Kiddies' Party At Park Honors 4-Year-Old Miss

A number of children of the city enjoyed a delightful afternoon yesterday at Riverside park when Mrs. John Stoddard entertained at a picnic party for her little girl, Helen Jane, the occasion being her fourth birthday anniversary.

The party was from 2 o'clock until 6 and the children enjoyed games and wading.

At 5 o'clock a picnic luncheon was served. Mrs. Stoddard was assisted by her cousin, Miss Gertrude McGregor, who is visiting here from Salt Lake City, and by Misses Marva Lyman and Bernice Wilson.

The children present were Ann and Phil Stoddard, Patsy and John McManus, Mary Ellen and Jean Stoddard, of Baker, Barbara Stoddard, Marcella and Junior Reynolds, Barbara and Gertrude O'Brien, Stella Jean Ingie and Betty and Helen Stoddard.

About 13 girls of the Sacajawea citizenship girl group and their guardian, Mrs. Leif H. Aves, will leave Sunday for Cove, where they will spend a week camping on the Episcopal camp grounds.

The week's schedule includes a swim in the Cove Swimming pool every day, a hike to the top of Mt. Fanny on Wednesday and other interesting features. The girls will complete their pine needle baskets, which were started a short time ago, and will win honors by cooking out of doors.

On Saturday evening, just before the close of the camp on Sunday, a big council meeting will be held.

Mrs. I. L. Hungerford will accompany the group on their trip as swimming instructor and will teach all of the girls who do not already know how to swim.

Nine girls of the Hoangetahs campus girl group enjoyed a summer party Wednesday night at the home of Miss Lenore Ely. The girls came in masquerade and prizes were given for the funniest and most attractive costumes. Miss Mildred Spencer, who was dressed as a Spanish dancer, won the prize for the most attractive costume and Mildred Eveson received the prize for having the funniest costume. She represented an old maid.

Games and dancing was enjoyed by the girls during the evening. In the morning breakfast was served.

Miss Baker Hostess To Bible Students

Members of the high school girl graduates' class of the Presbyterian Sunday school met last evening at the church with Miss Corine Baker as hostess.

The community room, where the meeting was held, was attractively decorated with bouquets of summer flowers. Miss Ella Neiderer, vice president, presided over the business session, and plans were made for a class picnic to be held about the middle of August.

The remainder of the evening was spent in a discussion on "The Business of Friendship," led by Miss Hulda Anderson.

Refreshments were served by the hostess before adjournment.

The Ladies Aid society of the English Lutheran church met yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Charles Ward, with Mrs. Ward and Mrs. L. C. Keagle as hostesses.

Mrs. Leif H. Aves conducted the devotional, giving a review of Henry Van Dyke's book, "A Handful of Clay."

After the business session the remainder of the afternoon was enjoyed by a sociable, when the hostesses served refreshments.

The regular meeting of Neighbors of Woodcraft circle No. 17 was held last evening at the K. P. hall with 43 members in attendance. One candidate was initiated during the evening.

The business session was followed by a sociable, when the committee in charge served refreshments.

The Neighbors of Woodcraft picnic planned for Sunday at Emigrant Springs will take place at Riverside park instead. All members desiring to attend the picnic are asked to meet at the K. P. hall at 10 o'clock, where cars will be provided.

W. B. A. Given Report On Port Huron Meet

The regular meeting of the Women's Benefit association was held Tuesday evening at the K. P. hall, presided over by the commander, Mrs. Bernice Beamwell. During the meeting the charter was draped in memory of the late Mrs. Harold Herron.

A report was read covering the activities of the supreme convention held at Port Huron, Mich. Mrs. Adeline Packard attended the meeting from Eastern Oregon, her territory having had the largest increase in membership since the first of the year. Mrs. Julia W. Ward, state president, also attended the meeting.

Miss Bina M. West, who is well known to the W. B. A. members in La Grande, was again honored with unanimous election to the supreme presidency, this being her fifth consecutive year in this office.

During the convention official titles in the organization were changed to president and secretary in place of commander and record keeper, respectively, all other titles to correspond. Women may now take as high as $10,000 in life insurance, instead of the former $5,000 certificate, also reincorporation was made perpetual instead of 20 years as formerly.

