

Local News In Brief

COMING EVENTS

July 21, 22, 23—State American Legion convention in La Grande.

October (definite date not decided on) Oregon Parent-Teacher association convention here.

Visiting Brother Here—Miss H. Mason, of Kellogg, Ida., is visiting in the city at the home of her brother, J. T. Richardson.

Move Into Home—Mr. and Mrs. Claude Wright have moved into their new home in Portland. Mr. Wright is a salesman at the Chrysler garage.

Home From School—Miss Melba Hawks returned yesterday from Corvallis where she has been attending school for the past term.

Home From Washington—Miss Elida Miller returned to her home at Union yesterday after attending school at the University at Washington for the past year.

Scout Troop Re-Registers—The boy scout troop at Cove, of about 20 boys, re-registered today, through the efforts of the scout executive here.

Here From Washington—L. C. Ives, of Clatskanie, Wash., and M. E. Matthews, of Wenatchee, Wash., are spending a few days in La Grande. They are registered at the Foley hotel.

Here From Pilot Rock—Mr. and Mrs. Charles Johnson, of Pilot Rock, were visitors Sunday at the Ed-Haley home near Portland. They returned to Pilot Rock Sunday evening.

Will Visit Here—Miss Eleanor Glass, who is a junior at the University of Oregon, is visiting in La Grande with friends. Miss Glass arrived here yesterday from Eugene.

Leaves For Portland—Little Miss Ruth McGuire left this morning for Portland where she will visit with her sister, Mrs. Edna Hansen, for some time. She will attend the rose festival this week.

Here From Idaho—Mrs. G. M. Shultz and daughter, Evelyn and Dorothy, are spending a few days in La Grande from Barbara, Ida. They are guests at the Foley hotel.

To Attend Rose Festival—Charles Thomas, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Thomas, left this morning for Astoria where he will visit with relatives for about a week. He plans to attend the rose festival during his stay.

Going to Portland—Mrs. A. J. Linspach and little daughter, Bernadine, left this morning for Portland where they will visit for a week or so with friends and relatives. They plan to attend the rose festival at Portland while there.

Visited Here Yesterday—Mr. and Mrs. O. P. Steele, of Pendleton, visited in La Grande over the weekend. They were guests at the home of their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Gibson yesterday, returning to Pendleton last evening.

Steps in La Grande—Miss Rosemary McMullen arrived in La Grande today from Corvallis where she has attended school for the past year. Miss McMullen is a sorority sister of Miss Fern Lyman of this city. Miss McMullen plans to spend most of the summer at Walla Walla lake.

Go to Elgin—E. Russell Scott will go to Elgin tomorrow in the interest of his work. Mr. Scott is secretary of the Eastern Oregon "Buckaroo" council. He will go to Elgin Wednesday in the same interest.

At Haley Home—Mr. and Mrs. Press Haley and daughter, Maude, and their grand-daughter, Miss Edna Mathison, of Baker, visited over the weekend at the Ed-Haley home near Portland. Miss Haley is principal of Deschutes school at Baker, while Miss Mathison is a teacher at Elgin.

MULTNOMAH LUGGAGE AT CLINT'S

In Wardrobe Trunks, Regular and Steamer Trunks.

Auto Trunks Suit Cases Hat Boxes Traveling Bags

Large selection to select from, at moderate prices.

Luggage Of Quality

Clint's Clothery

The Store With a Conscience

Committees to Meet

A meeting of the agricultural and health committees of the Chamber of Commerce will be held at Hot Lake this evening.

Home From Portland—Mrs. E. H. Reno has returned to her home here after visiting her parents in Portland for about ten days.

Have Baby Girl—Mr. and Mrs. R. A. White are the proud parents of a seven-pound baby daughter born to them Sunday, June 5.

Visiting Here—Miss Corrie Houston, of Weiser, Ida., is visiting in La Grande at the home of Mrs. Myrtle Strong. She plans to be here all this week.

Marriage License Issued—Miss Zela Loftand and Loren Tucker received a marriage license Saturday afternoon from the county clerk's office here.

Had Tonsils Out—Miss Florence Houston, daughter of Mrs. Myrtle Strong, underwent a tonsil operation Saturday. She is reported to be getting along nicely.

Word Received Here—Gustav Wiesler, of this city, received word Saturday evening of the death of his mother, Mrs. Lena Wiesler, who passed away Saturday at noon at her home in Leavenworth, Kan.

