Ted Lyons and Paul Waner, two ball-playing products of the south and southwest, came in for the largest shares of individual glory today as their teams moved onward in their rapid chase for pennant and world crown.

Lyons pitched his eighth straight victory and his eleventh in 13 starts for the Chicago White Sox in beating the Yankees 4 to 2 yesterday and Waner of the Pirates swelled a batting record that already included leadership of his league in the hitting of three-baggers by getting two doubles and a triple as his team beat the Giants 12 to 4.

Allowing the most-feared batting order in his league but five hits, all singles, Lyons showed coolness and box generalship far beyond his four years in the majors.

Extra-Inning Games

Extra-inning games showed a sudden growth in popularity. The Robins were beaten in the twelfth, 5 to 4, by the Cubs [illegible] sweep of a series after the visitors had tied the score in the ninth. The Tigers, too, won in the twelfth after saving the day with a three-run rally in the ninth. Their 10 to 5 victory over the Red Sox was the third in a row.

In two other over-six games the Boston Braves outlasted the Cardinals 11 to 8 and the Senators made it three out of four in their series with the Indians, by winning 6 to 5.

Browns Drop to 7th

The St. Louis Browns, who started the season so propitiously, dropped to the new low level of seventh place by losing to Ty Cobb and his fellow Athletics 4 to 3, for the fourth successive time. Philadelphia National league representatives took a 9 to 3 beating from the Reds who won the series and are [illegible] climbing the cellar stairs.

WOULD RESTORE GERMAN

SPRINGFIELD, Mass. — The flight to Germany and its results make the time opportune for the restoration of the prewar standing of the teaching of German in the public schools, members of the Steuben society believe. They have asked the school committee to take action.

Some day a newspaper reporter is going to tell the truth. Right after that there will be a falling off in the paper's news about piano-recitals at graduation exercises.

La Grande Club To Meet Haines Here on Sunday

Presenting what is declared is the strongest lineup so far assembled this year, the La Grande baseball club will play the Haines team here tomorrow afternoon at the high school athletic field at 2 o'clock.

La Grande, to date, has been in the cellar, but is expecting to begin climbing the stairs—starting tomorrow.

The lineup will be: Garrick, Carroll, Oliver, pitchers; Malone, catcher; Gardy, first base; Hargett, second; Ted Knight, short stop; Taylor, third; Keown, left field; Alexander, center field; Stoddard, right field; Melanson, Price and Grace, utility.

Haines is bringing a strong pitcher to La Grande in Burton, who struck out 22 Cove men in the first game of the season. Geddes is the Haines relief pitcher.

Los Angeles trimmed Portland twice, winning the first game, 3 to 2, behind good pitching by Pierry, and slugging out a 9 to 4 win in the second. Batteries: first game—Hughes, Tomlin and Fischer, Wendell; Pierry and Hannah. Second game—Kinney, J. Stori, French, Cooper, Ponder and Wendell; Plaenge, Weathersby, Saunders, Peters, Cunningham and Sandberg; Hannah, Smith.

Seattle drove Moody off the hill early in the game and smothered San Francisco under an avalanche of hits to win, 12 to 3. Batteries: Miljus and Jenkins; Schmitt, Moody, Kunz and Vargas.

George Boehler had a trifle the best of Frank Shellenback in a pitching duel, Oakland taking the lead in the series by winning 1 to 0. Batteries: Shellenback and D. Murphy; Boehler and Read.

The Missions dropped both ends of a double header to Sacramento by scores of 7-3 and 3-1. Batteries: First game—Pillette, Bryan, Holling and Whitney; Vinci and Severeid. Second game—Weinert and Walters; Singleton and Koehler.

WINS VALLEY DASH TITLES

LAWRENCE, Kas. (AP)—Lowell "Bud" Grady, University of Kansas sprinter, has taken unto himself all of the Missouri Valley conference dash titles for 1927, donning the crown worn last year by Roland Locke of Nebraska.

Grady won the conference 100-yard dash in 9.8 seconds, aided somewhat by a breeze, to equal the conference record set last year by Locke. Grady also won the conference 220-yard dash in 21.3 seconds. And to prove his right to the title of Valley speed king, he won the 50-yard indoor dash in 5.4 seconds last winter to equal the conference mark.

Grady has been anchor man on the noted Kansas sprint relay teams in the relay carnivals this spring, and also ran anchor when the Kansas team won the half-mile relay at the conference meet. His fleet legs were a big factor in bringing the Missouri Conference outdoor title to Kansas May 21 in the University of Nebraska stadium at Lincoln, for the first time in 17 years.

AMERICAN SPORT OUTLOOK GOOD

No Decline Seen in Track and Field Prowess at Olympic Approach

NEW YORK (AP)—The pessimism about the "decline" of American track and field prowess, somewhat prevalent since the Finns started to run up rapers in the distance events, shows a tendency to disappear under the influence of a brilliant season of college competition.

East, South and West the undergraduate talent has performed this year in a manner calculated to warm the heart of any track coach, not to mention the enthusiastic and patriotic followers who see the brightest of 1928 Olympic prospects in the exhibition of the country's athletic youth.

Some of High Spots

Here are a few of the high spots of the season that show how the new crop is developing:

1. Pole vault world's records, indoors and out, by Sabin W. Carr of Yale, including an astounding mark of 14 feet at the Eastern Intercollegiates, where Lee Barnes of Southern California was over 13.9 himself and four others topped 13 feet.

