

The Observer Want Ad Page

The Market Place of Union and Wallowa Counties

NEW TODAY

- FOR RENT—Room and bath. 1404 O ave. 5-21-27
- FOR RENT—Furnished apt. at Maple Apartments. 5-31-27
- FOR RENT—Four-room furnished house, close in. Call 442-W. 5-21-27
- FOR RENT—Three-room furnished apartment. 1504 E. 5-21-27
- FOR RENT—Five-room modern home, 1305 Washington ave. Inquire 1405 Cherry St. 5-21-27
- FOR RENT—Six-room modern home with sleeping porch, pool, garage, chicken house and fruit garden spot. Call 442-W. 5-21-27

WANTED—Tinted cloth under 12 years of age. Free agitations. Apply Eastern Provision School of Music, 600 S. 3rd St. Temple. 5-21-27

WANTED—Three men for sales work. Large company opening store here during next 30 days. Inquire for Mr. Taylor at Roney Hotel, 2 in S. W. 5-21-27

LAST—Three-year-old brindle-colored dog, white ring around neck and down front. Had collar and leaded ribbon ring. Answers to the name of "Tad." Return to 1681 Madison or call 611-R. 5-21-27

FOR SALE AND TRADE

- FOR SALE OR TRADE—Round oak dining table, $14.00. Furniture Exchange. 5-21-27
- FOR SALE—Good light delivery motor body; good rubber; good mechanical condition. Inquire Oberlin Cleaners. 5-19-27
- FOR SALE OR TRADE—Woolen sport jacket, white leather trim and black trim; trousers, washable like a shirt. Pays for 8-12 in saving fuel. Furniture Exchange. 5-21-27
- FOR SALE—All sizes fluff and rug. Rug cleaning, mattresses rebuilt; feather mattresses made. Furniture Exchange. La Grande Mattress & Washing Works. Licensed Furniture. Phone 424-W. Chas. Edwards. 5-19-27

WANTED

WANTED—To assist with house work by competent girl. Inquire 5-21-27

WANTED—Dressmaking. Mrs. Howell, 405 Bondock, Call 411-R. 4-20-27

MISCELLANEOUS

PEWING AND HEATING—E. A. Balmers, 201 N. Ave. 5-25-27

SPECIAL—Five-gallon galvanized storage pails, heavy ball. Furniture Exchange. 5-21-27

LAWN MOWERS—Sharpened on special machine. Lighten Well. Inquire and Machine Works. 3-22-27. 4-20-27

MISS GLADYS E. MILLER announces that she will continue her piano class until August first. High school pupils desiring credit should start not later than May 23. Call 442-W between 4 and 6 p. m., except Saturdays. 5-21-27

Observer Want Ad Rates

(Count five average words to the line.)
Per line, 1st insertion, 10c
5 lines, per month, $4.00
10 lines, per month, $7.50
Minimum charge on one order, 25c

RATES BY MONTH

2 lines, per month, $2.50
3 lines, per month, $3.25
4 lines, per month, $4.00
5 lines, per month, $4.75

Each additional line over five charged at 50c per line per month.

CASH IN ADVANCE is required on all Classified orders to earn these rates. Higher rates charged on all credit insertions.

Copy for all Classified orders must be in this office by 10 A. M. DAY OF INSERTION. Send orders on all inserted ads. All further notices must be received by the same hour or else insertion will be charged. Telephone orders solicited. Cash rates may be earned on phone orders by payment on or before date of last insertion.

