The Pittsburgh Pirates were half a game further behind the Chicago Cubs today in the three-gamed series for leadership of the National League. While the McGraw Braves were dividing a double header at Boston the Pirates suffered a 11-inning reverse at the hands of Brooklyn, 2-1. The world champion Cardinals traveled 17 torrid innings to beat Philadelphia, 5-7, and gained on the leaders.

Boston pounded three Cub pitchers for 15 hits in the first game to win 6-2, but Root choked up his sixteenth win of the year in the second, 4-1.

Giants Sluggish
The Giants appeared sluggish in the hottest weather of the year and Cincinnati gave them a 11-3 beating. McGraw's club committing six errors and failing to execute numerous plays by slow thinking.

Washington's ambitious campaign for a hold-on-second place in the American league race suffered a rude jolt when the Detroit Tigers set back the Senators twice, 7-3 and 18-9.

Babe Ruth failed to hit any home runs at Cleveland but the Bambino's four hits in as many attempts were instrumental in the Yankee's 5-3 victory over the Indians. Gehrig went hitless.

Kisler on Rampage
George Kisler went on another rampage at St. Louis and his four hits, including a double and a triple, assisted in the Browns' 14-3 win over the Boston Red Sox.

The Philadelphia Athletics bunched hits off Ted Lyons and defeated Chicago, 7-5.

WIMBLEDON'S "DARK HORSE"
WIMBLEDON Eng. (AP)—They are calling T. Harada, Japan's premier tennis player, "Wimbledon's dark horse."

Harada, who played nearly all his tennis in the United States, where he made high school a deep impression here by his style. He never betrays the slightest emotion. His expression is apathetic. From first to last he never smiles or speaks on the courts.

"What is your impression of the match?" he was asked after one of his victories at the Queen's Club. "Thank you," replied the Japanese, and—walked away.

PARIS IS RACING CENTER
PARIS (AP)—In spite of more and more motors, Paris is a greater center of horse racing than ever before. No other city in the world can compare with it in this respect. Each year, on the courses in or near Paris, there are 210 race-meetings.

There are two race-tracks within the city walls, Autouil and Longchamp, both in the Bois de Boulogne. Within half an hour's ride of the Opera are five others, St. Cloud, Le Tremblay, both flat courses, the flat and hurdle courses at Maisons-Lafitte and the trotting track at Vincennes and Enghein.

Although only 12 to 16, by Portland, the Missions made their hits count, while the Beavers could do little with Barfoot in the pitcher. The result was an easy 5-2 triumph for the Beas, evening up the series. Batteries: Barfoot and Whitney; Kinney, Couch and Fisher.

In one of the best ball games ever staged on the San Francisco bay, the climbing Seals edged out a 4-2 victory over Oakland in 12 torrid innings. Batteries: Haas and Boyd; May and McCrea.

Snapping out of their lethargy with a vengeance, the Angels hammered out a 5-2 win over Sacramento. Batteries: Kallio and Koehler; Perry and Hannah.

Portis Patterson won his own game by smothering a home run in the first of the ninth to break a 2-2 tie and give Hollywood a 2-2 decision over Seattle.

JACK DEMPSEY IS MORE LIKE TIGER OF OLD

BARABOZA LAKE, N. Y., July 14 (AP)—Flashes of old-time tigerish ferocity reminiscent of the days of Toledo and Boyles thirty years ago indicates that Jack Dempsey is well advanced on the road that may lead to the most sensational comeback in ring history.

With a lone week remaining before Dempsey meets Jack Sharkey in the "Fighting Stadium" here, the increasing inclination to drop boxing lessons for the sheer joy of crushing a sparring partner appears daily in the former champion's work outs. The black scowl so characteristic of the heavyweights deepens daily as Jack feels the growing tenaciousness of perfect fighting trim.

The drawn face of the Dempsey of 1926, when legal difficulties beset him, has given way to the old fighting visage and the rest of Jack's physical makeup seems to have followed suit.

Municipal Court Defense Is Filed

PORTLAND, Ore., July 14 (AP)—Defense of the municipal court both as to its powers and the selection of its judges was made in a brief filed in the state supreme court yesterday by Frank S. Grant, city attorney and Robert A. Tomlin, deputy, in an appeal from the decision of the circuit judge on the court by Fred L. Bault, editor of the Portland News.

