Party Compliments Fifth Anniversary Of Peter Coburn

Peter Coburn, the little son of Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Coburn, celebrated his fifth birthday anniversary Saturday afternoon with a party given by his mother, when she entertained most of the members of his kindergarten class.

The party started at 2:30 o'clock and children's games were enjoyed for an hour. The little guests were then seated at a table, prettily decorated with a birthday cake on which were five red candles, as a centerpiece, and were served refreshments. Red tulips were also used to decorate the table, and favors found at each little place were red and yellow rubber balls.

At 4:30 o'clock the party adjourned, the children wishing Peter many more happy birthdays upon departing for their homes.

In honor of the ninth birthday anniversary of her little niece, Virginia Winifred Hashbom, of Tacoma, Wash., who has come to La Grande to spend her summer vacation, Mrs. Frank Hansen entertained a number of children Friday afternoon.

The party was from 2 o'clock until 4:30 and children's games were enjoyed until 4 o'clock, when the little guests were seated at a prettily decorated table and refreshments were served by Mrs. Hansen, assisted by Misses Emma Wurl and Margaret Michaelson.

A large birthday cake, to which was attached a Maypole, served as a centerpiece for the table. Crepe paper streams led to each place from the Maypole and at the end of each streamer was found a crepe paper doll with a hand-painted face. Little paper baskets of candies were also found at each place.

At 4:30 the little guests departed, wishing Virginia Winifred many more happy birthdays.

The children present were Juanita and Barbara Stringer, Virginia Wurl, Mary and Jimmie McNamee, Dick and Joan Templeton and Barbara Fires.

Pollards Guests Of Congregation

A farewell surprise party was given Friday evening honoring the Rev. and Mrs. George A. Pollard and family, who will leave La Grande soon for Portland.

The Pollard family were guests at the cabin of Mr. and Mrs. William Shade up the Grande Ronde river for dinner, and after dinner about 35 members of the congregation of the First Baptist church, of which Mr. Pollard has been pastor for about two years, joined them at the cabin and a sociable evening was spent in games, singing and visiting.

Members of the congregation present presented Mr. and Mrs. Pollard with woolen Indian robes. Dr. W. P. McAdory made the presentation and Mr. Pollard responded with a few appropriate remarks.

Refreshments were served by several women of the party before adjournment.

Those present for dinner were Mr. and Mrs. William Shade, Sr., and Mrs. Ben Noyes and Arlo Noyes, Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Daichs and Mr. and Mrs. Pollard and family.

MENUS

By Sister Mary

BREAKFAST—Stewed figs, cereal, cream, baked French toast, maple sirup, milk, coffee.

LUNCHEON — Baked spinach, cheese, muffins, radishes and green onions, rice souffle, milk, tea.

DINNER—Cream of asparagus soup, veal timbales, creamed potatoes, orange-strawberry and banana salad, pineapple bavarian, sponge drops, milk, coffee.

The mother who must serve small children as well as older persons will find that the feed menus have to be modified for the younger members of the family the less controversy and need for discipline will occur.

Pineapple Bavarian

One pineapple, 1½ cups sugar, 1¼ tablespoons granulated gelatin, ¼ cup cold water, ½ cup boiling water, whites 3 eggs.

Pare pineapple and remove eyes. Cut four thin evenly shaped slices to use to garnish mold. Cook slices in a thin sirup for twenty minutes. Remove from sirup, chill and arrange around the sides of mold. Chop remaining pineapple. There should be about 3 cups. Add boiling water and sugar and bring to the boiling point. Boil gently for twenty minutes. Soften gelatin in cold water for five minutes. Add to hot pineapple and stir away from the fire until dissolved. Let stand until stiff. Turn into mold and let stand three hours or longer to become thoroughly chilled and firm. Serve with whipped cream sweetened and flavored with vanilla.

HUYSSE, Belgium—A Lady of the Queen's House, Baroness Agnes della Faille d'Huysse, is burgomaster of this town and the seventh Belgian woman to assume the duties of a burgomaster in Belgium. She has full police power and as presiding officer of the aldermen and aldermen she is largely responsible for financial and social welfare in the community.

The position has been held by the male members of the Baroness' family for many generations. A practical farmer, she is president of the Committee of Women Farmers clubs. Women in Belgium obtained the right to hold positions as burgomasters only in 1921.

ONE WOMAN DEPUTY SITS IN DAIL EIREANN

DUBLIN, Irish Free State—The only woman member in the Dail Eireann, Mrs. Margaret Collins-O'Driscoll, is one of its hardest working members. She has never missed a sitting since her election in August, 1923. Her motto, "stop talking and get on with the work," was that of her brother the late General Michael Collins.

She is also the only woman on the standing committee of Cumann Nan Gaedheal, the government party organization. Mrs. Collins-O'Driscoll was married in 1901 to Patrick O'Driscoll, a newspaper editor, who is now one of the official reporters in the Oireachtas.

CLOROX removes scorched spots

Dread of scorched spots no longer makes ironing a burden to the housewife who keeps a bottle of Clorox, the modern bleach, always at hand. Scorched spots on napkins, table cloths, and other white linen or cotton clothes, vanish when treated with Clorox. Be sure to follow the directions on the Clorox label.
