From Corvallis—
Mrs. A. J. Stangs and daughter, Ann, are expected home tonight from Corvallis and Portland where they have been visiting since Friday. They are driving home.

On Vacation—
Chris Trank, owner of the shoe shining parlor next to Sherrys theater, is vacationing on a farm this week. Chris declares that picking hay will be a welcome change from shining boots.

Expected Home—
George T. Cochran, member of the firm Cochran & Eschard of this city, was scheduled to arrive home today from Portland where he has been since Sunday. He was called there for a federal court case.

Returns Home—
Mrs. Harold Wade and baby son returned this morning to their home at Enterprise after visiting with Mrs. Wade's parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Garfield, in Rogers, where Mrs. Wade also returned to Enterprise.

Meeting at Church—
Members of the junior and intermediate departments of the Methodist Episcopal Sunday school are asked to meet at the church at 10 o'clock tomorrow morning for the rehearsal of a children's day program. Members of Mrs. Parker's high school girls class are also urged to be present.

Here From—
Four high school boys, I don't know when I've been more impressed," said J. L. Soule, of Baker. Mr. Soule arrived here yesterday after spending about three weeks at Hot Lake on business. He attended the band concert at the lake Monday evening. Mr. Soule will spend several days here before returning to his home in Baker.

Council Meeting Tonight—
There will be a meeting of the Central Labor council tonight at the regular hall. Members of all local unions are specially requested to attend as plans will be discussed for a Labor day celebration this fall. While no definite steps will be taken at this date, committee will in all probability be appointed and arrangements made for notifying neighboring towns. Ben Osborne, secretary of the state federation of labor, will also be present.

Here From—
Mrs. Fred Fox, of Union, was in La Grande this afternoon.

In Town—
Mrs. F. Barnes and daughter, Phyllis, of Kamela, are here today.

Here From Kamela—
Mrs. Pete Bicker is spending a few days visiting in La Grande. Her home is at Kamela.

Here From Portland—
Master Wayne Foster left this morning for Marshfield where he will visit for several weeks.

Is Improving—
Mrs. Ira L. Howell, who has been very ill for some time, is reported to be much improved.

License to Wed—
A marriage license was issued this morning to John McInnis and Velma Canfield, both of Imbler.

At Piggy Wiggly—
Waymond Scott, who graduated from high school this spring, began work this week with the Piggy Wiggly grocery store.

Attended Funeral—
Mr. and Mrs. George Bates, of Baker, were here yesterday to attend the funeral services for Mrs. Rhoades.

Official Here—
A. W. Shoemaker, representative of the Missouri-Pacific railway company was in La Grande yesterday.

Gone to Portland—
Mrs. Earl Larsen left last night for Portland and Corvallis where she will visit with Miss Irma Lyman. She plans to return Saturday.

Here From Elgin—
Sheriff Jesse Breckhauser returned today from Elgin, where he has been most of the week. He reports that his son, "Buster," who has been very ill, is slightly improved.

Here From Union—
George Benson and Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Hinchinson, of Union, visited in this city today.

Visited Here—
Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Gordon have returned to Weston after visiting here over the past week and with Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Reynaud.

Transacting Business—
H. H. Travis, superintendent of the American Railway Express company at Portland, was transacting business in La Grande today.

Here From Kamela—
Mrs. S. A. Ingerson and daughter, Bernice, and Mary, arrived here this morning from Kamela where they have been visiting Mr. Ingerson.

Teachers Goes to Portland—
Miss Blanche Sparks, who has been teaching for the past year at Central school, left last night for Portland where she will spend part of the summer holidays.

Home From Corvallis—
Mrs. A. J. Stangs and daughter, Ann, are expected home tonight from Corvallis and Portland where they have been visiting since Friday. They are driving home.

On Vacation—
Chris Trank, owner of the shoe shining parlor next to Sherrys theater, is vacationing on a farm this week. Chris declares that picking hay will be a welcome change from shining boots.

Expected Home—
George T. Cochran, member of the firm Cochran & Eschard of this city, was scheduled to arrive home today from Portland where he has been since Sunday. He was called there for a federal court case.

Returns Home—
Mrs. Harold Wade and baby son returned this morning to their home at Enterprise after visiting with Mrs. Wade's parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Garfield, in Rogers, where Mrs. Wade also returned to Enterprise.

Meeting at Church—
Members of the junior and intermediate departments of the Methodist Episcopal Sunday school are asked to meet at the church at 10 o'clock tomorrow morning for the rehearsal of a children's day program. Members of Mrs. Parker's high school girls class are also urged to be present.

