County Engineer
May 20-27.

Tomatoes, fresh, raw, or canned are a good source of vitamins A, B and C. This is the reason tomato juice often is recommended for young children and even babies. It is a good plan to include tomatoes in the menu frequently in one form or another. They may be eaten raw, stewed, baked, fried, broiled or scalloped. Tomato sauces are good on meat, fish, boiled rice, and other dishes. Almost every kind of meat soup or stew or gravy is improved by the addition of a little tomato juice.

Hobson—"Why do you call your house a bungalow?"
Dobson—"Well, the job was a bungle and I still owe for it."

If all the serial stories were placed end to end in this world, they would have to be continued in the next.

Never hesitate to ask for advice—everybody likes to give it.

Fresh—See here, waiter, this knife isn't clean.
Preparer—Why, it must be. The last thing I cut with it was a bar of soap.

The way of the transgressor is a heap of a lot of fun.

At 5 a. m.—Anry Father: Well, young lady, explain yourself. Where have you been all night?
Plumper daughter: Oh, daddy dear, I was sitting up with the sick son of the sick man you are always telling mama you sat up with!

Nurse—Mr. Maloney, you are the father of quadruplets.
Maloney—What! them things that be runnin' around on four legs!

There is always a bright side. Even a mirror doesn't look like much from the back.

A doctor's young son was entertaining a friend in his father's office. They were looking with admiration at a skeleton kept in a closet off the office.
"Where did he get it?" the guest whispered.
"Oh, he's had it a long time. I guess maybe it's his first patient," replied the son.

"Can't you love me better than that?"
"What do you think I am, an Octopus?"

Man (not acquitted) to lawyer: "Thanks very much. What, on earth should I have done without you?"
Lawyer: "About five years."

Dear Old Lady: "I see you have some land for sale?"
Real Estate Agent: "Yes, madam."
"Dear Old Lady: 'Well, I want about three yards of nice, new land to grow some seeds on.'"

AT THE THEATERS

Sherrys Showing "Kosher Kitty Kelly" Today

Rolling with a warm, human story of the tenement district of Jewish and Irish characters about New York's East Side, and capped with a thrilling fire scene as the big climax, F. B. O.'s Gold Bond special, "Kosher Kitty Kelly", will begin its local showing here at the Sherry theater for a two-day run. Under the magic direction of James Horne, noted as one of the best comedy directors in Hollywood, the screen version of the famous stage play is not only a powerful dramatic picture, but is packed with delicious humor and screamingly funny interpretations of the Jewish and Irish characters about whom the story is written.

Viola Dana gives a delightful portrayal of the little Irish heroine, and is ably seconded by Tom Forman as the Irishman policeman, Stanley Taylor, Vera Gordon, Nat Carr, Aggie Herring, Carroll Nye and Kathleen Myers have the chief supporting roles, and do splendid work. Gerald Duffy made the screen picture from Leon De Costa's play, and Franklyn Ostrow supervised the production.

mind when he is beaten to a pulp by the vengeful Agorra at the latter's gymnasium.

The Kelly comeback is a spectacular one full of thrills and gasps. How with the help of the faithful Malena he succeeds in proving his innocence of the crime for which he was convicted, gives rise to a series of dramatic scenes that had last night's audience sitting on the edge of their seats.

An Andy Gump comedy is also being shown.

"Music Master" At Arcade Today And Saturday

"The Music Master," which is the feature attraction at the Arcade theater today and Saturday is a revival of the old stage play which scored such a tremendous success 20 years ago.

Skillfully adapted to the screen by the Fox director, Allan Dwan, there is every reason to believe that it will be even more popular than it was in its original form.

The story is of a lovable musician who left a brilliant career in Vienna to search nineteen years for his wife, who left his home with another man, taking with her his baby daughter. The two big dramatic scenes are when he finds the daughter, and later when he comes face to face with the man who has betrayed him, but the chief charm of the story lies in the delicate charm of the characterization.

Alec Francis, in the title role, does the best work of his career, portraying the lonely old musician with great sympathy and feeling.

Lola Moran brings to the role of the daughter that subtle spiritual quality which, combined with her youth and beauty, has made her one of the most promising of the youth screen stars.

Nell Hamilton is cast as her fiancé, and the rest of the cast includes such capable players as Norman Trevor, Kathleen Kerrigan, Charles Lane and Marcia Harris.

Newest Dix Film Scores Success at Star

The ever pleasing Richard Dix, whose athletic ability has become a byword in cinema circles, is again displaying his own particular brand of physical prowess today and Saturday at the Star theater, where "Knockout Buster," his latest Paramount starring offering is playing.

Cast in a different role from anything he has hitherto portrayed, Dix climbs to fame as an exponent of the "squared circle." As Dundee Reilly, chief puffer in a steel mill, he finds little time for recreation, except of a Saturday night when it is his habit to repair with his friends to a cabaret where Mary Malone (Mary Brian), is an entertainer. Reilly, suddenly discovers that he is the possessor of a wicked punch when he knocks out Kilder Agorra (Jack Benaut) champion fighter, for making advances to Mary. Mary's brother Pat (Harry Gibson), former champion who has fallen before Agorra in a fight that he learned afterward was framed, upon hearing of Reilly's escapade, offers to train him for the ring. But Reilly prefers the industrial life to the packed arena. He changes his