Left Yesterday—Miss Mildred Matthews returned to her home at Pendleton yesterday after visiting here with her sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Norton.

Left For Portland—Mrs. Elsie Steele and Mrs. Edna Hansen left yesterday for Portland where they will visit until the middle of the week. Mrs. Steele will visit her parents.

Left this Morning—Gustav Wiesler left this morning, by auto, for Baker, Burns and other points on business. He plans to be away for about two weeks. Mr. Wiesler represents the Mutual Life Insurance company.

Called to La Grande—Mr. and Mrs. W. Meyers arrived in La Grande Saturday night from Kellogg. Mrs. Meyers was called to La Grande by the death of her father, E. Albrecht, whose funeral will be held yesterday afternoon. They will visit relatives here for a few days.

Left Last Night—Mrs. Ronella Shonday left last night for her home in Portland after a few days spent here. She was called to La Grande by the illness and death of her father, E. Albrecht. Evan Wain accompanied her back to Portland and will visit there for a time.

At Brownson Home—Dr. and Mrs. H. S. Brownson had as their guests over the weekend, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Haight, of Clatskanie, Ore. Mr. Haight is editor of the paper at Clatskanie City, which is the county seat of Grant county. Their son, Billy, who has been visiting at the Brownson home for the past few weeks, accompanied Mr. and Mrs. Haight home yesterday.

Great Nieces—The boys and Mrs. H. W. Parlor visited this morning with their nieces, Miss Gordon, of Sheshone, who stopped in La Grande for a short time on her way to Seabeck, Wash., where she will attend the Y. W. C. A. summer school. Miss Gordon was chosen as a delegate to the school from Gooding college, where she is a student.

Attends Funeral—Among the out-of-town people who attended the funeral of Lee A. Snyder here yesterday were Mrs. L. E. Hamner and daughter, Mrs. Corberry, Mrs. Fern Snyder and Marjorie Morrill and daughter, all of Tilton. Mr. and Mrs. B. H. Snyder, Pendleton; Mrs. Snyder and family, of Lewiston; and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Gunn of Selma, Wash.

Went on Hike—About 20 boy scouts from troups number three and 14 went on a hike to Morgan Lake Saturday. The boys left La Grande early in the morning, accompanied by E. H. Scott, scout executive, and E. C. Vosses, Philing, and names made up the hike's program. The hike, which was prepared by Mr. Casper, made up a part of the picnic dinner.

Home From Medical School—Luther Peterson arrived home this morning from Los Angeles where he has been attending the College of Osteopaths, Physicians and Surgeons for the past year. He visited for a few days on his return trip with his mother, Mrs. J. Peterson who is spending some time at Hot Lake. Mr. Peterson, who spent two years at the University of Oregon before going to the medical college, will graduate next year.

College Boys Home—John Robinson returned home this morning from Eugene where he has been attending the university. With him were the six other members of the "Varsity Vagabonds" a regular campus organization which plans to play in La Grande for most of the summer vacation. It will make its initial appearance at Walla Walla late this coming Saturday. The members of the orchestra, besides Robinson are Al Woodruff, Roy Hall, Frank Wagner, Kenneth Price, Russell Lane and Bud Lenz.

Here From Hilgard—Miss Mary Young, of Hilgard, spent the day visiting in La Grande.

Here From Ontario—Mrs. A. H. Osborne, of Ontario, is stopping in La Grande for a few days. She is a guest at the Sommer hotel.

Here From Maxville—Mr. and Mrs. Vern Church, of Maxville, spent the week end visiting in La Grande. They stopped at the Foley.

Leaves For Portland—Mrs. C. S. Moore left last evening for Portland where she will spend about a week visiting with friends and attending the rose festival. She will join Mrs. R. E. Dixon and Mrs. W. H. Gault who drove to Portland Sunday morning.

Returns to Colorado—Erie B. Ingle, who has been visiting with his aunt, Mrs. Ward W. Fowler, and his cousin, Dr. J. L. Ingle, left this morning for his home in Greeley, Colo. This is his first trip to Oregon and Mr. Ingle likes the country here very much.

Superintendent Here—Tom Burman, superintendent of the Morrison-Kautz Construction company is here from Home, in connection with work of the company. He is accompanied by B. J. Robertson who is also with the construction company.

