Pinnacles Near Coolidge Camp Awaiting Names

RAPID CITY, S. D. (AP)—Scores of granite pinnacles which rise in grotesque formations along the Needles highway in the Black Hills are waiting for names.

Around and between these Needles and through tunnels, the Needles road in the state park winds northwest from the game lodge, where President Coolidge will make his summer home, to Sylvan Lake, 20 miles northwest of the lake.

And if the President and Mrs. Coolidge care to name a few of the strange rock shapes during their summer sojourn, South Dakota will be glad to have them do it.

The Needles were once huge granite slabs, left standing on their sides by nature's upheaval in the Black Hills. Parts of the rock softer than others yielded to wind and frost, and centuries of erosion have left a vast wilderness of the stone columns, bent by the elements into every conceivable shape.

Camas Withdraws From City League

PORTLAND, Ore., June 15 (AP)—Camas has withdrawn from the city league, forfeiting the games for the remainder of the season.

The loss of this club makes three clubs that have dropped out in the last two weeks, bringing the circuit from eight teams to five.

One team will be idle each day. Mount Scott drew the bye for this week.

Three weeks will be required to finish out the four remaining weeks of the new schedule, no games being billed over July 4.

At the end of this time the fifth place team will be dropped and the four survivors will play one, perhaps two, more times around.

The standings with Camas forfeited games:

W. Scott	11	1	517
Salem	10	2	503
Mountville	8	2	750
Nesalem	6	5	545
Woodman	6	5	545
