

Brier Twists for your summer suit

Greys, Sand tones and Blues—beautiful summer shades, not so light that they'll spot immediately—not so dark that they lose their breezy summer character. The cloth itself is light, porous, splendid for tailoring and serviceable—just what you want. And it's made up in suits with the correct cut.

REORGANIZATION IS CELEBRATED

Portland Telegram Has All-Night "Victory Program" over KEX

PORTLAND, Ore., June 22 (AP)—The Portland Telegram celebrated its reorganization with an all-night radio "victory program" over KEX starting at 6:30 p. m., and ending at 2 a. m. this morning. In addition to varied entertainment features there were addresses by Mayor George L. Baker, G. C. Letter, editor; F. C. Dahlquist, advertising manager; Kenneth Uhl, secretary of the Telegram Employees' association; and Harry C. Faye, city editor.

Mayor Baker expressed satisfaction that the Telegram "was to continue as a newspaper. 'You'll see a great newspaper from now on,' he said. 'It is going to be a great factor in the northwest.'"

MUTINEERS PASS 5TH HOUR UNDER GROUND IN MINE

mutineers—"no cigarettes, no coal."

Strict disciplinary measures have been taken by Hudspeth. The 129 "hard boiled" convicts employed in the mine factory were kept in their cells yesterday. A machine gun commands the mine entrance and prison yard for "disciplinary purposes" while extra guards are ready for an emergency. Several houses built were placed in solitary confinement on a bread and water diet.

Warden W. H. Mackey was due back today from Texas where he went to obtain a prisoner. He approved Hudspeth's method in a telegram stating, "I am glad you are dealing with an iron hand, making no concession to their childish demands for cigarettes."

"They may require some hot shot," Mackey concluded. "Hot shot" was interpreted by prison authorities to mean "bullet if necessary."

With electric lights in the mine out, Hudspeth expected the strikers might be ready to leave their dungeon today.

SIGN CONTRACT

NEW YORK, June 22 (AP)—Jack Sharkey and Jack Dempsey at 2:30 struck this afternoon signed a contract to box 15 rounds at the Yankee stadium July 21.

Dempsey will receive 27 1/2 per cent of the receipts and Sharkey 22 1/2 per cent, under the terms of the contract. The buyers posted appearance forfeits of $2500.

We have something to tell you this morning that might interest every one of you. The price of lard oil at $1.05 a gallon is a thing of the past and should never have been quoted at those prices at any time.

We have sold approximately 24 barrels at those prices and now we have a new supply of 10 barrels and the prices have raised from what we paid on the early spring shipment. Our old price on lard oil for a long long time has been $1.55 a gallon and we are going back to that because we believe that is a just price; but before we made our announcement this morning, we called a prominent dealer in Portland that always deals on a very low margin and he said that they are retailing at $1.69, and we also got in touch with the mail order business and found out that you can do better by buying it at home for $1.25. We have been a bitter fighter against high prices, and also we are just as bitter against prices that are too low. A man's a big fool to keep on selling some commodity at a loss; in fact, the people think less of him and also if a man goes broke—he is not looked up to, but looked down upon. Or in other words, if a horse falls down, six men will run to pick him up, but if a man falls down, they'll kick him in the stomach till he vomits.

Cedar shingles and nails will have to be brought back to reasonable prices. The prices we have been selling for is ridiculous and everybody knows it.
