She—Angry! I should be simply furious. How dare you suggest such a thing! If you try anything like that I'll never speak to you again, and besides, this isn't a good place anyhow.

NORTH POWDER PERSONALS

NORTH POWDER (Special)—J. E. Lindley was a Baker visitor Friday.

The Rev. Mr. Fleming, of Baker, was a visitor here Friday.

Mrs. Maude Lindley has returned to her home in Portland after a week's visit with friends and relatives at North Powder and Union.

Mr. and Mrs. H. E. White gave a dinner party Saturday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Jesse O'Bryant and family, former residents of North Powder, who now make their home in Portland, were visiting here over the week end. Mr. O'Bryant intends to visit here again in about three weeks.

Ethel and Farrell Lindley left Saturday for Baker, where they will spend the summer months.

Jean and Bud Forsstrom are visiting for a few days at Union.

AT THE THEATERS

Version Of Stage Play Now At Arcade

For pure entertainment, for excellent acting and for beautiful photography, see "The Auctioneer" at the Arcade theater. The drama, which is Fox Films' version of the famous Warfield - Belasco stage play, opened a two days' run last night and tonight will be your last chance. It's one of the finest motion pictures that this reviewer has seen in quite a while. It proves what the motion picture camera is capable of when combined with a human story, a fine cast and an intelligent director.

The pawnshop of the principal character is authentic in every detail.

The comedy scenes throughout the picture are genuine.

George Sidney plays the title role. Marion Nixon, plays the Irish girl who has been adopted by the auctioneer and his wife.

Gareth Hughes, popular leading man, was a happy choice to play opposite Miss Nixon. He gives a very creditable portrayal. Doris Lloyd is cast as the wife of the auctioneer. Ward Crane, noted "heavy", and Sammy Cohen give excellent performances in good roles.

"The Battling Kangaroo", is the comedy showing.

"Notorious Lady" Scores At Star Theater

A colorful adventure, melodramatic in several sequences, and with thrills galore, aside from a beautiful story of the sacrificing love of a good woman for her husband—this is "The Notorious Lady", the First National feature, which opened an engagement at the Star theater yesterday and will be shown for the last time tonight.

"The Notorious Lady" features Lewis Stone, Barbara Bedford and Ann Rork. It was adapted from the stage success "The River" by Patrick Hastings.

"The Notorious Lady" is Barbara Bedford. The title is suggested by the notoriety she gets in going on the witness stand to swear away her reputation and thus save her husband (Lewis Stone) on the unwritten law. Stone goes away to forget, and eventually the truth of the wife's sacrifice is learned by a philanthropic friend. A trip to his side is arranged without the wife's or husband's knowledge.

Most of the action is in Africa, the adventure for a diamond mine; intrigue, colorful background of river, mountains and action galore.

The comedy "Kid George", is also being shown.

Gilda Gray To Be Shown Here In "Cabaret"

Broadway, that playground of the millions and millionaires, has been x-rayed—for picture purposes. "Cabaret", Gilda Gray's second Paramount production, arrives at the Arcade theater Thursday.

All the glamour and glitter of New York night life are said to be reflected in this drama of a white way dancer.

Gilda, the star of a midnight show, is loved by a detective and hounded by a gang leader who has a mysterious hold on her young brother. The production reaches its high point when the boy shoots his nemesis in self-defense and Gilda half-dances, half-carries the wounded youth through a crowd of revelers, out the front door and on in—well, that will be disclosed when "Cabaret" is shown.

Tom Moore is the detective. Chester Conklin and Mona Palma also have leading roles.

FRIDAY MATINEE

A special electric matinee will be held at the Arcade theater on Friday afternoon with Mrs. Fern Hubbard, nationally known economist as hostess, according to the Eastern Oregon Light and Power company, which has charge of the arrangements.

There will be no pictures shown that afternoon, according to Mr. Meyers of the Arcade theater and the entire matinee will be free.

Mrs. Hubbard will also appear at the Arcade theater in a special feature at the first show Thursday evening.

Irene Rich In Warner Film At Sherrys

Irene Rich fans will rejoice that she has again deserted the "deserted wife" type of characterization in her new Warner picture, "Silken Shackles," at Sherrys. As Denise Lake, a beautiful and capricious flirt, she duplicates the brilliant performance she gave in "Lady Windermere's Fan." Her characterization is subtle and delightful and she looks fascinating enough to turn all the admirers her role allows her.

Huntly Gordon plays her devoted and harassed husband, who neglects his affairs in Europe, where they are traveling to keep track of her love affairs. There is a handsome army man who falls a victim to her charms, there is a mad boy who attempts to drown himself for love of her, and finally there is a Hungarian violinist (Victor Varconi) who comes under her spell and with whom she believes she is seriously in love. Afraid that she will leave him for the violinist, her husband tries to bribe him to make love to her until she tires of him, but the $5,000 he offers is refused. How he finally cures his wife, for a time at least, forms the climax of this consistently entertaining drama.

The supporting cast is brilliant, and includes Robert Schable, Bert Moriarty, Evelyn Selbie and Kalla Pasha.

Comedy showing, "What Price Dough".

The Shwe Dagon Pagoda, located at Rangoon and gold-plated from top to bottom, is the largest in Burma. It cost $5,000,000 and covers ten to fifteen acres.

Investments

If you have invested $1000 in cash payable in ten years at the rate of 7% you should be sure that you will be paid compound interest at that time and not just STRAIGHT INTEREST. You may be getting about 5½% instead of 7%. Better look into yours.

SHINGLES

It is impossible to get a satisfactory roof by using an inferior shingle or exposing them too much to the weather. Your roof is about the most important part of your house construction. When buying a roof covering—remember the driving winds of the past winter that drove the fine snow through the shingles. That would have been impossible with a roof of real good shingles properly laid. Come down to our yard and let us give you the benefit of our 18 years experience in selling roof coverings of cedar shingles, asphalt roofing, and asphalt mineral surfaced shingles. We are just unloading a car of extra fancy, clear vertical grain cedar shingles—the kind that don't curl.