Home From Portland—Mrs. William Sheerist and daughter, Judy, and son, George Harboun, have returned from Portland and Corvallis where Mr. Harboun has been attending school. Mrs. Sheerist drove down about two weeks ago and visited in Portland with relatives and friends before going on to Corvallis.

Home From O. A. C.—Fred Smith has returned from Corvallis where he has completed his third year's work in business administration.

Home From O. A. C.—Miss Freda Klopenski is home from Corvallis, where she is a student at the Oregon Agricultural college.

Has Operation—Timed Price, son of Mr. and Mrs. G. J. Price, who is attending school at the University of Washington, underwent an operation today in Seattle.

Home From O. A. C.—Miss Freda Klopenski is home from Corvallis, where she is a student at the Oregon Agricultural college.

Has Operation—Timed Price, son of Mr. and Mrs. G. J. Price, who is attending school at the University of Washington, underwent an operation today in Seattle.

Home From Baker—H. C. Williams, resident high-way engineer of Baker, was here this morning. Mr. Williams is finishing a survey for widening the old Oregon Trail highway between Kamela and Hilgard.

Weathered Alike—For the fourth time in a month's time the woodshed belonging to T. W. Price, at 1208 Seventh street, caught afire yesterday evening about 7:30 o'clock. The fire department quickly extinguished the blaze.

Home From Portland—Mrs. George Richardson returned to her home here yesterday from Portland, where she has been visiting her mother for the past month. Mr. Richardson went to Portland Saturday night, having finished his home yesterday.

Returns From California—Oscar Cutler, state highway maintenance engineer of this division, returned to La Grande yesterday after a ten-day trip to Sacramento and San Francisco, Cal. Mrs. Cutler visited her parents in Portland while he was away, returning home with her husband yesterday.

Pleased With Course—"The improvement that has been made on your golf course in the last two months is remarkable," said John Hauer, professional on the Walla Walla course, yesterday. Mr. Hauer, accompanied by his wife and daughter, were here over the week end visiting and inspecting the course. Mr. Hauer is contemplating giving instructions in La Grande and will return in a few days to make a decision. He has been instructor of the Walla Walla country club for a number of years.

Home From Pendleton—Miss Nadie Shonday and Mrs. Perry Gibson, of Pendleton, were here this week end at the home of Mrs. G. H. Williams. They attended the funeral of James McTernan Saturday afternoon. Other out-of-town people here for the funeral were Mr. and Mrs. Baker, Mr. and Mrs. Buchanan and Mrs. Fred Moss, of Baker, and Mrs. Marjorie Robinson and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Johnson, of Pendleton.

Leaves For Hood River—After visiting for about two weeks at the home of her brother, D. A. and Francis Carlson, Mrs. E. C. Waldron, accompanied by her two children, Yvonne and Earl, left this morning for Hood River where she will spend a day. She will be joined tomorrow by Mrs. H. A. Carlson and son from Hood River the car will go to Portland where they will attend the rose festival and visit for a week or so.

Leaves For New York—Miss Geneva Sayre, daughter of County School Superintendent and Mrs. E. A. Sayre, who recently returned home from China where she spent six years in missionary work, left yesterday for Rochester, N. Y., where she will attend the general conference and missionary's convention of the Free Methodist church. This combined conference and convention is held every four years. Miss Sayre will be out for several weeks.

Stock Show Getting Better—"The show is getting better and better every year," Joe Woods, veteran show driver over the Old Oregon Trail, declares. Mr. Woods has attended the stock show each year during the 25 years of existence, and says that the show this year was better than ever before. "The stock was the best ever exhibited and the race horses were no good any more," he said. He also commented on the good work of the judges. Mr. Woods attended all three days of the show, although he did not take part in any of the events.

Maxville Men Here—H. Laird and Charles Swafford, of Maxville, visited in La Grande yesterday with friends.

Marriage License—A marriage license was issued this morning to Rita Neelman and William Cameron, both of Joseph.

Trucker Incident Here—Mrs. George Osborne, of Imbler, was a visitor in La Grande Saturday.

Here Saturday—Mr. and Mrs. F. E. McQuary and daughter, of Parkville, spent Saturday shopping and visiting with friends in La Grande.

Home From Summerville—Mrs. John Wagner, of Summerville, was a La Grande visitor Saturday. She spent the day shopping.

Visiting Daughter—Mrs. George Tilton, of Lonnie, is visiting at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Henry Counsel in Laird Canyon. They visited in La Grande Saturday.

