Pleasing Recital Given Last Night

The recital given at the Presbyterian church last night by Miss Bertha Bantz, violin pupil of Leo Corliss Bryant, assisted by Miss Bethel Trill, soprano, pupil of Mrs. Wm. H. Parkinson, was one of the most pleasing and successful individual student recitals given this season.

The program was exceptionally well balanced and effected spontaneous applause after each number. Miss Bantz draws a large warm tone from her violin which was especially noticeable in the "Adagio" by Beethoven and the "Scherzetto" by Raff. Her interpretation of the "Concerto in A Minor" by Beethoven and the "Gypsy Airs" by Sarasate also demonstrated her mastery over the technical requirements of these difficult compositions.

She responded to three encores, playing the beautiful "Waltz of Minnieka," "Chopin's 'AT Hazy' and 'Schoen Rosemarin' by Kreisler. Miss Trill sang every number beautifully and with almost perfect enunciation. She has a clear, resonant soprano voice of rare quality combined with a charming personality. The "Sleepy Hollow Tune" with violin obbligato was particularly well received by the audience. For an encore she sang "The Night Wind" by Raff.

Miss Bantz and Miss Trill both received many bouquets of flowers. The Eastern Oregon School of Music will present several other advanced students in individual recitals in the near future.

a drink. Study and story hour preceded lunch. The girls won many honors while on their trip. The girls were cooked by two girls who received an honor for each meal they prepared. Other honors were won by making pine bough bouquets, saddling and bridling a horse, making beads in the ground, making blue prints of wild flowers and dining trails. The group returned to the city on Saturday.

The Browning family reunion was held Sunday afternoon at the home of Harry Browning on Russell street. Dinner was served and a social afternoon and evening was spent.
