Pittsburg and St. Louis, ring leaders in the National League pennant scramble were still grappling for a firm footing on the peak to-day after one of the most grueling series of the current season. As honors were divided in the four-game series, the Cardinals left the home town of the world champions with a threadbare hold of half a game on first place.

The Cardinals clustered five runs in an eighth-inning come-back to shake the Pirates out of the series final, 10 to 9.

The Cubs closed a four-session series in Cincinnati with an even break by annexing the final from the Reds by 2 to 1.

The Phillies emerged in front 3 to 4 in an opening engagement with the Robins.

Rain kept the Giants and Braves idle on a scheduled double program.

The American league struggle looks more and more like a run-away affair with New York equaling in front on an eleven-game margin. The foundering and down-trodden Red Sox fell victims to the Hoppers rifles to the extent of 3 to 2. It was the eleventh consecutive reversal for Boston.

Washington cut the Athletics out of second place by triumphing 3 to 2. The Mackmen were shuffled back to fourth place, the White Sox nosing into third place on a half-game lead.

At Chicago, Ted Blankenship blanked the Indians 5 to 0 in the first section of a double header but Cleveland came from behind in the closing innings of the night-cap to win out 3 to 4.

Detroit made a clean sweep of a series with the Browns by taking the fourth contest, 3 to 3.

WHICH IS NEARER?

NEW YORK—Which is nearer Manhattan, San Francisco or Brooklyn? Well, the New York World reproduces postmarked envelopes to show that a letter arrived in two days from San Francisco via air mail, then after quite a wait for favorable winds across the East River it was delivered in Brooklyn 18 days later.

Some of our party lines, especially the rural ones, are as demeratic as you'd wish.

Walter Kinney blew up in the eleventh inning and Sacramento broke a 2-2 tie with Portland by counting five times. The final score was 7-3, the Beavers adding a run in their half of the eleventh. Batteries—Keating and Koehler; Kinney and Yell.

Whaling two Los Angeles pitchers for 24 hits, San Francisco piled up 21 runs to bury the Angels under a 21-6 count. Batteries—Deters, Smith and Sandberg, Walby, Mandy, Matis and Rego.

Five Seattle double plays choked off several Oakland runs, but the Indians could not score off by Cooper's superb twirling, dropping a 6-0 decision to the league leaders. Batteries—Cooper and Baker; Edwards, Nance and Jenkins. Carl Holting making his first start in the league since joining the Missions, outpitched Hank Harvey to give the Bells a 2-2 victory over the Stars. Batteries—Holting and Whitney; Harvey and D. Murphy.

ZBYNSKO STAMPS SCANDAL

CHICAGO (AP)—Stanislaus Zbynsko, head-headed dean of wrestlers, is the unwitting cause of charges before an investigating committee of the legislature which threaten wrestling in Chicago and Illinois.

Less than three years ago Zbynsko was good enough to take the heavyweight title of the world heavyweight "Mama" at Philadelphia, but when he was matched on a Chicago program last winter the Illinois athletic commission barred him because he was "too old." The commission's age limit is 15, and Zbynsko admits 50 years.

The promoters complained. An inquiry resulted, and so many tales even if the legislature does not make wrestling illegal, promoters despair of bringing the sport back to popularity.

YALE HALL NEEDS TENANT

NEW HAVEN, Conn.—An appeal has been made to Yale students for aid in obtaining a tenant for Yale hall, or Yale hall, in Yale valley, near Wreckham, Wales. Yale hall belonged to the family of John Yale, founder of Yale university. The present tenant, a disabled war veteran, suggests that Yale men might use the estate as a vacation camp.

CIRCUS BARS SHOOTING

BALTIMORE—Cannamading, pistol shots and explosions are barred at the business of the principal in show business from now on.

Tradition accords elms in particular the right to try to frighten people as part of their fun-making, but fond mothers protested against the excessive liberty granted them. Performances for children hereafter will have to be done by some other method than by shock and noise.