2. Sensational sprint performances by Charley Borah of Southern California, consistently beating "evens" for the 100-yard dash and galloping the "220" in better than 21 seconds.

3. Development of Fred Alderman, Michigan State ace, as a crack quarter-miler, along with Hoss of Yale, the national indoor 300-yard champion; Harbolt of Syracuse and Emerson Spencer of Stanford, who ran the distance in 47 4-5 seconds on the Pacific coast.

4. Broad jumping feats by Ed Hamm of Georgia Tech, consistently around 25 feet, and the entire qualifying field at the Eastern Intercollegiates, where it took jumps of 24 feet to get into the finals, in which Bates and Mathias of Penn State starred.

5. Fine mile-running of Bill Cox, Penn State sophomore, indoor and outdoor I. C. A. A. A. A. champion as well as cross-country running king.

Except for Cox and Barnes, mere schoolboys in 1924, none of these athletes has experienced Olympic competition and another year's seasoning should make them ripe for international work.

Here And There At The Union Stock Show

Clifford Conrad, of Imbler, has a good line of entries in the hog division and he has pulled down some good prizes. He had four animals entered, one sow, one boar, one market pig, one young sow and one young boar. When the awards were made he had to his credit the grand champion sow, had a $1.00 prize for junior champion boar, champion chester white sow, champion chester white boar and also champion white boar in the open class.

* * *

Grant Stringham, of Imbler, is carrying home two red ribbons and a white one on his entries of Poland Chinas. Eldon Southwick, of Cove, is interested both in cows and hogs and, as an active club member, had entries in both fields. His purebred registered Jersey calf and his three head of chester white hogs won for him two blue ribbons and three white ones.

The interest in the contest yesterday for the scholarship at the O. A. C. summer school by the boys and girls, recalls the story of the institution by Dr. W. T. Phy of what is known as the Marvin family, of Cove, owned, as a [illegible] of Cove, [illegible] as a gift from Dr. Phy, a fine young Holstein calf, and this calf was the first Holstein in Cove, that number having now increased to 32. Marvin was one of the most active club members, won local and district honors, then carried away honors at the Pacific International livestock show at Portland. The great interest which Dr. Phy always had in the boy, led to the starting of this fund shortly after the boy's untimely death two years ago. All prize money taken by the doctor on his Holsteins at the Union show goes to this fund, and it is hoped that it may before long become sufficiently large that the interest will take care of the scholarship. This is the first year the scholarship has been awarded and the decision is made not only from work done with the calves by club members but also on the writing of a thesis on a pertinent topic.

* * *

Eight firsts, two seconds, two championships and one grand champion were the string of awards given to Ned Bros. of Cove, breeders of Jerseys. The Neds are quite modest about their honors and were somewhat hesitant about giving out the list yesterday. Here it is: first on junior bull calf; cow four years or over; cow three years and under four; cow, two years and under three; heifer, junior yearling; junior heifer calf, senior champion female and junior champion heifer. Among the specials won by the Bell family are these: Gertrude Bell won W. F. Bohnenkamp's for the best fitted calf; Roberts won the Farmers' Cooperative creamery special for grand champion Jersey female; Gertrude won L. A. Wright's special for the best registered heifer shown by boys' and girls' club; the La Grande Grocery special for the best display. This is the third consecutive year that these men have won this last award, number of animals displayed, condition of the animals and cleanliness, etc., of stalls being taken into account.

* * *

From outside the county perhaps no family has contributed as interested and enthusiastic a bunch of visitors as the Pine valley. Their presence and interest has been spoken of in a very appreciative way by the management of the Union show.

* * *

Don Clark, special livestock agent of the Union Pacific, was in from Portland today, spending the day at the show.

* * *

The management appreciated very much the presence yesterday of the Wallowa county band from Enterprise, which furnished so much and such splendid music without any charge. The Enterprise delegation, coming especially as an advertisement for their own coming show, added considerable to yesterday's program, officials say.

* * *

The band which furnished the music yesterday both morning and afternoon was from Elgin rather than Baker, as was erroneously reported yesterday. The two bands, Elgin and Enterprise kept things lively.

* * *

Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Everly came in today from Weiser, Ida., and are spending the day on the grounds. Mr. Everly, who is northwest field man for the Holstein-Friesian association, had been there on Wednesday. This is his statement regarding the work of the boys and girls: "This is the best line of club calves I have ever seen. Every one is a good one."

* * *

Almon Gelse, of Cove, has a fine Holstein calf on exhibit, and while he was not successful in securing a ribbon, he is not discouraged, but is planning to keep on until he has all-prize-winners.

LACOSTE KEEPS LEDGER

PARIS (AP)—"Tilden played an entirely different game from any he has ever shown in his previous matches against me," said Rene Lacoste, France's premier tennis player and American champion, after the battle at Saint Cloud, which Big Bill won 6-4, 7-5.

"I have no excuses. Tilden is certainly in magnificent form for so early in the year," Lacoste continued.

The Frenchman has reduced tennis to a scientific business. He keeps a sort of a "ledger" in which every tennis player of importance has an account. On the credit side are noted the player's strong points and strokes, while the debit shows his weak spots in his defense. Friends of Lacoste say he added a long entry in the credit side of Tilden's account after their match in May.
