CURIOUS CRITTERS

The "Chigger" is invisible. He's short and very thin. Yet he's so heavy that his feet sink right into your skin.

—Houston, Texas Post-Dispatch.

The yellow jacket isn't long. Nor yet so very thick. But man alive, he sure is strong in letting loose a kick.

—Youngstown, Ohio Telegram.

The hornet's smaller than a cow. And one short horn he has. But when he uses it, oh, wow! He sure puts in the juice.

—San Francisco, Cal., Bulletin.

The wasp compared to elephants. Is mighty dawggone small. But just the same when he sits down.

You nearly always howl.

—Urbana, Ohio Democrat.

And although the mosquito's not so very large a beast, He'll feed on you then leave a hot reminder of his feast.

"Sir," said the astonished landlady to the guest who had passed his cup for the seventh time, "you must be very fond of coffee."

"Yes, madam, I am," he replied, "or I should never have drunk so much water to get a little."

"Anything new in your neighborhood?" we asked a farmer.

"Yes, the whole neighborhood is stirred up," he replied.

"What is the cause?" we asked eagerly.

"Laughing," answered the farmer.

Today is a good day—if you make it so.

AT THE THEATERS

"Rough House Rosie" Begins Three-Day Run at Arcade

"R. H. Rosie" doesn't mean "Royal Highness Rosie" but it does mean "Real Hit" and "Rough House Rosie!" Clara's boy's new starting vehicle reaches the Arcade theater tonight for a 3 days run and reports which promise it credit "Rough House Rosie" with being the finest she has ever made.

The screen story, adapted by Max Martin from Nunnally Johnson's tale, is that of Rosie O'Reilly, an ambitious colored dancer very much in love with Joe Pennington, who in his own opinion, can't fall to be the next middleweight champion. Their love affair runs along smoothly until Arthur Ruppall offers a little competition. Ordinarily, this wouldn't matter but when one considers the romantic way Rosie and Arthur met, then you'd know things are really worse than they seem.

It seems that Lew McKay, a café-hauser, gave Rosie a diamond pin and police promptly seized it for his stolen property, refused to press charges when Rosie pleaded her innocence. Add to this the fact that Mr. Benaglia was rich, good looking and an admirer. Is it any wonder Joe soon found himself without a girl?

What does he do? You'll find out when "Rough House Rosie" is given its first screening. Read Howes, Arthur Housman, Boris Hill and Douglas Gilmore are featured.

On the same bill will be pictures of Capt. Lindbergh's arrival and reception in Paris. Special added attraction "The Curly Vagabond" and "The Hat College Band" will appear at 8:45 p. m. tonight—Thursday only.

"The Devil's Gulch" Showing at Sherry's Tonight Only

Searchers for something new in entertainment will find it in Bob Coster's latest, "The Devil's Gulch" now showing at the Sherry theater. "The Devil's Gulch" is a western story, with some good hard riding, quick trigger business, and an excellent bit of roping which Bob does when his life is in danger.

The novel leads are introduced in his dealings with the villain—and he by the way is quite different from most bad men. The girl in the beautiful romance is played by the lovely Hazel Deane, while the supporting cast includes: Charles Hecker, Tom Ray, Buck Moulton, Mark Hamilton and Breffnie Henge. Jack Nelson directed the photo which was adapted for the screen by Barr Cross from the story by Arthur Preston Hawkins.

Comedy showing "The Vanishing Villain."
