Division of Tips in German Hotels—BERLIN (AP)—Head waiters in German tourist hotels again are to share a share of the tips as the waiters who actually serve, according to figures published by a number of leading hotels.

In Northern Germany, as in many other European countries, 10 per cent are added to the hotel guest's bill in lieu of gratuity. This 10 per cent tax is divided under strict supervision and apportioned according to the following scale: Head waiter, 17 per cent; second waiter, 10 per cent; porter, 10 per cent; elevator boy, 10 per cent; chambermaid, 10 per cent; telephone operator, 10 per cent; room attendant, 10 per cent; young man, 10 per cent; every small piece of staff similar to this, beginning his career, 10 per cent.

Flats Have Garages For Baby Carriages

LONDON (AP)—Baby carriage garages are part of the attractions of 25 new flats just erected by Kingsbury, a London suburb, at a cost of $425,000.

Several sheds have been built wherein occupants of the flats may park their "perambulators." The baby carriages are called in England.

RADICALS ARE MEMBERS OF THE "CLUB OF 1926"

BERLIN (AP)—Few who read of the weekly meetings of the "Club of 1926" in the isolated villa of Hugo Simon, a rich banker, know that the club is largely recruited from the ranks of radicals.

Hugo Simon is head of the banking firm of H. H. Simon & Co. After the revolution of 1918 he was deluged by the independent socialist or the Prussian cabinet as finance minister. The independents now constitute the left wing of the socialist party.

Another member of the governing board is Maximilian Harden, the publisher.

George Gross, one of the most talented German cartoonists, whose viewpoints being him in frequent conflict with censorship officials, is also on the governing board.

Another member of the board is Edwin Piscator, recently compelled to resign as recusator of the "Volksbühne" because of his conception of classical German plays.

The club is reported to have encouraged Piscator in his fight against accepted standards and to have supported his plans for a communistic theater.

Commandant Host To German Host

PT. LEAVENWORTH, Kas. (AP)—For the first time since the world was a German general of high rank is to be the guest of an American general when Lieut. Gen. Ritter Von Huth, touring the army posts of the United States, is entertained here on August 9 by Hilt. Gen. Edward L. King, commandant of Fort Leavenworth.

General Von Huth commanded the Seventh German army during the world war.

PARIS (AP)—Paris has a "Hollywood" of its own. Gradually the large negro population that has poured in upon the French capital since the war has gravitated towards Montmartre.

The "colored boys" and negroes who call Paris home have come to France from many places. Some are from America, others from Africa, and many from Mexico, and the French West Indies.

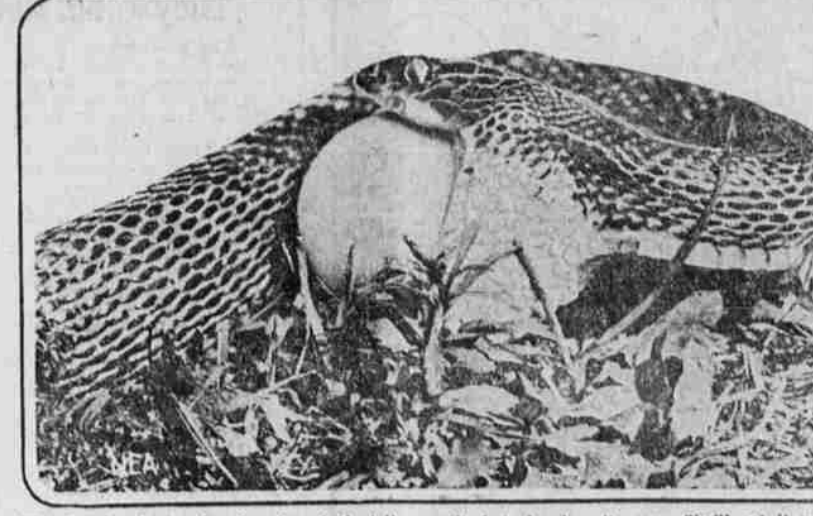

"Chadleston City" is the name Paris Catholics have given to the section of Montmartre where the negroes live. Many of the members of the colony are dancers, jazz band musicians, door openers and messengers in estate settlements that go in for red and gold uniforms.