Leaves For Boise—C. A. Ham left this morning for Boise where he will spend several days on business. Mr. Ham is manager of the Union Creamery company.

Home From O. A. C.—Fred Smith has returned from Corvallis where he has completed his third year's work in business administration.

Home From O. A. C.—Miss Freda Klopenski is home from Corvallis, where she is a student at the Oregon Agricultural college.

Has Operation—Timed Price, son of Mr. and Mrs. G. J. Price, who is attending school at the University of Washington, underwent an operation today in Seattle.

Home From O. A. C.—Miss Freda Klopenski is home from Corvallis, where she is a student at the Oregon Agricultural college.

Has Operation—Timed Price, son of Mr. and Mrs. G. J. Price, who is attending school at the University of Washington, underwent an operation today in Seattle.

Home From Baker—H. C. Williams, resident high-way engineer of Baker, was here this morning. Mr. Williams is finishing a survey for widening the old Oregon Trail highway between Kamela and Hilgard.

Weathered Alike—For the fourth time in a month's time the woodshed belonging to T. W. Price, at 1208 Seventh street, caught afire yesterday evening about 7:30 o'clock. The fire department quickly extinguished the blaze.

Home From Portland—Mrs. George Richardson returned to her home here yesterday from Portland, where she has been visiting her mother for the past month. Mr. Richardson went to Portland Saturday night, having finished his home yesterday.

Returns From California—Oscar Cutler, state highway maintenance engineer of this division, returned to La Grande yesterday after a ten-day trip to Sacramento and San Francisco, Cal. Mrs. Cutler visited her parents in Portland while he was away, returning home with her husband yesterday.

Pleased With Course—"The improvement that has been made on your golf course in the last two months is remarkable," said John Hauer, professional on the Walla Walla course, yesterday. Mr. Hauer, accompanied by his wife and daughter, were here over the week end visiting and inspecting the course. Mr. Hauer is contemplating giving instructions in La Grande and will return in a few days to make a decision. He has been instructor of the Walla Walla country club for a number of years.

Home From Pendleton—Miss Nadie Shonday and Mrs. Perry Gibson, of Pendleton, were here this week end at the home of Mrs. G. H. Williams. They attended the funeral of James McTernan Saturday afternoon. Other out-of-town people here for the funeral were Mr. and Mrs. Baker, Mr. and Mrs. Buchanan and Mrs. Fred Moss, of Baker, and Mrs. Marjorie Robinson and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Johnson, of Pendleton.

Leaves For Hood River—After visiting for about two weeks at the home of her brother, D. A. and Francis Carlson, Mrs. E. C. Waldron, accompanied by her two children, Yvonne and Earl, left this morning for Hood River where she will spend a day. She will be joined tomorrow by Mrs. H. A. Carlson and son from Hood River the car will go to Portland where they will attend the rose festival and visit for a week or so.

Leaves For New York—Miss Geneva Sayre, daughter of County School Superintendent and Mrs. E. A. Sayre, who recently returned home from China where she spent six years in missionary work, left yesterday for Rochester, N. Y., where she will attend the general conference and missionary's convention of the Free Methodist church. This combined conference and convention is held every four years. Miss Sayre will be out for several weeks.

Stock Show Getting Better—"The show is getting better and better every year," Joe Woods, veteran show driver over the Old Oregon Trail, declares. Mr. Woods has attended the stock show each year during the 25 years of existence, and says that the show this year was better than ever before. "The stock was the best ever exhibited and the race horses were no good any more," he said. He also commented on the good work of the judges. Mr. Woods attended all three days of the show, although he did not take part in any of the events.

In Baker Today—Mrs. F. R. Wilcox spent today visiting and transacting business in Baker.

Here Yesterday—Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Service, of Baker, spent Sunday visiting in La Grande. Mr. Service is with the Morelock-Service Motor company.

To Halfway—Maud Johnson went to Halfway this morning where she will spend several days looking after business matters.

Here From Wallowa—Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Searle and children, of Wallowa, are visiting in La Grande today. Mr. Searle is a notary public, realtor and insurance man.

To Attend Meeting—Mrs. Adelaide Packard, district deputy for the W. B. A. district in La Grande this morning. She will attend the W. B. A. meeting tomorrow night at which a class will be initiated.