The brief declared there is ample charter authority for the appointment of extra judges and that the municipal court is not a part of the court system of the state. Cities which will be affected by the decision were said to include, besides Portland—Astoria, Bend, Hillsboro, Medford, Oregon City, St. Helens, Tillamook, Albany, Corvallis, Eugene, Hood River, Klamath Falls, Talent, Salem and Seaside.

Dempsey May Stage Comeback Though All Others Have Met With Failure

NEW YORK (AP)—They don't come back—Those heavyweight fighters, once toppled from the throne.

But Jack Dempsey, trying to climb again to pugilism's crest, has two factors in his favor which Fitzsimmons, Corbett and Jeffries lacked when, once knocked out, they tried to regain the heights.

For Dempsey is the youngest defeated heavyweight champion who ever tried to come back, and he is the only one who ever lost his title without being knocked out.

In his efforts to upset precedent Dempsey sets out at 32—a yet a younger age than that of other vanquished titlholders trying to regain lost laurels. And Dempsey has yet to feel, as a mature boxer, the sting of the knuck-out punch which came to haunt other former champions plodding the come-back trail.

John L. Sullivan, first of the great heavyweights, did not try to come back when James J. Corbett beat him at New Orleans in 1892. Corbett reigned until 1893, when Fitzsimmons knocked him out at Carson City, Nev. Jeffries climbed to the throne in 1895, knocking out Fitzsimmons in 11 rounds at Coney Island.

Corbett tried to come back in 1903, and was beaten twice by Jeffries—at Coney Island and at San Francisco, the second time by an almost pitiful margin. Fitzsimmons tried to regain the title and Jeffries doomed his aspirations in eight rounds at San Francisco.

Jeffries retired in 1905, and five years later entered the ring again, only to lose to Jack Johnson at Reno, Nev. Johnson lost his title.

Mysterious Trout Malady Kills Fish

KLAMATH FALLS, Ore., July 14 (AP)—A deadly affecting trout in the Klamath river below Klamath Falls in a way somewhat similar to the mysterious duck disease which has gone protective interests puzzled, has reappeared this year. The malady was first noticed in July, 1926.

Samples of water from the stream in the vicinity of which hundreds of apparently healthy trout have died have been sent to the state game commission at Portland. An analysis of the water will be made.

A RECORD COMEBACK
CHICAGO (AP)—Russell "Lena" Blackburn, first of the high-priced stars of baseball, has come back after 15 years to worry major league pitchers. "Lena" was the original "$50,000 beauty" when he came to the major leagues from Providence at that price in 1909. He played with the White Sox three years and then for a long baseball generation played on and managed minor league clubs. Now a man of independent means, Blackburn came back to the White Sox this year as assistant

GOLFERS TO VIE WITH BAKER MEN

Inter-club Tournament Will Be Played on Local Course Sunday

Following an interclub golf tournament here with Baker this Sunday, July 17, the Pendleton golf club will come to La Grande Sunday, July 31, for a similar tournament, announcement was made today by members of the local club.

Baker will bring about 25 men here for the Sunday meet, and will be matched by the same number of local players.

All of the permanent greens at the new golf links, with the exception of No. 2, will be open for play tomorrow and will be used in Sunday's tournament.

Paulino Knocks Out Harry Willis In Fourth Frame

NEW YORK, July 14 (AP)—Although he accomplished what only one man before him had done over a stretch of 17 years, Paulino Uzcudun, the Spanish wood-chopper, still is as far away from the heavyweight throne as he was before he knocked out Harry Willis in the fourth round of a 15-round fight last night at Ebbets Field.

After three rounds of lethargic sparring, Paulino brought a right hand blow on a direct line from his knees to the giant negro's chin, and Willis rolled to the canvas. He was up at the count of nine, only to run into a volley of lefts and rights that put him under the low-rope, where he lay supported on his elbows while referee Lou Magallon counted him out.

The Spaniard's victory availed him nothing, in so far as a title chance this year is concerned. He was dropped from Tex Rickard's heavyweight elimination tournament after Jack Dempsey had refused to engage in more than one preliminary bout leading to a fight with Gene Tunney. Rickard's original intention was to match Uzcudun with Dempsey and have the winner meet the survivor of the Jack Sharkey-Jimmy Maloney test. Shunted out of this tournament, the bounding Basque cast aside a contract with Rickard to pick up the Willis opportunity.
