By the Associated Press. CAROL YERKS, recently obtained by Portland from the Athletics, made an unexpected debut tonight by whitewashing Seattle, 4 to 0. Two hits were all the Senators could gather for his delivery. Batteries—Yerks and Woodell; Keating and Seaver.

Hollywood won her second straight game from the Browns, 2 to 0, chiefly because Shellenbach's most delivery was a Chinese puzzle to the both checking crew. Batteries—Shellenbach and Murphy; Lindolph, Eckert and Whitney.

A ninth inning Seattle rally fell one short of tying the score, and Oakland won, five to four. Batteries—Edwards and Schmidt; Cooper and Hoel.

He Should Be Named Lindbergh

The owners of Creek Indian should be requested to change that horse's name to Lindbergh after they see this photograph. If a thoroughbred ever seemed to be catching air, Creek Indian seemed to be doing that thing when an NEA cameraman snapped him recently. Creek Indian is now working out for races later in the summer.