Leaves For Baker—Mrs. C. P. Miller, of St. Louis, left this morning for Baker where she will join her husband. Mr. Miller has been in Eastern Oregon cities on business for the past few weeks.

Fishing Season Open—County Game and Fish Warden John Wahlen announces today that the fishing season is now open on Ladd creek and has been since the first of the month.

Home From Washington—Miss Vera Hearty arrived home this morning from Seattle where she has been attending school at the University of Washington. She will spend the summer with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Hearty. She visited with Miss Marjorie Warrick for a short time in Portland before returning home.

Leaves For Ascension School—Among the La Grande people who went to Cove today to attend the Ascension summer school of the Episcopal church are Helen Gray, Thelma Gray, Marion Crowe, Jay Jones, Howard Sargent, Phillip Barnes, Doris Barnes, Margaret Mino, Morline Mayer, and Irene Spencer.

La Grande Girl Honored—Miss Liletta Leighton who has completed her junior year at Willamette university has been elected manager for the Alpha Phi Alpha, a scholastic honorary house at the Salem college. Miss Leighton was recently elected president of the Classic club. She will be home in about two weeks.

Reached Home Yesterday—John Stoddard, accompanied by Miss Irma Lyman and her sorority sister, Miss Marty Wynkoop, of Portland, arrived here yesterday from Corvallis where the Misses Lyman and Wynkoop have been attending school. Mr. Stoddard transacted business in Portland during the past week. In Portland during the past week, Miss Wynkoop will be a guest at the George Lyman home for about two weeks before returning to Portland. Miss Lyman plans to go to Eugene where she will work during the summer after visiting here for several weeks with her parents.

To Attend Graduation—Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Norton of this city and their niece, Miss Mildred Matthews, of Pendleton, who has been visiting here since Saturday, left this morning for Walla Walla where they will attend the commencement exercises at Whitson this evening. Miss Matthews is a member of the graduating class. Miss Mildred graduated this spring from the Pendleton high school.

Former La Grander Here—Mr. and Mrs. Ben Deacon and daughter, former La Grande residents, are visiting with friends in La Grande for a few days before leaving for a few days before leaving for their home in Kansas City where they will remain an indefinite time. Mr. Deacon recently sold the Holland hotel in Medford where they have made their home since leaving La Grande. Mr. Deacon was owner of the Silver Grill and the Sommer hotel while making his home here. Mr. and Mrs. Deacon are guests at the Sommer.

Home From Washington—Wesley Brownson arrived here yesterday from Seattle where he has been attending the University of Washington for the past week. He will visit for a short time with his parents, Dr. and Mrs. H. R. Brownson before leaving for Walla Walla where he will be employed as a Wearver-Aluminum company salesman. Mr. Brownson is a freshman in law at Washington. His brother, Sheldon, is expected to arrive home tomorrow night.

Receives Journalistic Honor—Word has been received from Stanford university of the appointment of Sam Cochran, who has just completed his second year at Stanford, to the office of local advertising manager for the Stanford paper, the Daily Palo Alto during the coming year. This office, which is filled by a junior, is always in

We Buy for Less We Sell for Less

MEN'S OXFORDS

$3.95 - $4.45

OVERALLS

95c

Russell Work Gloves

95c - $1.25

NEW YORK STORE

Destroyers of High Prices.

C.J. Breier Co. 56 STORES IN THE WEST 1104 Adams Ave. Store No. 13 La Grande, Ore.

Now For Underwear!

At Prices That Will Astonish You

Men like our fine ribbed union suits; light or heavier weights, long or short sleeves. Well fitting and decidedly comfortable. Try to match these values anywhere.

79c

Athletic Style Unions

Men's cool, comfortable athletic style unions of silk striped madras. On and off in a jiffy. Our price 79c

95c

Russell Work Gloves

95c - $1.25

NEW YORK STORE

Destroyers of High Prices.

Arcade TODAY TUESDAY WEDNESDAY O-O-O-O-O LOOK! HERE'S CONSTANCE TALMADGE VENUS OF VENICE

Are you good at FIGURES? Then see Constance as a Vamping Venus! Watch her SUBTRACT pocket-books from policemen - DIVIDE the rich artist she's crazy about from his fiancee - MULTIPLY comedy complications - and ADD to the gaiety of nations!

STAR TONIGHT DOROTHY GISH Tip-Toes WILL ROGERS NELSON KEYS A Paramount Picture DOROTHY GISH dancing herself in and out of more hearts than you can count!