OFFICE CAT

(Just one of those verses we involuntarily write this time of year.)
Sing a song of Junetime,
Sing a song of Junetime,
Sing a song of Junetime,
When the roses do their stuff,
Sing a song of Junetime,
Looontime—
Anyone with rumpion will consider this enough.

Women used to fear that somebody might see their ankles; now they worry that nobody will notice their knees.

"He's a successful farmer?"
"Yes, he's sold his farm to a golf club."

Here lies the body of George Noah Stool—
He laughed at his girl when her teeth fell out.

When an after-dinner speaker has told three or four chestnuts without getting so much as a smile from the crowd, and then says, "I had to be serious gentlemen," that is the time to laugh heartily.

"While what is your greatest ambition?"
"To wash mother's cars."

Teacher: "It gives me great pleasure to mark you 50 on your examination."
Johnny: "Why not make it 100 and give yourself a real thrill?"

Modesty in Dress Adopted by Queen

PARIS (AP)—Church dresses which Worth, famous Paris dressmaker, has designed for the Queen of Spain and the ladies of her court, and which will be worn soon in Spain, fulfill all of the Pope's demands for modesty.

"They reach to the ankles, have long sleeves and the collar is not lower than the base of the neck. Gray, beige and black are the colors usually chosen for them. The Queen of Spain was the first one in order a church dress and other models have been made along the general lines of Her Majesty's."

Worth has been courtier to the Queen of Spain for many years. He was dressmaker to the Empress Eugenie, during her lifetime, and it is said that the Queen of Spain accorded him her patronage by the request of the Empress.

AT THE THEATERS

Renee Adoree, Conrad Nagel in Film at Star

Renee Adoree just can't seem to get out of the past war. She is now going through the same struggle for the third time, and hopes it will be her last.

Miss Adoree was in Belgium at the time of the outbreak of the war, and by an unusual coincidence escaped, not across the border into England with the company with whom she was appearing on the stage in Brussels.

Then, recently, Renee played the part of Melisande in King Victor's production of "The Big Parade," a story of the great war.

Now she has been cast for the part of Renee, a young circus rider, in Phil Rosen's new production, "Heaven on Earth," which plays at the Star theater Tuesday and Wednesday. While not primarily a war picture, the story concerns France between the years of 1914-18, with a spectacular war sequence.

Conrad Nagel is appearing opposite Renee Adoree in this production. While the supporting cast includes a whole lot of actors, Gordon, Mabel, Manton and other players of note.

Mark Summit took advantage of the Catalina swim to make a comedy called "Catalina, Here I Come," which will also be on the program. Eddie Quillan, Madeline Hurlock and the Semmell bathing beauties are featured in the cast.

"The Better 'Ole" Now Showing at The Arcade

"The Better 'Ole," a Warner Bros. production, is now at the Arcade theater.

The characters are all real and intensely vital persons, especially Old Bill, the lovable British civilian in uniform, who, as mentioned by Old Chaplin, becomes an enemy in the eyes of the British army that he is in the path of the war.

The story, with its background of the war, is engaging and full of suspense that rises to a smashing climax.

But the genius of the picture lies in its laughter. It is the laughter that was stirred out of the British by the hilarity of the British army that was captured by Captain Bruce Bairnsfather, who had drawn the cartoons that later were to become famous in The London Bystander. These cartoons helped to make Old Bill as well known a war figure as Foch, Haig or Pershing, and certainly a figure much more beloved than any generalissimo. Old Bill touched the heart and made the world ring with laughter.

London Syd Chaplin, other merry-makers are Jack Akeley, as Old Bill's pal, Alf, and Ed Kennedy, as Corporal Quint. Others in the cast include Harold Godwin, Theodore Lorch, Doris Hill, Thomas General, Tom Morgan and Arthur Clayton.

The comic musical score that was used on the Vitaphone with this picture was secured for this showing and Miss Greta Grey, the organist, plays it in a most pleasing and masterful manner. The proprietors declare.

FLAG DAY PROCLAMATION
S. L. E. M. Co., June 6 (AP)—The people of Oregon are reminded, in a proclamation issued by Governor Patterson, here that this year marks the second centennial of the adoption of the American flag, and are asked to observe flag day, June 14, in an appropriate manner.

"Broken Hearts of Hollywood" Showing Here

The stray alley cat from the vintage spot of a fence peers at the favored Persian fluffy, snow-white, feathered, a bedraggled white of a pup peeps at a poster showing one of his more successful kindred in all the magnificence of film stardom, a rugged child here, however from here where rich children adopt themselves easily among points and thoughtlessly dumped Miss Poo from Grace's Corners wistfully watches the movie opens page by page. It is all the same. Henry's face, heart break! But who knows what a day may bring forth? Luck may be just around the corner!

And that is the keynote of "Broken Hearts of Hollywood," the Warner picture directed by James Flood, now at the Sherry Theater. It is a picture full of penetrating touches that show the grim side of the Hollywood show; a picture about screen people written from the hearts of two writers, Fay and Edgard, who, it is reported, were once close to being Hollywood failures themselves.

"The atmosphere of life in and about the studios is perfectly screened. But it is only a look-around for a story that could stand on its own merits in any less fashionable locale; the story of a mother who deserts her child to win screen fame, and who goes to the depths of degradation in the atmosphere of Hollywood's underworld.

It is a great character study played by Louise Dresser, who here eclipses Louise Brown in "The House of Wax." And the lovely heroine is the lovely Patrice, Fay's daughter. Other stars include Douglas Fairbanks Jr., Jerry Miley, Stuart Holmes, Barbara Worth, Dick Salsbery, Anders Randolph, George Nichols, Emilie Chautard and Sam the Gracie.

"Conrad Nagel" in "The Vanishing Armenian."

An open singer is a woman, and a good clear has to be wanted after her.
