53 Nations Are Reached By Use Of Radio Set

LAWRENCE, Kas. (AP)—Thousands of transmitting stations in 53 countries on six continents and many of the larger islands of the world have communicated by spark or wireless telephone with 9DNG, home-assembled set of Fergus McKeever, 17-year-old high school senior here, since he obtained his license in 1923. McKeever uses a 50-watt transmitting tube on a 40-meter wave length.

A list of all places worked by the amateur would sound like an index to a world atlas. He is believed to be the first American to penetrate the ether to Siberia and the first inland station to exchange messages with Africa.

Most of McKeever's work with foreign countries has been done with an international code of three-letter words, but he recently carried on a wireless telephone conversation with an American in Tokyo, Japan.

Relaying messages and news to polar expedition ships, such as McMillan's; to United States destroyers and cruisers when they journey to the opposite side of the world as they did in 1925; or between relatives and friends who are separated by about 12,000 miles, takes up most of McKeever's time when he is not studying or at his part-time position in the radio department of a music store. Out of the hundreds of such incidents he remembers messages sent through him by Edwin Cozens, missionary in Cameroons, Africa, to relatives in California, and a bank in Indiana.

McKeever has worked Australia and Africa from both directions.

McKeever is one of the best known amateurs in the country. Despite his age he is communication manager for all amateurs in the Kansas division of the American Radio Relay league.

Carrys Papers To Pay For Course

CHAMPAIGN, Ill. (AP)—A 31-year-old "newsboy" with a wife and two children has won a doctor's degree in the college of law at the University of Illinois.

He is Dudley Woodbridge, and he has delivered The Champaign News-Gazette since 1917.

Sometimes Woodbridge studied as he walked his route, on which he averaged 20 miles a day. The $1,500 to $1,800 he earned each year as "paper boy" defrayed most of the expenses of his education.

He has accepted an assistant professorship of jurisprudence at William and Mary college, Williamsburg, Va.

AT THE THEATERS

America's Most Popular Sport Film Background

The two most popular things in America—baseball and the moving picture—are combined in "Slide, Kelly, Slide," Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer's latest contribution to screen entertainment, now playing at the Arcade theater.

One can not only see a thrilling screen drama—but also the recent world series, as the cameras invaded the grandstands at New York and St. Louis, and crucial plays of the nation's baseball classic form dramatic highlights for the new romance of baseball, with William Haines, star of "Brown of Harvard," Sally O'Neil, Harry Carey, Karl Dane and other famous players.

Besides the famous screen players, the cast includes some of the greatest figures in professional baseball. The "team" in the picture includes Bob Meusel, "Irish" Meusel, Tony Lazzeri of the Yankees, all world series heroes, Mike Donlin, for years idol of the New York Giants and now a picture player, and others recruited from the leagues of different parts of America.

The spectacular world series contest is made the center of a gripping romance of a "bush league" player, who wins fame in the New York team, a role enacted by Haines.

Others in the cast include Warner Richmond, of "The Brigade" fame, Eileen Sedgwick, the German girl of "Tin Hats," Junior Coghlan, Paul Kelly, Guinn Williams, Dorothy Sebastian and others of special note.

Alma Rubens Saintly Spy In Fox Film

The woman with the face of a saint and the soul of a siren, who wrecks the lives of men in her profession as spy for the notorious Sir Humphrey, Master of High Finance of the shady kind, is the role that Alma Rubens is called upon to play in "The Heart of Salome" Fox Films latest feature, which is one of the feature attractions at the Star theater today and Wednesday.

Difficult as this role is Miss Rubens succeeds in making it a living, understandable portrayal that is of absorbing interest. But the beautiful star of this production is not alone in making this an entertainment long to be remembered. The direction of Victor Schertzinger, the sinister interpretation of his part by Holmes Herbert as Sir Humphrey, the fine acting of Walter Pidgeon in the male lead of Monte Carroll, the young American, and of Barry Norton as the young artist all help to make up a nearly perfect Photo-drama.

"Red Hot Leather," the Universal-Blue Streak Western also a part of the double feature bill that is being presented at the Star theater today and Wednesday.

In this stirring drama of the Black Hills country an entire city acted before the camera, the city of Deadwood, South Dakota, which is the locale of the story and to which the Universal company traveled so that the location would be authentic.

All businesses were closed for the two days requiring the large crowd. A holiday was declared and the inhabitants, from the city officials down to the humblest denizen, traveled by buckboard automobile, carriage and every manner of vehicle to the ground, several miles out of town, where the cameras were set up.

SUMMONS

In the Circuit Court of the State of Oregon for Union County.
Mary J. McCall, Plaintiff vs.
Samuel P. Holman, and —— Holman, his wife, if living, if not, then their unknown heirs; Ralph A. Pidcock and —— Pidcock, his wife; also, other persons or parties unknown, claiming any right, title, estate, lien or interest in the real estate described in the complaint herein.
Defendants.

To the said Samuel P. Holman and —— Holman, his wife, if living, if not then to their unknown heirs; Ralph A. Pidcock and —— Pidcock, his wife; also, all other persons or parties unknown claiming any right, estate, title, lien or interest in the real estate described by the complaint herein:

IN THE NAME OF THE STATE OF OREGON.

You are required to appear and answer the complaint filed herein against you by the plaintiff in this court and suit on or before four weeks from the 14th day of June, 1927, the date of the first publication of this summons; and if you fail to so appear and answer or otherwise plead to said complaint, the plaintiff will apply to the said court for the relief prayed for in said complaint.

The relief prayed for is:

That every one of you set out the nature of whatever claim of right, title, estate, lien or interest you have in the following described real premises:

A tract of land, the boundary line of which begins at a point 51 rods west of the northeast corner of the southeast quarter of Section 28, Twp. 2 S. R. 38 E. W. M., Union County, Oregon, and runs thence west 108 rods, thence south 26 rods, thence 108 rods east and thence north to beginning 26 rods—all in Union County, Oregon.

That such claim be decreed to be null and of no effect, and that title be quieted in this plaintiff in said premises against every one of you; and that you and every one of you and all persons claiming under or through you be forever barred from all right, title, estate, lien or interest in any part of said premises; and that plaintiff have her costs and disbursements herein.

This summons is published in the La Grande Observer for four weeks by order of Hon. J. W. Knowles duly made on the 11th day of June, 1927, the first publication being June 14, 1927.

J. S. Hodgin
Attorney for Plaintiff
Residing at La Grande, Oregon
June 14-21-28—July 5-12.

BRUCE CEDA'LINE for the Man's Clothes Closet

—because

It is a practical moth deterrent
It affords convenient all-year storage for furs and woolens
It saves outside storage insurance
It allows ready accessibility
It makes a handsome compartment
It has a pungent and pleasing fragrance
It is the last word in wardrobe appointment
It may be used at nominal cost

Bruce Ceda'line brings these really indispensible advantages to every closet in which it is installed. Quickly and easily laced in old homes, while in new ones it is used as a matter of course, costing, as it does, about the same as the lath and plaster it replaces. Let us tell you how reasonably the closets of your home may be lined with this material.
