REFEREE TWENTY YEARS
SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—The fight long bit Toby Irwin early. As a result, although he is only middle-aged, Irwin is one of the oldest referees in point of service. He has lost count of the contests he has decided in the last 20 odd years, but he is positive of one thing—that the old time fighters were superior to ringsters of today. They were cleverer, he says, and had more stamina. Twenty-five years ago Irwin himself was well up as a fighter, meeting such men as Aurelio Herrera and Jimmy Britt.

The inspiration to propose to his wife came to Ulysses G. Grant when feeding the swollen Gravois river. The manner of her clinging to him in fear gave him the inspiration and he proposed then and there.

An educated man earns four times as much as an uneducated man, and knows 10 times as many ways to spend it.

So rapidly do the seasons seem to change in this country that a girl's looms have no sooner recovered from frostbite than they begin to be bothered with sunburn.

Mother: "Now Willie, if you put this wedding cake under your pillow, what you dream will come true."
Willie: "Why can't I eat the cake and put the pillow over my stomach?"

A pretty girl is just the reverse of a successful bank. In her case, the higher the principle, the less the interest.

More men might make money if it didn't take all their time to make a living.

Teacher: "Now Willie, where did you get that chewing gum?"
Willie: "I don't want to tell the truth, teacher, and I don't want to lie."
Teacher: "Don't you dare be impudent to me. Tell me at once where you got that chewing gum."
Willie: "Under your desk."

Wife: "When you came in at 11 o'clock this morning, you didn't know who I was, did you?"
Husband: "No, who were you?"
Worry will make people thin, except when they worry about being fat.

My wife can make tomato soup without tomatoes, says White Wolf. All she needs is some boiling water and a can opener.

Farmer: He leads his cow up the mountain side. There's not much to eat here, but there's a dandy view.

A woman may die at home, but she never dies at a hotel where they charge 60 cents for a dish of ice cream.

"How do you do my dear?" said the dignified old woman to the shy little girl.
"Quite well, thank you," replied the child politely.
"Then," said the woman with a frown, "why don't you ask me how I am?"
"Because I don't want to know," was the reply.

Cooling love and cold suppers are responsible for a lot of divorces.

LOTS OF PROXES
NEW YORK—We are glibly let. Of 27,782,964 telephones in the world, the United States has 16,925,210.

Every member of the family of Herbert Asquith is a writer. Asquith, known as Lord Oxford, is writing a volume of memoirs; Lady Oxford has completed a novel and a volume of essays; Princess Blisoco, their daughter, is writing plays and a novel; and Cyril Asquith, the son, has written a book on trade union law.

A French watchmaker has invented a watch that tells time without hands by means of a moving dial which turns inside a stationary rim. The minutes appear on the rim and an opening in the dial shows a complete turn every minute.

AT THE THEATERS

New York Beauty Parlors Shown in Film

"Slaves of Beauty," one of the most colorful pictures J. G. Poystone has directed for Fox Films, will begin a two days run at the Star Theater Sunday.

The story, adapted by William Conselman, was written by Nina Wilcox Putnam, and centers about the inside story of a woman's heart. The chief dramatic roles fall to Holmes Herbert and Olive Tell. Much of the action occurs in the beauty parlors of New York.

There is comedy, of course, since Miss Putnam is noted for her wit, but there is also pathos and a full complement of swift and revealing action.

In addition to Mr. Holmes and Miss Tell, the cast includes Earle Foxe, one of the best known funsters and character men in the motion picture industry.

Others in the cast are Richard Walling, Sue Carol, Mickey Bonito and Mary Foy.

A comedy cast with players of proven ability are to be seen in "Duck Soup," the new Hal Roach film of fun which will be the laugh feature of the program. The stars are Stan Laurel, who in the past has given some excellent performances in the lighter sort of screen entertainment. The others include Oliver Hardy, beautiful Madeline Hurlock, William Austin and James Marcus. The latter two are better known for their work in dramatic features, but it has been Hal Roach's policy to reveal capable actors from the feature ranks for the embellishment of his two-reel comedies.

What has become of the man who used to wear a bulbous head in his hat to keep cool?

Variety Promised In Sunday Vaudeville Bill

A well selected combination of vaudeville attractions, a musical singing and dancing revue, comedy songs and stories and gymnastic feats will be seen at the Arcade theater on Sunday.

Helen Weegham's Amphibian Revue are making their first tour to the coast under the banner of the Best Vaudeville circuit of vaudeville presenting a snappy singing instrumental and dance girl band. Elizabeth Arens solo dancer and dancing girl with the band has been featured over the Orpheum.

Evva Johnson possesses a good singing voice and will be heard in some special numbers. Helen Weegham solo trumpetist is a feature in herself. Macey and Madeline appear in "French Dressing," and while it doesn't mean anything in particular, it serves the purpose.

Bobak, a unique entertainer, is in a gymnastic and balancing offering.

Children come home to road when there's not enough gasoline in the tank to run 'em all night.

WE PAY

4% compound interest. Seems small but it is much better than some of the investments we know of as having been sold here in town within the past few years.

The privileges which go with our Savings are hard to equal.

FOUR WHEELS, NO BRAKES

Can't you man driving past a stop sign—Hey, there, can't you read? Motorist—Sure I can read, but I can't stop—Black & Blue Jay.

SOUND ADVICE

Dear Editor—What should I take when I am run down?—Anxious.
Dear Anxious—Take the license number.

A motoring writer says that the motorists in this country run into motorists. We know that. We wish they didn't—Passing Show (London).