Pictures of the W. B. A. float and drill team, which took part in the American Legion parade last Saturday, have been taken and will be sent to headquarters.

Announcements

The World Wide Guild of the First Baptist church will meet tomorrow afternoon at the home of Miss Mildred Fox, 1202 Second street. Reports from the home party, held at McMinnville, will be given.

MENUS

By Sister Mary
BREAKFAST—Fresh prunes, cereal, cream, crisp broiled bacon, creamed eggs, toast, milk, coffee.

LUNCHEON—Salmon and green pea salad, rice bread, sour cream pie, milk, tea.

DINNER—Broiled Spanish mackerel, baked new potatoes, beef greens garnished with hard cooked eggs, banana and orange salad, green Betty, milk, coffee.

Oven-broiled bacon is sure to prove popular. The bacon should be placed on a rack over a pan. The regulation boiler of the average gas range fits the oven, but if one does not have this, an ordinary flat broiler can be supported on a pan so that the bacon cooks in the oven, the pan receives the bacon "drippings" and the bacon is held quite above them.

When the cream sauce, sour cream pie will be a treat.

Sour Cream Pie
One cup sour cream, 1/2 cup sugar, 2 eggs, 1/4 teaspoon salt, 1 cup seeded raisins, 1/2 cup finely sliced apples, 2 tablespoons flour, 1 teaspoon cinnamon.

Beat yolks of eggs until light. Add cream. Mix and stir sugar, flour, salt and cinnamon. Add

At the present time our shinglers are doing reshingling jobs. They are different than most professional shinglers as they drive plenty of nails into the shingles in the proper place. And also they do not stretch the shingles out until they curl and twist off the roof. If you want to see some jobs that have been put on by the Pratt Lumber company going on three years and they still look like they were just finished on, you can come and see for yourself. Shingles will not curl if they are laid properly and nailed down well. Now would be a dandy time to do a reshingling job without getting the interior of your house wet. Let us know right away as the building program will be enormous after harvest. We have some dandy garden hoses—the kind you love potatoes with. You can clean them up for 95c each.

There are a lot of other things I want to tell you but probably won't tell you until some time next week.

Be Child's Pal, Urges Adviser Of U. S. Parent-Teacher Associations

NEW YORK (AP)—Education will not advance as it should until parents take a more active interest in it for the sake of their children, believes Mrs. Florence V. Watkins, executive secretary of the National Congress of Parent-Teacher associations.

"Parents haven't played enough with their children," says Mrs. Watkins, who is conducting a course on "the parent-teacher movement" in the summer session of Columbia university.

"They have been censors instead of playmates. They should come down from their pinnacles and become their children's pals. Parents, however, are more alive to the possibilities of training the child through the first six years of life. Teachers are more sympathetically inclined to problems confronting the home. Committees have become more concerned in making conditions right for the child."

Mrs. Watkins points out how by discussing child health and the use of leisure with parents in rural communities, cooperation between the parent and the teacher is being brought about. She tells of a town in Georgia where young women did not know how to play because they had worked since childhood. In cities, the problems of safety,

40 PER CENT OF ONION CROP GONE

Market Said to Be Holding Steady at $1.25 Price to Trade

WALLA, WALLA, Wash., July 25—With approximately 40 per cent of the Walla Walla valley's 1927 onion crop already moved out, according to shippers' estimates, the price during the past week held steady at a new level of $1 a bag to growers and $1.25 to the trade. Indications that this price might be maintained were reported good Saturday.

Onion harvest is on in full swing and between 20 and 40 cars daily are leaving here by the two railroad lines serving the valley. Markets are being found in the middle west and south and a fair demand is being met.

Onions Are Small But Good
The onions are averaging smaller than in most years, but are maintaining a high quality, it is said. The keeping properties of this year's onions is said to be better than those of last year.

A decline in the price of onions a week ago has been reflected in the old "rag" of complaints from buyers at receiving points, but with nearly all of the onions leaving here under federal certificate of inspection, no losses have had to be taken by shipper. In most cases the inspection asked at the receiving point has been denied and where given, has verified the inspection at shipping points.

Are Yields Lighter
Owing to the lower yield to the acre caused by the smaller size of onions, growers say that they can ill afford to take any more drops in the market. Last year hundreds of tons of onions were
