CALL BOY ROMPS HOME IN DERBY

Frank Curzon's Horse, Favorite of 23 Starters, Races to Victory

SPRING, June 1 (AP)—Frank Curzon's Call Boy, the favorite, raced to victory in the 144th running of the historic derby today, with King George and Captain Lindbergh among the thousands looking on.

Sir V. Buncock's Hot Night was second and Major J. Courtland's Brian Mar third. Twenty-three horses ran.

The crowd was swelled by the addition of those eager to see the American hero of the air. Up to the time of the start interest was divided between the preparations for the race and the presence of Lindbergh in the stand as the most of Lord Leinster, famous Irish turfman.

Once the horses were off, however, all eyes were turned to the course and the choice field raced down the final stretch of the 1 1/2 mile course through a veritable lane of cheering thousands.

Call Boy, which won by two lengths, started at odds of 4 to 1. Hot Night took second place by eight lengths from Brian Mar. E. D. Copen's Buck Fast was fourth. The betting odds on Hot Night were 9 to 2 and Brian Mar 22 to 1.

Winner All The Way

Lindbergh on his Atlantic flight, Call Boy was a winner all the way and made practically the whole course running easily. The official time was 2 minutes, 34 2/5 seconds.

The procession of Royal motor cars as well as Captain Lindbergh's passage along the jammed route to Epsom town and up over the downy route typified what has come to be called the "horseless" derby.

Thousands upon thousands of automobiles and omnibuses, characterized by private parties, charabancs and auto trucks carried the race crowds from London.

An stretch which was used several years ago as a track to assist in preventing traffic jams had been abandoned, but flying columns of police, operating from strategic points regulated the procession of motors and the few other odd vehicles such as henges, coaches and other relics of Victorian derby days.

COYOTE STATE SENDS TWO STARS TO NAVY

SIOUX CITY, S. D.—Two of South Dakota's oldest colleges athletes will don the blue of the United States naval academy next fall. One is Henry Schrank of Columbia College at Sioux Falls and the other is "Swid" Hill, basketball star of the University of South Dakota.

Schrank, a halfback, and Dunbar, a tackle, are the state's leading football lights, and both are track stars.

LaVergne Saunders, former captain of the University of South Dakota football team, is a regular tackle on the Army eleven.

Larry French, youthful Portland hurler, cracked wide open in the eighth inning after blanking the Sox all the way, and San Francisco promptly threw him to beat the Red Sox, 3 to 1. The loser threatened in the ninth, but May turned them back without a run. Batteries—Mullis, May and Rege; French and Wendell, Fisher.

The Oakes enjoyed three big innings in which they scored 12 runs off three Mission hurlers to win the series opener from the Belts, 12 to 7. Batteries—Boehler, Sparks and Brady; Dumovich, Fisher, Christian, Dittie and Walters.

Stars Win Again

Hollywood continued to play good baseball by winning from Sacramento 8 to 2. Batteries—Keeffe and Koehler; Jacobs and Agnew.

A pitching duel between Westley, of the Angels, and Knight, of Seattle, ended in the twelfth when Los Angeles bunched three hits to score twice and win, 1 to 0. Batteries—Weatherly, Moss and Sandberg; Knight and Jenkins.

Games today: Oakland vs. Mission at San Francisco; San Francisco at Portland; Sacramento vs. Hollywood at Los Angeles; Los Angeles at Seattle.

CALLAHAN IS VICTOR OVER MYERS, IDAHO

WRIGLEY FIELD, CHICAGO, June 1 (AP)—Muddy Callahan, of Los Angeles, successfully defended his junior welterweight championship against Spig Myers, the Pacific Slope, challenger, before a crowd of about 15,000 fans in Wrigley field Tuesday night.

Callahan got the verdict of the judges and referee, but Myers left the ring with the shouts of the fans ringing in his ears, as a reward for the same aggressive showing he did not get with the crowd, as James Crawford with the crowd, accorded Callahan as he was announced the winner.

Myers sustained a wicked cut over his left eye in the third round and blood was trickling into his eye, all but blinding him during the remaining rounds. He gamely fought on, however, making Callahan's task a superlative one. Callahan, a superior boxer, landed the cleaner punch but Myers kept tearing in all the time, never backing up an inch. His face was a bloody mess from the third round on, as Callahan quipped on the cut over the Idaho boy's eye at the opening of every round.

Remarkable performances at bat and a field went down in the big league record book today as the result of the five-day games the season has produced thus far. A single day saw ten homers, two of them by Babe Ruth, and an unassisted triple play, the second in two days.

Seven of the ten homers were made in Philadelphia where Ruth poked out his contribution in games against the Athletics. The first helped the Yankees to a 10 to 1 triumph over the A's in the opening of a double bill and the second aided in an 18 to 5 whipping administered to the same team. Ruth's brace of round-trippers gave him 14 for the season.

