Presbyterians In Annual Picnic

Several women of the missionary society of the First Presbyterian church here attended the annual picnic of the Presbyterian Missionary society of Union yesterday, which was held at the home of Mrs. Cusick on Catherine creek, about three miles beyond Union.

A song service and short program made up the afternoon's entertainment. Mrs. A. T. Hill, president of the Grande Ronde presbytery, gave a report of the biennial, which she attended in Los Angeles, Cal., several weeks ago as a delegate from the Grande Ronde presbytery.

A picnic dinner was served by a committee from the Union society.

Members of the Rosenbaum family met at Riverside park Thursday evening for a family picnic honoring Harley A. Van Noy, Mrs. E. Rosenbaum's cousin, who is visiting here from Long Beach, Cal.

A picnic dinner was enjoyed and the remainder of the time was spent visiting.

Those present, besides Mr. Van Noy and Mrs. Rosenbaum, were Mrs. Earl Zundel and family, Mr. and Mrs. Jess Rosenbaum and family, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Bruce and family, Mr. and Mrs. Everett Rosenbaum and little daughter, and Mr. and Mrs. Ed Strick.

Birthday Party At Miller Home

Miss Miriam Miller, who is visiting here from Vale, Ore., with her father, Archie Miller, entertained a number of friends Wednesday evening, the occasion being her 17th birthday anniversary.

Games were enjoyed during the evening and refreshments were served. Small favors were given to each of the children present.

Those in attendance were Misses Marie Hill, Marjorie Spencer, Betty Barnes, Alice Prior, Marie Knecht, Louise Morris, Wilma See, Anette Stoenling and Miriam Miller, and Harold Lockwood, Robert Lockwood, Fred Reeman, Vernon Stoenling, Harold Hansen, Leo Hansen and Harry Johanson.

Announcements

The neighbors of Woodcraft picnic scheduled to take place at Emigrant Springs tomorrow will be held at Riverside park instead. All members are asked to meet at the K. P. hall at 10 o'clock where cars will be provided.

MENUS

By Sister Mary
BREAKFAST—Ripe peaches, cereal, cream, fried bread, syrup, milk, coffee.
LUNCHEON—Jellied fish, lettuce, potatoes, Parker House rolls, sliced apricots, plain cake, milk, tea.
DINNER—Fried spring chicken, baked sweet potatoes, green beans in cream, asparagus salad, peach parfait, milk, coffee.

The jellied fish suggested in the luncheon menu can be prepared the day before and kept on ice until wanted. This combination is rather unusual in that the jelly is made with beef juice.

Jellied Fish
 One and one-half cups cooked flaked halibut, 4 new beets, 1 1/2 tablespoons gelatine, 2 tablespoons cold water, 1 green pepper, 1 can diced celery, 1/2 teaspoon salt, 1/2 teaspoon pepper, 2 tablespoons lemon juice.

Scrub beets and cook in boiling water until tender. Reserve 2 cups water in which beets were cooked. Drop beets in cold water, slice off skins and cut in dice. Soften gelatine in cold water. Add hot beet water and stir until gelatine is dissolved. Let cool when beginning to set add fish, beets, celery, pepper cut in shreds, salt, pepper and lemon juice. Mix lightly with a fork and turn into a mold dipped in cold water. Place on ice to chill and become firm. Remove from mold and cut in slices to serve.

SKIRTS NOW CREASED LIKE MEN'S TROUSERS

LONDON (AP)—Trousers creases are the latest among the fair sex of London's smart set.

The creases are ironed into the skirts of gray-flannel suits, now popular with British society women, and run from waist to hem on each side. Despite the "trouser creases," however, dressmakers say there is nothing masculine about the suit.

A army felt hat, worn with the outfit, has a wide brim and is ornamented with a silver hatpin.

Miss Wichita

Miss Mildred Orr, young society girl, will represent Wichita in the national beauty pageant at Atlantic City 11 September. Miss Orr won the honors in a contest in which 27 girls were entered.

A LITTLE DOUBLE TEAM DRIVING with the aquaplane looks nice—but it's so easy to slip! These society folk of San Diego, Calif., don't seem to fear the consequences, though.

WHAT FLORIDA AND THE SOUTH OWE GORGAS

By George F. W. Hardy, M. D., Tampa, Fla.

Member Gorgas Memorial Institute

We Americans are quick to forget the great deeds of our ancestors. We stand the heirs of the moment, but he quickly passes from the scene. At this season of the year, when malaria is liable to stalk through the land, how many of us think of the great work of Gorgas in eradicating yellow fever and malaria from Cuba and the Canal Zone, and the relation this work bears to the present healthy condition of the South in general, and in particular to the old, yet new state of Florida.

Contrast the present condition of Florida with its condition in 1898, when Gorgas was beginning his work in Cuba. Jacksonville was the only city of any size in the state. The population was small, living conditions were bad, and malaria was prevalent.

People in the south considered Florida unhealthy and refused to go there. It was known that a few yellow fever cases were present. Today, Florida is healthy. There is no yellow fever; malaria is infrequent and summer and winter visitors come and go without hesitation.

Yellow fever has been eradicated in Florida, and malaria greatly reduced by the two methods employed by Gorgas in Cuba—killing the mosquito as far as possible and keeping the mosquito from biting the patient. There are many hundreds of species of mosquitoes but only two that interest the sanitarians—the Stegomyia which transmits yellow fever, and the Anopheles which transmits malaria.

The female mosquito lays her eggs on the surface of stagnant water. They hatch out larvae which lie under the water, but come to the surface for air. If the surface of the water is covered with oil, the larvae are killed. By prohibiting the collection of stagnant water, and spraying pools with oil, the mosquitoes are prevented from multiplying, and this aids in decreasing the malarial rate. Where the cost is not prohibitive, mosquito

FRENCH WOMAN EDITS LEGAL MAGAZINE

PARIS (AP)—Women's big mistakes are made because they do not know the law, says Madame Kraemer-Bach, one of Paris' leading women lawyers.

She is a specialist in maritime and civil law and the joint editor of "Promoteur Information," a monthly publication dedicated to the legal needs and problems of women.

Madame Kraemer-Bach also is a noted feminist. She has published a booklet, entitled "Legal Equalities between men and women."

KILLED BY TRUCK

EUROPEA, Cal., July 30 (AP)—Joseph E. Salsbery, 23, of Eureka, was killed yesterday when a truck ran over him, crushing his skull. Salsbery was working with a road crew near Blue Lake, 20 miles northwest of here, at the time of his death.

Maybe the president is trying to worm his way into the heart of the west!

EDITORS TO MEET AT ROSEBURG, ORE.

Reservations indicate the Largest Group Will Convene Aug. 5-6

ROSEBURG, Ore., July 29 (AP)—Reservations for the State Editorial association convention to be held in Roseburg August 5 and 6 indicate that the attendance will probably be larger than at any previous convention of the organization and preparations for the entertainment of the editors and members of their families are being based upon expectation of a big crowd of visitors.

For seven hours yesterday a meeting party of five men, headed by chief of Police McNabb, of Astoria, and County Jailer, The Journalist of Medford, tramped over the Siskiyou mountains near the scene of the Southern Pacific train holdup of Oct. 11, 1923, for the shotgun used by the three DuAutomont brothers, and which in their confession of the quadruple murders they said they left in a cache on a creek near a wind-fall tree, where they concealed themselves for a week after the crime.
