TO A ROYHOOD FLAME

Sweetheart of long ago,
Kiss I approach you now,
Tell me if your heart may know
our vow

Tell me if through the years
You have remembered still
Tenderly saying soft, my heart
"I will"

Answer me with your eyes!
Is there the old regard?
Lives on the faith that ever dies
So hard?

Is yet your loving bent
As in the moon of life?
For if it is I can't prevent
My wife.

Mrs. Brookline: "I understand the Eskimos are very keen domino players, and sometimes bet heavily, even putting up their wives and losing them."

Mr. Brookline: "Well, I'll bet there are a lot of good losers among the Eskimos."

Happiness is, after all, merely a matter of mathematics. Something to do plus someone to love plus something to look forward to equals happiness.

Eat, drink and be merry for tomorrow the hospital and undertaker will get it all.

IT IS SO BRIEF
Joy for an hour,
A rose-dawn,
A bird and a flower—
And summer's gone

"Have you any jumpers?" asked the man, as he wandered to the counter where overalls were displayed.

"All of us are in that class," explained the clerk, confidentially. "The boss keeps us jumping."

Men have found dying for freedom much simpler than getting it.

Customer—I want a bathing suit.
Clerk—Yes, mister, something suitable for swimming, or do you intend to use it for contest purposes?

The absent minded professor is with us again. We find that he kissed his shoes good-night and put two daughters under the bed.

Columnists may fall and work. "Till their final line are sore, but there remains some fish to say. "I've heard that joke before."

LUXEMBURG—A joint aerodrome for German and French aviation companies has been agreed upon between the cities of Treves and Luxembourg. The site of the new aerodrome is about half way between the two cities.

OPIMUM SMUGGLERS USE EGGS
SECRETARIA, Java—Dutch authorities in the island of Java have discovered a new trick for smuggling opium. They were struck by the extraordinary number of "egg" eggs" passing through the customs. Opening one of the eggs they found the inside had been blown out and the shell filled with liquid opium. About $1250 worth of opium was confiscated.

AT THE THEATERS

Western Picture Opens At Star Theater Today

Paramount's latest western "Drums of the Desert" reaches the Star Theater today for a three day run with what is perhaps the most imposing cast of players ever seen in a similar production. Warner Baxter portrays John Curry, mystery man, friend of Chief Brave Bear. Marietta Miller, UFA actress, charts her first American role as Mary Manton, touring the Navajo reservation with her father, in search of Indian ruins. Ford Sterling has the comedy lead as "Cainless" Perkins, a desert non-descript. In addition to these featured players, Wallace Macdonald, George Irving, Helene Conklin, Guy Oliver and Bernard Siegel have important parts.

Adapted from Zane Grey's "Desert Bound" this new film concerns itself with the efforts of a group of thieves who try to force an Indian tribe off the desert reservation on which they have lived since the beginning of time. In his efforts to defend the warriors, Curry almost loses the respect of the girl he has learned to love. And before matters are finally cleared up the ancient "drums of the desert" are heard, vailing the bravos to counsel and weepant. What happens when Curry tries to dissuade them from bloodshed and falling attempts of their ways, can not be simply described. It must be seen to be appreciated.

John Waters, known for his masterful handling of Zane Grey's "Morn to the West" and "The Mysterious Rider" directed "Drums of the Desert". John Stone prepared the screen play.

Some of the famous Mack Sennett bathing girls are on display in "A Dohen Soak" the new Sennett comedy that forms the first feature of the program. The action of the story carries Alice Day, Danny O'Keefe and Barney Hellman to the beach. This results in some scenes of the feminine beauties which have made Sennett famous the world over.

PLAN RADIO BOOTHS

ANN ARBOR, Mich. (AP)—Radio men who have grown used to standing on sheet-covered roofs or edging into corners of the press boxes to broadcast football games will find a better fate in store for them at the new University of Michigan stadium.

Fielding H. Yost, athletic director, has planned three double booths for radio broadcasting—enough, he believes, to take care of the demand. The announcers are to be accorded facilities as ample as those now provided for newspapermen.