Perfect Day at Bat

Joe Harris of the National League leading Pirates had a perfect day at bat in a game with the Cubs. He had hit four times in four at-bats. When he came up in the ninth with the score tied he hit a triple that won the game, 10 to 9. The one-man triple bill was by Johnny Neum, Detroit first baseman. Coming in the ninth it took the Indians' breath away and enabled the Tigers to win, 1 to 0. The day saw the second of its kind in two days. Jimmy Coon, of the Cubs, having turned in the other Monday against the Pirates.

Cards in Second

Bob McGraw, of the Cardinals, poked the champions into second place to the Pirates by holding the Reds to five hits and beating them, 1 to 0. Brooklyn granted its sixth victory in beating Boston, 4 to 2.

The Chicago White Sox, the big surprise of the American league, also were among the winners and clung close to the Yankees by their 7 to 2 decision over the Browns.

After losing many games in a slump the Giants took one from the Phillies, 12 to 4, while the American league cellar dwellers, the Red Sox, unexpectedly stunned the Senators, 4 to 1.

OXFORD'S FIRST RACE BOAT STILL EXISTS

OXFORD—Despite the great popularity of the Oxford and Cambridge boat race, there are few people who know that the boat in which Oxford won its first victory in the initial inter-university contest of 1829 still exists.

In 1843, Fletcher Menzies, who had rowed in the first Dark Blue crew, discovered it in a boathouse at Oxford. He got permission to take it to his Berkshire home, where he attempted to restore it in the transparent waters of Loch Rannoch.

After capsizing in a sudden storm and nearly drowning all the crew, it was drawn ashore and hung from the roof of a boatshed at Craignour. There it remained until 1912 when it was returned to the custody of the Oxford Rowing club.

Filled Breach

Here's Eddie Farrell, the Giants reserve infielder, who stepped into Travis Jackson's shoes before the season started and filled the bill Farrell has been hitting close to .400 and holding erect for the Gotham club.

Dundee Beaten By Nationalista In Portland Go

PORTLAND, Ore., June 1 (AP)—Young Nationalista, Los Angeles bantam, had little difficulty in disposing of Mike Dundee, of New York, in the first round of their scheduled ten-round bout here last night.

The Los Angeles Filipino started the fight with a rush and dropped Dundee after a few blows. Dundee took a nine count and rose. Nationalista again floored him quickly. Referee Gruman ended the affair by calling it "no contest" but after the Filipino's manager insisted that the fight go on, Gruman named Nationalista's hand.

In the semi-final Garfield Johnson, Seattle negro, took a six-round decision over Spark Plug Boyd, Portland light heavyweight. Ray Hannon, Silverton, middleweight, and Jack Hurko, Newberg, went four rounds to a draw. Young Peter Jackson, local heavyweight, took a four-round decision from Jeff Hoyt, Silverton.

FIRPO AND UZCUDEN THRIFF CHAMPIONS

By Edward J. Neil (Associated Press Sports Writer)

NEW YORK—When his ring days are over Paulino Uzcuden plans to carry back to the Pyrenees mountains of Spain just as many dollars' worth of doubloons as Luis Angel Firpo did pass to the Argentine pampas in 1921.

Firpo won no official title in an invasion that brought him a knockout from Jack Dempsey, then the heavyweight champion, and loss of decisions to Harry Witt and Charley Weiner. Neither is it probable that a ring crown may ever grace the brow of the quiet Basque, who has all the color of a Firpo, but little of his "killer" power. Between them, however, the two Latin matadors apparently hold the pugilistic championship for tranquility.

The Argentine juggled close to $1,000,000 back to South America for profitable investment. As yet Paulino has gathered less than $200,000 for knocking over three lesser lights and raising decisions over Knute Hanson and Tom Healey.

The woodchopper, however, will at least double all his previous American earnings if he meets Jack Dempsey in the former champion's first come-back battle. Such a battle either will check the Basque's ambitions abruptly or put him in a bigger money class. It depends largely on how much of his old punch Dempsey has recovered. Paulino's "million" could be his night if he battered his way past Dempsey, Sharkey or Maloney for a title match with Gene Tunney, but the Spangard's prospect of this appears slim.

Paulino trains for prospective riches as Firpo did, living quietly and economically in modest quarters. Backed by two platoons of managers, who wheel and file into promoter's offices behind Al Mayer, their commander-in-chief, Paulino mulls over the value of his colorful ring personality and in broken English suggests figures for his services that seem to stagger matchmakers.

Paulino's board of control probably outpoints in numbers the various mentors of Firpo, who handled most of his own contract details. For conservation of finances in a city where lavishness is expected of all celebrities, however, Paulino could hope for no more than a draw with the South American, who came to be known as "Beat 'Em Louis" along Cadillac Avenue Alley.

Firpo, as the story tellers relate, was sent to fall back upon lack of knowledge of American customs and language to explain his careful handling of personal finances and at one time almost went to court to collect $150 he thought him became he had "honored" a magazine with an advertisement.

A barber who shaves Paulino regularly had this to say of his spendthrift qualities as he eased the Spangard out of the chair recently:

with his arrival in Orofino, Ida., the United States marshal's office here has been advised Potter is charged with embezzlement of government funds while acting as deputy marshal in the Kentucky.