Here From—
Four high school boys, I don't know when I've been more impressed," said J. L. Soule, of Baker. Mr. Soule arrived here yesterday after spending about three weeks at Hot Lake on business. He attended the band concert at the lake Monday evening. Mr. Soule will spend several days here before returning to his home in Baker.

Council Meeting Tonight—
There will be a meeting of the Central Labor council tonight at the regular hall. Members of all local unions are specially requested to attend as plans will be discussed for a Labor day celebration this fall. While no definite steps will be taken at this date, committee will in all probability be appointed and arrangements made for notifying neighboring towns. Ben Osborne, secretary of the state federation of labor, will also be present.

Here From—
Mrs. Fred Fox, of Union, was in La Grande this afternoon.

In Town—
Mrs. F. Barnes and daughter, Phyllis, of Kamela, are here today.

Here From Kamela—
Mrs. Pete Bicker is spending a few days visiting in La Grande. Her home is at Kamela.

Here From Portland—
Master Wayne Foster left this morning for Marshfield where he will visit for several weeks.

Is Improving—
Mrs. Ira L. Howell, who has been very ill for some time, is reported to be much improved.

License to Wed—
A marriage license was issued this morning to John McInnis and Velma Canfield, both of Imbler.

At Piggy Wiggly—
Waymond Scott, who graduated from high school this spring, began work this week with the Piggy Wiggly grocery store.

Attended Funeral—
Mr. and Mrs. George Bates, of Baker, were here yesterday to attend the funeral services for Mrs. Rhoades.

Official Here—
A. W. Shoemaker, representative of the Missouri-Pacific railway company was in La Grande yesterday.

Gone to Portland—
Mrs. Earl Larsen left last night for Portland and Corvallis where she will visit with Miss Irma Lyman. She plans to return Saturday.

Here From Elgin—
Sheriff Jesse Breckhauser returned today from Elgin, where he has been most of the week. He reports that his son, "Buster," who has been very ill, is slightly improved.

Here From Union—
George Benson and Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Hinchinson, of Union, visited in this city today.

Visited Here—
Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Gordon have returned to Weston after visiting here over the past week and with Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Reynaud.

Transacting Business—
H. H. Travis, superintendent of the American Railway Express company at Portland, was transacting business in La Grande today.

Here From Kamela—
Mrs. S. A. Ingerson and daughter, Bernice, and Mary, arrived here this morning from Kamela where they have been visiting Mr. Ingerson.

Teachers Goes to Portland—
Miss Blanche Sparks, who has been teaching for the past year at Central school, left last night for Portland where she will spend part of the summer holidays.

Home From Corvallis—
Mrs. A. J. Stangs and daughter, Ann, are expected home tonight from Corvallis and Portland where they have been visiting since Friday. They are driving home.

On Vacation—
Chris Trank, owner of the shoe shining parlor next to Sherrys theater, is vacationing on a farm this week. Chris declares that picking hay will be a welcome change from shining boots.

Expected Home—
George T. Cochran, member of the firm Cochran & Eschard of this city, was scheduled to arrive home today from Portland where he has been since Sunday. He was called there for a federal court case.

Returns Home—
Mrs. Harold Wade and baby son returned this morning to their home at Enterprise after visiting with Mrs. Wade's parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Garfield, in Rogers, where Mrs. Wade also returned to Enterprise.

Meeting at Church—
Members of the junior and intermediate departments of the Methodist Episcopal Sunday school are asked to meet at the church at 10 o'clock tomorrow morning for the rehearsal of a children's day program. Members of Mrs. Parker's high school girls class are also urged to be present.

Here From—
Four high school boys, I don't know when I've been more impressed," said J. L. Soule, of Baker. Mr. Soule arrived here yesterday after spending about three weeks at Hot Lake on business. He attended the band concert at the lake Monday evening. Mr. Soule will spend several days here before returning to his home in Baker.

Council Meeting Tonight—
There will be a meeting of the Central Labor council tonight at the regular hall. Members of all local unions are specially requested to attend as plans will be discussed for a Labor day celebration this fall. While no definite steps will be taken at this date, committee will in all probability be appointed and arrangements made for notifying neighboring towns. Ben Osborne, secretary of the state federation of labor, will also be present.

Here From—
Mrs. Fred Fox, of Union, was in La Grande this afternoon.

In Town—
Mrs. F. Barnes and daughter, Phyllis, of Kamela, are here today.

Here From Kamela—
Mrs. Pete Bicker is spending a few days visiting in La Grande. Her home is at Kamela.