PHONE MAIN 37
"An Observer Want Ad Will Do It"

HEMSTITCHING

50 yard, 705 N. Ave. Mrs. J. P. Caldwell. 4-20-27

SEWING MACHINES REPAIRED

Phone Main 763, Singer Sewing Machine Co., 1317 Washington St. 5-16-27

LICENSED MATERNITY HOME

Treatment, care, private rooms only. Mrs. E. W. Hart, 1249 Y Ave. City. 5-26-27

CLEANING, pressing, dyeing and repairing. Ideal Cleaners, 249 Depot St. Phone 657-W. 5-21-27

PAINT IT YOURSELF—Sunflow

Auto Rubber Enamel makes old cars look like new. Be another satisfied customer. Stuart's Shop, next to Star Theater. 5-21-27

HORNES AND MILLER—Good logging, farming and fancy saddle horses, all young. No better. 1 sell and exchange. Geo. Shevart, Box 212, Union, Ph. Farm. 65. 5-25-27

FOR RENT

FOR RENT—Furn. apt. 478-31. 5-28-27

FOR RENT—Four room modern furnished apartment. Phone 215-W. 5-21-27

FOR RENT—Five room house at 2805 Cedar street. Call Newlin Book Store. 5-21-27

FOR RENT—Three-room house, furnished; 2-room cabin, furnished, to adults. John Marx. 5-16-27

"The end of the world fits with you. Be with me and you walk alone."

USED CARS

1924 FORD TOURING

A-1 Shape

$128.00

PERKINS MOTOR CO. 5-21-27

HEALTH

MAKING YOUR MIND BEHAVE

By C. Charles Burlingame, M. D., New York City

Member Gorkas Memorial Inst.

We all have minds and they all behave, sometimes more and sometimes less but, like children, different types of mind need different training. Each group has its own problems and of the several groups the "worried housewife" is the one most in need of assistance in making her mind behave.

You, the "worried housewife," should remember the better your mind behaves the more comfortable it is for those about you, and surely the better it is for yourself. Just as surely as we may have indignation from careless eating and lack of exercise, so we may have mental indignation from improper feeding of our minds and giving them no exercise.

We cannot have a perfect body without a mind well behaved. We cannot expect our minds to behave if we never give thought to our bodies. The two things go together.

It is also true that an unhealthy body may change a well behaved mind into one misbehaving badly, as witness the husband who comes to breakfast after a too hearty night before. "Every woman knows" the physical condition he finds himself in has affected his mental state.

And yet it is just as true that every housewife who may find herself crowded with little worries, "never tidy nervous feelings," may have some physical condition at least in part responsible for her misbehaving mind.

So full is her day of work indoors and physical exertion that the housewife feels she needs exercise out of doors the least of anything. But nothing she can do indoors, no amount of physical exertion connected with her work, will take the place of the amount of exercise, relaxation, and recreation in the open and in the sun.

These she must have for her best mental health. Now let's understand at least a few of the principal things about our own thoughts.

Go back to your school days, when you were learning something new every day—be it ever so little, ask yourself if in becoming a housewife you have not day by day been building a little wall around yourself and your home and your household duties. Ask yourself if you have cultivated a real, vital interest in what you have acquired any additional knowledge—be it ever so slight.

Ask yourself if you are trying to learn anything more or anything new, and convinced, beyond question, that any person who is increasing his knowledge every day has a mind which is growing. It is especially true that the mind which is constantly growing will never have the same inclination to indulge in useless worries, to fret and fume over details, to become depressed and dependent.

The mind which is growing may not always behave perfectly, but it is the mind best able to withstand all the ills that the human mind is heir to. The two simple truths about the mind are these: Your mind depends upon a healthy body and your mind must continue to grow. Work-play-real-exercise in the open, each has its place in your daily life. If you would help your mind behave,

First Clerk: "I don't know what Bill does with his money. He's broke again."

Second Clerk: "Was he trying to borrow from you?"

First Clerk: "No! I wanted to borrow from him!"

A sissy is a boy who battles in a bath tub when he could go in washin' in the swimmin' hole.

A PREDICAMENT

A teacher was instructing her class about dolls.

"The doll had eyes," she said, "but it couldn't see."

"See," cried the children.

"It had ears but it couldn't hear," said the class.

"It had lips but it couldn't speak," said the children.

"It had a nose, but it couldn't wipe it," replied the little ones.

