DUNDEE TO MEET LATZO TONIGHT

Doubt Expressed that the Welterweight Champ Can Make Weight

NEW YORK, June 3 (AP)—Pete Latzo, defending champion in the world's welterweight title, fought at the Polo grounds here tonight, scheduled 10:15, but a pound under the division limit when he weighed in at the state boxing commission office this afternoon. Joe Dundee, the challenger, weighed 113 pounds.

NEW YORK, June 3 (AP)—With expert opinion sharply divided as to the outcome, Pete Latzo, world's welterweight champion, and Joe Dundee, the Baltimore challenger, will settle their differences over the 15-round route to tonight at the Polo grounds.

Although the odds were slightly in Latzo's favor some of the critics favored his Indian-American rival because of the expected doubt of the champion's ability to make the 147-pound limit at 2 o'clock without weakening himself.

It was only a few months ago that the stout Dundee encountered an then unknown boxer, Eddie Hubert, who knocked him out in three rounds, stunning abruptly his championship aspirations. Dundee met his conqueror a short time later and beat him over 19 rounds in New York by a magnificent display of courage after being floored in one of the early rounds.

Dundee is a natural welterweight and has no trouble making the weight limit. This is the first time Latzo has actually defeated his title over the championship distance.

The White Sox game of the western invaders came through with a victory, Ted Lyons regaining 2 to 2 triumph over the Hoopla Boston team.
