Bridge Party Is Held at Home of Mrs. R. Rettig

Miss Eleanor Glass was hostess of an attractive bridge party last evening at the home of Mrs. R. Rettig, 1404 M. avenue.

Pink and white was the color scheme used to decorate the room. Table runners and clever little favors were in these colors. Food tables were at play during the evening.

Miss Catherine Drury made high score at bridge and the consolation prize went to Miss Dorothy Elberhard.

Out-of-town guests present were Miss Grace Hagerty, of Union; Miss Margaret Kelly, of Portland; who is visiting here with her sister, Mrs. Earl McDonough; and Miss Lorraine Pierce, who is visiting here with her brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Pierce.

Other guests were Misses Gwenolyn Buchanan, Pauline Payton, Margaret Baker, Catherine Drury, Betty Schuman, Marjorie Reynolds, Trillian Ashby, Dorothy Ann Ward, Dorothy Elberhard, Lois Nelson, Vera Healy, Della Stoddard and Wilma Gaskill.

Following the card games the hostess served a dainty luncheon.

Miss Mildred Hallmark and Lawrence, both of this city, were married yesterday morning at about 10:30 o'clock by Bishop Grant Bean, of the Latter Day Saints church, at his home.

Both the bride and bridegroom are well known here. She graduated from the local high school last spring. He is a barber in the Foley barber shop here.

They plan to make La Grande their home.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Lamm, who were married here during the American Legion convention, have returned to their home after a honeymoon spent in Southern Oregon and Northern California.

Last night members of the La Grande fire department and their wives were hosts to Mr. and Mrs. Lamm at a dinner. They presented the newlyweds with a beautiful set of dishes.

Christian Church Society Installs

The Missionary society of the Christian church started a new year yesterday afternoon, when a meeting was held at the home of Mrs. L. M. Parker on N. avenue and officers for the next 12 months were installed. Mrs. C. J. Zimmerman, Mrs. William Day and Mrs. Rivette were joint hostesses with Mrs. Parker.

Mrs. R. J. Kitchen presided over the meeting and Mrs. C. V. Dunn had charge of the installation. Mrs. Kitchen was again installed as president. Mrs. A. L. Voelke is the new vice president; Mrs. A. E. Nelson, secretary; Mrs. Frank Hardesty, secretary of literature; and Mrs. Addie Rothbaster, Mrs. Harry Kauler, Mrs. A. L. Voelke and Mrs. Oma Lapham, division leaders.

The society plans to bring its membership to 25 during the year, get 20 new subscribers to the World Call, the magazine of the society, and raise a total of $150 for missionary work.

After the business session Mrs. Ida French led in the program. "Prayer" was the subject of the afternoon and Mrs. French read a poem on "Prayer." Mrs. R. J. Kitchen and Mrs. Oma Lapham sang a duet number, "Oh Master, Let Me Walk With Thee."

Mrs. Rothbaster told about the new home for old people recently dedicated at Los Angeles, Cal., and Mrs. French told about the "White Swan" mission in the state of Washington, the La Grande Christian missionary society being the first Oregon missionary society to contribute toward the mission.

Mrs. C. W. Dunning read a letter from a missionary in Africa and Mrs. C. E. McPherson sang a solo number, "Did You Think to Pray?" Mrs. C. V. Dunn gave an account of the Christian church state convention held at Turner, Ore., and told of the dedication of the missionary cottage there which was given to the missionary society of Oregon and has recently been remodeled and enlarged.

Mrs. Parker made a plea to the members of the society to help in furnishing lights and a cabin for "The Oregon," a missionary boat which has been operating on the Congo river in Africa and was recently stopped because of having no lights or cabin, making it unsafe.

The hostesses served refreshments following the close of the program.

JAPANESE DAUGHTERS ASK PROPERTY RIGHTS

TOKYO (AP)—The Women's Suffrage League of Japan, while not expecting that the ballot will be granted to women in the near future, is waging a campaign for their equal recognition under the laws of the empire.

Heretofore the eldest son has been the legal successor to estates and women do not succeed to property.

The government has under consideration a law which will permit all the sons of a man to succeed to estates in fixed ratio. The suffrage league has petitioned for an amendment of the law which will permit daughters to succeed to estates the same as sons.

PARIS SOCIETY WOMEN HAVE BIG SHOE BILLS

PARIS (AP)—The custom of handmade, specially designed shoes is costing Paris society dearly. The made-to-order shoes, in which half a dozen exclusive boot-makers specialize, average about $25 a pair, though some of them run much higher.

According to a shoe fashion news service published here, a certain French princess paid $3,000 a year for her shoes. She is supposed to have ordered 30 pairs of special designs for the Deauville season alone.

WOMAN ORIGINATES NEW SCHOOL STUDY

VIRGINIA, MIDD. (AP)—A high school course in photography, originated eight years ago as an experiment by Miss Gertrude Mann, has proven so successful that nearly 100 pupils annually take the work.

Virginia vocational high school is the only public school in the country where such a subject is taught, asserts Miss Mann. The aim of the department is to train children for business and to give a means for art expression to those so gifted.

Here in the iron range mining country, with its large foreign population, photography in the class room has a special appeal. The camera picture often travels to relatives over the sea, carrying stories that could not be told in a letter.

Miss Mann has won medals for her photographic work exhibited at Vienna, Budapest and Turin.

"They tell me this BUCKEYE is wonderful stuff!"

Unless they're out for blood, men usually discuss malt syrup at a card game. Some are boosters for hop flavored—others for plain—and so the argument begins. But they never disagree on the right brand to use, for nowadays, most everybody knows quality made Buckeye the outstanding leader. It's wonderful stuff!

Is there anything Better than these Creamed Potatoes?

Try This Recipe

2 cups milk
2 tablespoons Mazola
2 tablespoons Argo or Kingsford's Cornstarch
1/2 teaspoon salt

1/2 teaspoon pepper
3 cups diced, cooked potatoes (boiled or baked)
1 teaspoon onion juice (optional)

To make the sauce, put the Mazola in a saucepan, add the cornstarch and seasonings and gradually stir in the milk. When boiling, add the potatoes and onion juice. Cook slowly until the potatoes have absorbed part of the sauce.

PROBABLY no other food in the kitchen is so useful to the modern housewife as Mazola—taking the place of butter for cooking and shortening; as a better, more wholesome fat for frying; and as the perfect oil for fine salad dressing.

This recipe is from Ida Bailey Allen's New Book "The Modern Method of Preparing Delightful Foods"—see coupon below.