Eliminates U. S. Player In Tennis Singles Today

WIMBLEDON, June 30 (AP)—Henri Cochet of France, in a great uphill battle eliminated William T. Tilden of the United States, today from the singles of the Wimbledon lawn tennis championships. Cochet took the match in the semi-finals at 2-6, 4-5, 7-5, 6-4, 6-2.

Tilden started like the Tilden of old, and for the greater part of the first three sets dominated the courts.

It was when within a game of winning the third set to clinch the match, that Tilden faltered and Cochet was quick to take advantage of the opportunity running off six straight games to capture the set, 7-5.

With Tilden showing great signs of fatigue, the French player came back strongly in the fourth and fifth sets and with them took the match.

All-French Final Certain
Cochet's victory made certain an all-French final, Rene Lacoste and Jean Borotra being other semi-finalists.

Miss Helen Wills, former American champion, reached the final of the women's singles by a straight set victory over Joan Perry, of England, by 6-2, 7-5.

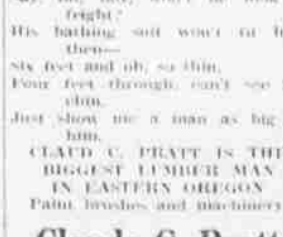

In the match for the title she will play Surochita De Alvarez, of Spain, who defeated Miss Elizabeth Ryan, of the United States in the women's semi-final today, at 2-6, 6-0, 6-4. Helen played, as though desirous of avenging the two American defeats on the same courts. She showed the English girl no mercy, attacking relentlessly.

Helen Wills and Elizabeth Ryan reached the quarter finals of the women's doubles by defeating Miss Misses P. Dunsfield and H. Hogarth of England, 6-2, 6-4.

Rene Lacoste, holder of the American national lawn tennis championship and favorite of many for the Wimbledon title, was eliminated in the semi-finals by his fellow countryman, Jean Borotra. The score was: 6-4, 6-2, 1-6, 1-6 and 6-2.

NEW YORKERS WIN FOUR MILE RACE

After 13 Years of Hopes Win Intercollegiate Championship

BOSTON, June 30 (AP)—N. Y. Juno 30 (AP)—Columbia was out of the intercollegiate rowing wilderness today on the sweep of the Glen-don stroke.

After thirteen long years of failure, seasons in which hopes had been lifted high only to fall shattered when the big test came, the New Yorkers found the magic touch yesterday and won the intercollegiate varsity four mile championship.

The 13 year old aggregation rowed the heart out of the creek, California eight and the naval academy, twin favorites before the race, then flashed a startling exhibition of finishing grit and speed to beat off the final challenge of the championship crew.

The Washingtonians went down like the champions they were fighting, but they were mastered by a crew that harnessed speed, form and endurance with an unquenchable spirit and strategy ordinarily reserved for oarsmen for beyond their leader years.

The sailors were a poor fourth, six lengths behind the victors, barely able to beat out Cornell, and Syracuse, which were only a second apart in a battle for fifth place won by the Ithacans.

He'll not really be famous until they find out his name's not Lindbergh after all.

Father is a Risk

LONDON—Practically every plan can be covered at Lloyd's. One "risk" insurance was recently taken out by two young society women against their father who has been divorced. They seek protection against his marrying again during the lifetime of their mother. A second marriage, with the possibility of children, would affect the daughters' financial prospects.

Rebuilds Cubs Staff in Heat of Pennant Race

CHICAGO (AP)—A baseball team sitting in second place and going strong, would satisfy most managers, but not Joe McCarthy, pilot of the Chicago Cubs. In the heat of the National League pennant race he has revamped his pitching staff and rebuilt infield, and now he thinks he has a pennant winner.

He broke up the double-play combination which set a league record last year by sending Cooney, shortstop, to Philadelphia and moving Williams from second to short. He traded Third Baseman Freigan and Fox, a young hurler, to Kansas City for a new third sacker, Eddie Plink. He sent Dock, utility infielder, to second. For Cooney and Kaufman, another pitcher, McCarthy got Hal Carlson, star right-hander, from the Phillies, and he bought Weyland, Dean, pitcher, from the same club outright.

The whole reorganization was accomplished in less than ten days, and the Cubs didn't lose a game while the reorganization was in progress.
