THAT DEMPSEY-SHARKEY SEVENTH ROUND AS ARTIST GEORGE CLARK SAW IT

"It looked foul." That's what Artist George C. Clark of NEA Service says of the low blow struck by Jack Dempsey that stopped up Jack Sharkey in their heavyweight fight at the Yankee Stadium, New York City. Clark sat just outside the ropes. Above he sketches three of the outstanding seventh round's high lights—the boring in which Dempsey continued as the round opened, the widely discussed blow to the belt that so suddenly staggered Sharkey, and then immediately afterward the left to the jaw that dropped Dempsey's young foe to the canvas.

Three Go On Trial In Vancouver, Wash.

VANCOUVER, Wash., July 22 (AP)—Luther, Ellis and Lewis Baker were placed on trial here today on charges of murder in connection with the death of Sheriff Lester M. Wood May 22. Sheriff Wood was killed in a raid on a moonshine still 20 miles northeast of Vancouver.

Selection of a jury was expected to require two days.

TO SHOW SOVIET FILMS

MOSCOW—Films made in Russia are to be shown in the United States, the official soviet newspaper is informed.

A rector, having a parishioner of great fluency of speech and also somewhat addicted to profanity, considered it his duty to talk to the man about his fault. The man listened for a while respectfully, and then seriously replied: "I know it is a bad habit, but you see, my words flow so rapidly that I have to throw in a 'dam' now and then to prevent a flood."

HEADS FOR EUROPE

HOLLYWOOD, Cal.—Constance Talmadge is on the way to Europe "for a good time." "If I find time enough," she remarked, "I may get a divorce too."

A farmer in New Jersey comes forward with the news that he furnished the hams which Charles Lindbergh ate on his way to Paris.

What we're wondering is who furnished the ham for Levine?

WE PAY
4% compound interest. Seems small but it is much better than some of the investments we know of as having been sold here in town within the past few years.