When a woman marries a man to get rid of him she really succeeds.

Mrs. Mandy Johnson: "I want to see Miss Hamilton."

Office Boy: "Mr. Hamilton is engaged."

Mrs. Mandy Johnson: "Oh, how boy. He don't want to marry him. Tell him his wifely ways has him nooey."

Society marriages are like bridge games. The highest bidder gets the dummy.

"Say, my wife wants to know what you do at the bank."

"Teller."

Ella (aged six)—"Mamma, were you ever in a peach-ant?"

Mamma—"No, dear, but heaven knows I've tried."

Aunt Granny: And what brought you to town, Arthur?"

Arthur: Well, I've come to see the sights, and thought I'd call on you first."

"Why is it that you have broken off your engagement, Allen?" asked her fair friend.

"Oh, my dear! He told me he was connected with the movies and the very next day I saw him driving a furniture van."

recreation in the open and in the sun.

These she must have for her best mental health. Now let's understand at least a few of the principal things about our own thoughts.

Go back to your school days, when you were learning something new every day—be it ever so little, ask yourself if in becoming a housewife you have not day by day been building a little wall around yourself and your home and your household duties. Ask yourself if you have cultivated a real, vital interest in what you have acquired any additional knowledge—be it ever so slight.

Ask yourself if you are trying to learn anything more or anything new, and convinced, beyond question, that any person who is increasing his knowledge every day has a mind which is growing. It is especially true that the mind which is constantly growing will never have the same inclination to indulge in useless worries, to fret and fume over details, to become depressed and dependent.

The mind which is growing may not always behave perfectly, but it is the mind best able to withstand all the ills that the human mind is heir to. The two simple truths about the mind are these: Your mind depends upon a healthy body and your mind must continue to grow. Work-play-real-exercise in the open, each has its place in your daily life. If you would help your mind behave,

First Clerk: "I don't know what Bill does with his money. He's broke again."

Second Clerk: "Was he trying to borrow from you?"

First Clerk: "No! I wanted to borrow from him!"

A sissy is a boy who battles in a bath tub when he could go in washin' in the swimmin' hole.

A PREDICAMENT

A teacher was instructing her class about dolls.

"The doll had eyes," she said, "but it couldn't see."

"See," cried the children.

"It had ears but it couldn't hear," said the class.

"It had lips but it couldn't speak," said the children.

"It had a nose, but it couldn't wipe it," replied the little ones.

First Clerk: "I don't know what Bill does with his money. He's broke again."

Second Clerk: "Was he trying to borrow from you?"

First Clerk: "No! I wanted to borrow from him!"

A sissy is a boy who battles in a bath tub when he could go in washin' in the swimmin' hole.

A PREDICAMENT

A teacher was instructing her class about dolls.

"The doll had eyes," she said, "but it couldn't see."

"See," cried the children.

"It had ears but it couldn't hear," said the class.

"It had lips but it couldn't speak," said the children.

"It had a nose, but it couldn't wipe it," replied the little ones.

When a woman marries a man to get rid of him she really succeeds.

Mrs. Mandy Johnson: "I want to see Miss Hamilton."

Office Boy: "Mr. Hamilton is engaged."

Mrs. Mandy Johnson: "Oh, how boy. He don't want to marry him. Tell him his wifely ways has him nooey."

Society marriages are like bridge games. The highest bidder gets the dummy.

"Say, my wife wants to know what you do at the bank."

"Teller."

Ella (aged six)—"Mamma, were you ever in a peach-ant?"

Mamma—"No, dear, but heaven knows I've tried."

Aunt Granny: And what brought you to town, Arthur?"

Arthur: Well, I've come to see the sights, and thought I'd call on you first."

"Why is it that you have broken off your engagement, Allen?" asked her fair friend.

"Oh, my dear! He told me he was connected with the movies and the very next day I saw him driving a furniture van."

recreation in the open and in the sun.

These she must have for her best mental health. Now let's understand at least a few of the principal things about our own thoughts.