Here From Portland—
Master Wayne Foster left this morning for Marshfield where he will visit for several weeks.

Is Improving—
Mrs. Ira L. Howell, who has been very ill for some time, is reported to be much improved.

License to Wed—
A marriage license was issued this morning to John McInnis and Velma Canfield, both of Imbler.

At Piggy Wiggly—
Waymond Scott, who graduated from high school this spring, began work this week with the Piggy Wiggly grocery store.

Attended Funeral—
Mr. and Mrs. George Bates, of Baker, were here yesterday to attend the funeral services for Mrs. Rhoades.

Official Here—
A. W. Shoemaker, representative of the Missouri-Pacific railway company was in La Grande yesterday.

Gone to Portland—
Mrs. Earl Larsen left last night for Portland and Corvallis where she will visit with Miss Irma Lyman. She plans to return Saturday.

Here From Elgin—
Sheriff Jesse Breckhauser returned today from Elgin, where he has been most of the week. He reports that his son, "Buster," who has been very ill, is slightly improved.

Here From Union—
George Benson and Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Hinchinson, of Union, visited in this city today.

Visited Here—
Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Gordon have returned to Weston after visiting here over the past week and with Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Reynaud.

Transacting Business—
H. H. Travis, superintendent of the American Railway Express company at Portland, was transacting business in La Grande today.

Here From Kamela—
Mrs. S. A. Ingerson and daughter, Bernice, and Mary, arrived here this morning from Kamela where they have been visiting Mr. Ingerson.

Teachers Goes to Portland—
Miss Blanche Sparks, who has been teaching for the past year at Central school, left last night for Portland where she will spend part of the summer holidays.

Home From Corvallis—
Mrs. A. J. Stangs and daughter, Ann, are expected home tonight from Corvallis and Portland where they have been visiting since Friday. They are driving home.

On Vacation—
Chris Trank, owner of the shoe shining parlor next to Sherrys theater, is vacationing on a farm this week. Chris declares that picking hay will be a welcome change from shining boots.

Expected Home—
George T. Cochran, member of the firm Cochran & Eschard of this city, was scheduled to arrive home today from Portland where he has been since Sunday. He was called there for a federal court case.

Returns Home—
Mrs. Harold Wade and baby son returned this morning to their home at Enterprise after visiting with Mrs. Wade's parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Garfield, in Rogers, where Mrs. Wade also returned to Enterprise.

Meeting at Church—
Members of the junior and intermediate departments of the Methodist Episcopal Sunday school are asked to meet at the church at 10 o'clock tomorrow morning for the rehearsal of a children's day program. Members of Mrs. Parker's high school girls class are also urged to be present.

Here From—
Four high school boys, I don't know when I've been more impressed," said J. L. Soule, of Baker. Mr. Soule arrived here yesterday after spending about three weeks at Hot Lake on business. He attended the band concert at the lake Monday evening. Mr. Soule will spend several days here before returning to his home in Baker.

Council Meeting Tonight—
There will be a meeting of the Central Labor council tonight at the regular hall. Members of all local unions are specially requested to attend as plans will be discussed for a Labor day celebration this fall. While no definite steps will be taken at this date, committee will in all probability be appointed and arrangements made for notifying neighboring towns. Ben Osborne, secretary of the state federation of labor, will also be present.

Here From—
Mrs. Fred Fox, of Union, was in La Grande this afternoon.

In Town—
Mrs. F. Barnes and daughter, Phyllis, of Kamela, are here today.

Here From Kamela—
Mrs. Pete Bicker is spending a few days visiting in La Grande. Her home is at Kamela.

Here From Portland—
Master Wayne Foster left this morning for Marshfield where he will visit for several weeks.

Is Improving—
Mrs. Ira L. Howell, who has been very ill for some time, is reported to be much improved.

License to Wed—
A marriage license was issued this morning to John McInnis and Velma Canfield, both of Imbler.

At Piggy Wiggly—
Waymond Scott, who graduated from high school this spring, began work this week with the Piggy Wiggly grocery store.

Attended Funeral—
Mr. and Mrs. George Bates, of Baker, were here yesterday to attend the funeral services for Mrs. Rhoades.

Official Here—
A. W. Shoemaker, representative of the Missouri-Pacific railway company was in La Grande yesterday.

Gone to Portland—
Mrs. Earl Larsen left last night for Portland and Corvallis where she will visit with Miss Irma Lyman. She plans to return Saturday.

Here From Elgin—
Sheriff Jesse Breckhauser returned today from Elgin, where he has been most of the week. He reports that