OFFICE CAT
By Junius

Mrs. Newberry: Now, George dear, if I do all the cooking for a month, what will I eat?

George: You'll eat my life insurance and a long black veil!

"Fred is set on a trip in July and his wife wants to wait till August."

"Well, he'll enjoy August just as much."

GOIN' FISIN'

When ole summer falls aroun',
Then I'm goin' fishin';
Dig some bait out of the crum—
Then I'm goin' fishin'.
Ted will bring some jelly an' jam,
I will slip some bread an' ham,
We'll have the jolliest time what
and
Gee! we're goin' fishin'!

Jim will furnish some books and bait.
Then we're goin' fishin'.
Bain the corner for him we'll wait.
Then we're goin' fishin'.
What if it should happen to rain?
By josh, we'll go just the same,
'Cause we mean with night an' main
Just to go a-fishin'.

A local new-cyber has the electrical craze—everything possible in his modern bungalow is electrical. So, when his wife complained she was getting tired of husband hair he got her an electric switch.

"Say, there mister, can you tell me the name of Neddy's wife?"

"Sure, Joan of Arc. Don't ask such silly questions."

"Which do you consider the most war-like nation, doctor?"

"Oh, vacillating! It's nearly always in arms."

AT YOUR LUNCHEON-CLUB

Smile a while and give your face a rest.
Stand up straight and elevate your chin.
Raise your hands up to the sky
While you wig your head so awfully.
Turn around and lumber up a bit.
As you wobble. And now, before you sit,
Reach right out to someone near
Shake his hand and smile.

SOME FOOLISH FACTS

AT THE THEATERS

Western Photoplay Showing at Sherrys Theater Tonight

Hoot Gibson At Star Theater Tonight, Saturday

How would you like to see a whirling photoplay of western life, abundantly spiced with comedy?

Imagine a likeable hero, caught in a broiling desert feud, but unable to stop the tempest seeking in the minds of angry men unless he becomes real bad and compels them to forgive and forget. What a situation!

The photoplay is "The Terror of Pueblo," an Art Mix Production, one of the best western photoplays ever screened.

Ever screened will shown at Sherry Theater tonight only.

It entertains, instructs and amuses with such startling rapidity of action that you will be delightfully surprised.

Comedy "That's My Mommy."

Almost every sort of wheeled conveyance, from freight cars to flyovers, furnish Hoot Gibson with the means of transportation in his latest and funniest comedy-thriller, "Hey! Hey! Cowboy!" showing at the Star tonight and Saturday.

Of course, Gibson also uses his more familiar and accustomed means of getting over the ground, in the saddle of his trusty horse, but you will also see him "riding the rods" and hijacking the wheel of a racing Ford in, but pursuit of the villain who steals the girl, bumping, sliding and slewing over the rocky plains of a Western ranch.

Accompanying Gibson in the cast of the picture are Kathleen Key, "Slim" Summerville, Clarke Cummings, Wheeler Oakman, Monte Montana, Nick Conley, Jim Carey and Miss Davenport.

"Broke Again" with Andy Gump is the comedy.

Clara Bow's Latest Now Showing At Arcade Theater

Inaugural Dress Kept in Nashville

A motion picture with joy radiating from every one of its thousands of entertaining feet is now playing at the Arcade Theater—Clara Bow's new Paramount starring production, "Rough House Rosie."

In the role of Rosie O'Flaherty, the bewitching belle of Tenth Avenue, the diminutive dynamo Clara announces some new folds in the banner of fame that spread for her when "It" was flooded on the screens of the world.

"Rough House Rosie" has more action, tense drama, and clever comedy than any picture in the five existing motion pictures. No word that can be said would speak too highly of it.

From the opening sequence at the amusement beach to the rousing pugilistic encounter at the end, "Rough House Rosie" held its audience enthralled. Sandwiched between are dances, gay parties, bathing, pool-hits and 1 even an elaborate motion picture. A night in the life of Clara spends a night in jail.

Used Hovey gives a fine performance as Joe Hennessy while Doris Hill shows vivid evidence of why she is a Paramount contract actress. Others in the supporting cast are Arthur Housman, Douglas Gilmore, Henry Kolker, the Leon Lambert of "Bohemia" and John Miljan. Capt. Lindbergh's arrival and reception in Paris is also shown in "The Pathic News."

NASHVILLE, Tenn. (AP)—The elaborate gown of pale rose, brocaded with worn by Mrs. James K. Polk at the inaugural ball in honor of her husband in 1845 is preserved in the Tennessee War Memorial building here.

The dress, on a wax figure and encased within glass, is the center of feminine attention. An old family clock and other White House relics of the Polk days are in the section of the building devoted to the Polk museum.

What this country needs is a radio announcer who hasn't a Mark Twain complex.

English Designed Modern Football

(CINCINNATI, AP)—The United States may boast of the proficiency of its youth in football and basketball, but England made possible many of the thrills which derive from the sports, according to Hugo Goldsmith, athletic statistician of Cincinnati.

"The English were first to discard metallic stents and valves in the rubber blades of athletic balls, and their innovations have made speed and accuracy possible. Safety of the sports also has been enhanced.