Go back to your school days, when you were learning something new every day—be it ever so little, ask yourself if in becoming a housewife you have not day by day been building a little wall around yourself and your home and your household duties. Ask yourself if you have cultivated a real, vital interest in what you have acquired any additional knowledge—be it ever so slight.

Ask yourself if you are trying to learn anything more or anything new, and convinced, beyond question, that any person who is increasing his knowledge every day has a mind which is growing. It is especially true that the mind which is constantly growing will never have the same inclination to indulge in useless worries, to fret and fume over details, to become depressed and dependent.

The mind which is growing may not always behave perfectly, but it is the mind best able to withstand all the ills that the human mind is heir to. The two simple truths about the mind are these: Your mind depends upon a healthy body and your mind must continue to grow. Work-play-real-exercise in the open, each has its place in your daily life. If you would help your mind behave,

First Clerk: "I don't know what Bill does with his money. He's broke again."

Second Clerk: "Was he trying to borrow from you?"

First Clerk: "No! I wanted to borrow from him!"

A sissy is a boy who battles in a bath tub when he could go in washin' in the swimmin' hole.

A PREDICAMENT

A teacher was instructing her class about dolls.

"The doll had eyes," she said, "but it couldn't see."

"See," cried the children.

"It had ears but it couldn't hear," said the class.

"It had lips but it couldn't speak," said the children.

"It had a nose, but it couldn't wipe it," replied the little ones.

When a woman marries a man to get rid of him she really succeeds.

Mrs. Mandy Johnson: "I want to see Miss Hamilton."

Office Boy: "Mr. Hamilton is engaged."

Mrs. Mandy Johnson: "Oh, how boy. He don't want to marry him. Tell him his wifely ways has him nooey."

Society marriages are like bridge games. The highest bidder gets the dummy.

"Say, my wife wants to know what you do at the bank."

AT THE THEATERS

40 Orientals
In Scenes of
"The Dice Woman"

In presenting the Oriental scenes of Princeton Dean's new Metropolitan starring vehicle "The Dice Woman," Director Edward Dillon had an ambition of merely painting up a few men and women in Oriental style and letting it go at that, but he demanded and pressed into service some 40 genuine Chinese and other Oriental types recruited in the settings of the picture.

Miss Dean, as the heroine, becomes a "dice woman" in a Chinese gambling den and it is in the gambling scenes that the little army of Orientals is used to lend verisimilitude to the action. The sets, decorative material, clothing, games and paraphernalia used in these sequences were verified by the Chinese so that where a change was necessary it was made. It is a most interesting feature of the picture.

"The Dice Woman" is said to be one of the finest star vehicles thus far produced for Miss Dean's use. The story is dramatic and an unusual climax. The heroine is a wealthy American girl whose fondness for gambling and the fast set with which she associates, involves her in trouble with the police. To escape them and consequent arrest, she boards a steamship as a stowaway and goes to China where she has further interesting adventures. With John Brown as her foil, an interesting love story is developed.

The supporting cast is excellent and includes among others Gustave von Seydewitz, Lionel Belmore, Phillip Smalley, Malcolm Donny and William Humphrey.

Comedy showing "The Fair Toonies."

SALEM, Ore., May 31 (AP)—Carson Beebe, who was indicted for first degree murder in Clark county in 1921 for the killing of John Palmer and his son, but who was freed by the jury to be insane, died last night at the state hospital for the insane here. He was 30 years old and hospital authorities said he was feeble minded. His body will be cremated.

Beebe did not admit the murder until several weeks after he had been committed to the hospital, when he confessed to the slaying, explaining that he killed the two men in the hope that he might get possession of a team of horses and a tract belonging to them. At the trial he declared that the older Palmer had killed his son and then committed suicide. The bodies of the two men were found hidden in the brush not far from their home.

