LA GRANDE CLUB DEFEATS HAINES

Carroll Pitches Three-Hit Game While Companions Smash Bingles

La Grande's baseball team broke into the winning column yesterday when it defeated the Haines club 22 to 2 in a game marked by heavy hitting on the part of the local nine.

Knicht and Whitey each go two three-stagers and Knicht was responsible for four of the 22 tallies. On the other hand, La Grande's pitching was up to snuff, with Carroll pitching a three-hit contest. Haines' regular pitcher was unable to come.

Bear Crew Trains On Beef, Chicken

BERKELEY, Cal. (AP)—California's rowing crew is going to Dougherty's training on meat and fish with the idea it has the Navy to beat to win the regatta.

The diet of the Golden Bears before and after the defeat of Washington—traditionally formidable on the water—is not so scientific as to take account of the number of vitamins but it is regulated strictly by training rates tested over a period of years.

Prime ribs, chicken and steak are the mainstay of the diet and are varied only by an occasional beef steak. There is virtually no check on the quantity or the speed with which it goes into the 25 hungry stomachs.

When chicken is served it is a half of a fryer weighing not less than two pounds. The steak—usually Porterhouse—has to weigh at least 17 pounds to satisfy the 25 plates on the menu. Heavy portions of prime ribs and beef steaks are equally generous. Sweets and condiments are limited.

Great Neck must be a wonderful place for getting parties.

HOMERS HAVE PERILS

CHICAGO—Home runs have their perils. Earl Webb hit one that put the Cubs ahead of the Giants, James W. Curry, 52, of Chicago, who leaped to his feet and cheered. He died soon after of heart disease.

Why Americans Are Athletics And Why Athletics Are White Elephants

PHILADELPHIA—Why do they call Connie Mack's Philadelphia Americans the Athletics? Why do the Athletics have a cumbersome white elephant as their emblem?

Briefly, the answer to the first question is that the name Athletics is an old and honored name in the Quarter City. As for the white elephant—blame that on John McGraw of the New York Giants.

The famous baseball team of the '70s and '80s, which crossed bats with the renowned Cincinnati Reds and the old St. Louis Browns, was the Athletics. The Athletics have a white elephant as their emblem because it was the first professional team to Philadelphia when it won the championship race in the old American Association in 1883. More than 25 years ago when the present American League invaded the east and Connie Mack

By the Associated Press. Five of seven Sunday major league games were won by a margin of a single run and most of the 10 were decided in the final inning or two. Both league leaders were defeated.

While the Pirates were brought from behind by a stirring Robin Kelly, the Yankees were beaten from in front by a seven-run inning lead piled up in the first two frames. A single in the eighth from the bat of the young Robin Kelly, pitcher, Norman Pitt, that scored the winning run for an 11 to 10 victory over the Pirates.

Both Homes Again. In the Yankee game Babe Ruth held out his 21st home run going about 1921, his record year. No one was on. In spite of a second circuit walkoff from the bat of Pipgras, relief pitcher, the Yankees could not quite wipe out the early Cleveland lead and lost by 8 to 7.

Cardinals and Phillies waged another nip-and-tuck battle not decided until the last of the ninth. Although out-hit almost 2 to 1, the Cardinals won then by 5 to 4 on Lester Bell's home run.

Relief pitchers were having a big day. Carroll of the Tigers, batting in three runs and scoring twice himself, helped his team to its fifth straight victory, this one at the expense of Boston, 11 to 10.

Mingled Fortunes. Chicago's two second place clubs were having mingled fortunes, while the White Sox dropped their second in a row to the Senators by 6 to 1, the Cubs crowded the Pirates for first place with their eighth straight victory. Earl Webb, a Medford discard, helped to beat the Giants by a single in the eighth with pushed across the deciding run, 7 to 6.

Shoutout ball pitched by Genevieve of the Boston Braves disposed of the Reds by 4 to 1.

GOLF TOURNEY BEGINS TUESDAY

73-Stroke Pace Will Be Necessary to Finish in Finals Many Believe

NEW YORK (AP)—Winning scores in the last ten open championships carry convincing evidence of a steady growth in the caliber of American golf and indicate that a burning pace of close to 73 strokes a round will be required to carry off the crown at Oakmont, Pa., on June 14, 15 and 16.

Championship cards for the last thirteen tournaments show an average of 284 for the 52-hole tests. Only once since 1914 has a score higher than 289 carried off the crown in that period. Walter Hagen tied Mike Brady with 201 in 1919 and then triumphed in the play-off.

The championship tournament opened in 238 strokes, hung up in 1918 by Chick Evans, famous Chicago amateur. Evans' amazing card was turned in over the Minnehaha course at Minneapolis, where the amateur championship will be played this year.

In spite of the lengthening and increased trapping of American courses, improvement has been raising the standards of play ever since Fred Hood won the first 72-hole championship in 1926. It was not until eight years after Hood's victory that 289 was finally broken, Alec Smith accomplishing the feat with 275. Three years later George Sargent brought the record down to 270. Since then the winning score has crept over 260 only three times, while there have been frequent cards under 250.

Winners of the last ten championships and their scores follow: 1916—Jersey Travers, 257. 1916—Chick Evans, 266. 1917—No tournaments. 1918—Walter Hagen, 269. 1924—Ted Ray, 255. 1925—Jim Burdon, 252. 1922—Gene Sarazen, 248. 1923—Hooty Jones, 254. 1924—Cyril Walker, 251. 1925—Willie Macfarlane, 251. 1926—Hooty Jones, 252.

GRANTS PASS, Ore., June 12 (AP)—A home-run with a man on from the bat of Pitcher Davis of the Blues yesterday clinched the game for the visitors by a score of 5 to 2. Grants Pass slammed out one run in the first inning but Ashland took the lead in the third and maintained it throughout.

Several promising athletes were developed in spring sports who will bolster up the varsity teams next year. In all, the athletic year for the Aggie was considered very successful.

The Canadian parliament yesterday has the oldest and youngest members of any legislative body. George Casimir Desaulniers, senator, is 99 years of age, while Louis M. Ager, member of the house of commons, is but 22.