As played by George Sidney, noted star of the stage and screen, the auctioneer is a lovable figure who strikes liberally at the hearts of all who watch him as he staves from street peddler to luxury. If all of Sidney's future performances on the silver screen are as nearly perfect as his portrayal in "The Auctioneer," he will have a place of his own in screen circles for some time to come.

Marion Nixon and Gareth Hughes head a supporting cast which fits into the story like clockwork. Miss Nixon is lovely indeed as the little Irish girl in her teens. An amusing comedy "The Balling Kanjaroo" is also being shown.

"Auctioneer" Showing At The Arcade

Box Films version of that famous and lovable Wafield-Blaugov play, "The Auctioneer," opened at the Arcade Theater today. It's here for a two-day engagement and everyone who loves motion pictures at their best should see it at least once.

For "The Auctioneer" has almost everything that wholesome entertainment could have. There's pathos, comedy of various sorts, intrigue and romance.

"The Auctioneer" sets forth in a most human manner the story of a little Irish orphan who is adopted by a Russian and his wife on their way to the land of promise. The Russian upon his arrival in New York, borrows some of the money entrusted to him for the well-being of the little girl he has adopted.

With this money, he begins on a business career that in years to come carries him and his little family to the luxury of an abode on Riverside Drive.

As played by George Sidney, noted star of the stage and screen, the auctioneer is a lovable figure who strikes liberally at the hearts of all who watch him as he staves from street peddler to luxury. If all of Sidney's future performances on the silver screen are as nearly perfect as his portrayal in "The Auctioneer," he will have a place of his own in screen circles for some time to come.

Marion Nixon and Gareth Hughes head a supporting cast which fits into the story like clockwork. Miss Nixon is lovely indeed as the little Irish girl in her teens. An amusing comedy "The Balling Kanjaroo" is also being shown.

Professional Directory

This directory is especially handy for the newcomer or for the out-of-town reader who may want the name and address of some professional man. It has been carefully prepared and will prove to be a ready aid to any reader in obtaining prompt professional service.

Classified For Quick Reference

Dentists

DR. GEO. S. HOFFMAN—Dentist
Over L. & G. Drug Co. Telephone
Main 578

DR. FRANK JAMES—Dentist
1000 7th, West-Clatsop Bldg.
Phone 447-W

Architect

C. G. MILLER, Architect
La Grande Building

LOUIS YWOL WINS OAK

DR. GEO. D. FRANKS (D.D.S.)—Dentist
1000 7th, West-Clatsop Bldg.
Phone 447-W

DR. W. P. McADORY, M. D.
Surgeon
New Foley Bldg. Telephone
Main 57

C. S. MOORE, M. D.
Physician and Surgeon
New Foley Bldg. Telephone
Main 19

F. L. RALSTON, M. D.
Practice limited to diseases of the
Eye, Ear, Nose and Throat
Rooms 12-13
Southern Building Telephone
Main 778

A. L. RICHARDSON, M. D.
Surgeon
Rooms 15-17
Southern Building Telephone
Main 112

J. A. WONDERLICH, M. D.
Physician and Surgeon
Over L. & G. Drug Store
Rooms 12-13
Main 578

Physicians & Surgeons

LEE B. HOVY, M. D.
Practice limited to diseases of the
Eye, Ear, Nose and Throat
New Foley Building Telephone
Main 14

E. G. KIRBY, M. D.
Physician and Surgeon
Southern Building Telephone
Main 22

RICHARD P. LANDIS, M. D.
Physician and Surgeon
New Foley Building Telephone
Main 98

W. P. McADORY, M. D.
Surgeon
New Foley Bldg. Telephone
Main 57

C. S. MOORE, M. D.
Physician and Surgeon
New Foley Bldg. Telephone
Main 19

F. L. RALSTON, M. D.
Practice limited to diseases of the
Eye, Ear, Nose and Throat
Rooms 12-13
Southern Building Telephone
Main 778

A. L. RICHARDSON, M. D.
Surgeon
Rooms 15-17
Southern Building Telephone
Main 112