BERLIN OPERA GOES VEXED AT BOHEMIA

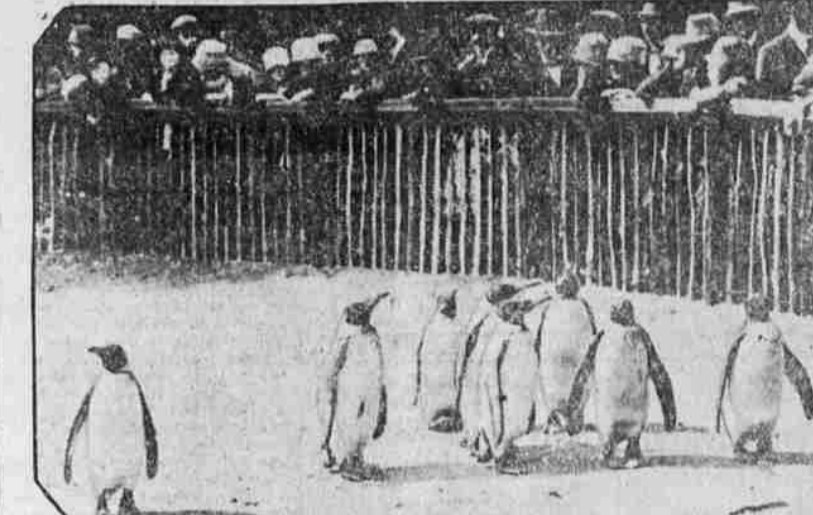

BERLIN (AP)—A public demonstration against the Bohemian very popular Metropolitan opera baritone, Michael Bohman, was evoked by that artist's refusal to sing the title role in the scheduled "Don Giovanni" performance.

At the substituted performance of "The Barber of Seville" it came to an outbreak of public resentment. The press took up the matter the next day, when it was learned that Bohman had not called off the performance on account of sickness but, as his business admirers and the critics expressed it, "merely to spite the management of the State Opera which would be 'bad' differences."

This Will Spoil My Shape, But Here Goes!

This is about twice the size of Muriel's mouth, but she doesn't care. She'll eat it whole, regardless of the effect it will have on her slender shape. When the egg gets about half way down it'll break anyhow, so why be fussy? Muriel is a pilot snake and harmless.

A DIGNIFIED BIRD IS THE PENGUIN. Ages ago, he forgot how to fly, but he's developed a strut any drum-major would envy. Here's a penguin parade around the pool in the London Zoological Gardens.

FRENCH ACADEMY FILLS TWO VACANCIES

PARIS (AP)—France has elected two "immortals" to fill the vacant chairs of the French academy. They are Abel Bergson, novelist and playwright, and Paul Maitland, historian and authority on medieval religious art. They fill the chairs left vacant by the death of M. René Toppet and M. Jean Richon.

The countess Anne de Noailles, one of France's most prominent women poets, although frequently mentioned as likely to become France's first woman member of the academy, was not discussed.

August Hecksher, 79, the philanthropist, says vigorous sleeping of the body adds to long life. Depending, too, on whom you sleep.

EVANGELICALS ADMITS IT

Evangelicalism has admitted that it is a religion of the future.

TOWNS HAVE NOVEL SIGNS FOR MOTORISTS

BERLIN (AP)—Novel devices and other auto signs clearly visible at night have been installed in a number of German cities. These signs have no light of their own but reflect the light of the approaching car. The device has the great advantage of cheapness. It has been extended to municipalities which dare up for a moment as the car's lights strike them in speeding by.

Scientists have been unable to discover definitely the sleeping place of the whale. Since these animals can hold their breath for hours at a time under water, it is believed that they do so while slowly walking seawardly and returning to the surface for a new breath.

WOMEN CAR CONDUCTORS GIVEN MORE UNIFORMS

PARIS (AP)—Paris street cars are one thing the foreigner has not yet spotted. The Parisians still have them largely to themselves.

When the Paris tramway company announced with a flourish that henceforward women conductors would be issued three instead of two black smocks as uniforms, it was mostly the Parisians who rejoiced.

The state of Ohio possesses in Greene county a natural history preserve of five hundred acres from which public worship must forever be barred. Such was the stipulation attached to the grant by the donor, John Tiryak. Otherwise, the preserve is open to all persons regardless of creed, race or color.

The most northern radio station in the world is that just planted by the Soviet government on Cape Dezhnev, which juts into the Arctic Zone just west of Archangel, Siberia. It will be used to communicate with aerial Arctic explorers.

Cathedral Observes 550th Anniversary

BERLIN (AP)—The church with the highest tower in the world has just observed its 550th anniversary. It is the celebrated minster at Ulm.

The tower of this ancient cathedral is 529 feet high. Its height thus surpasses even that of Cologne Cathedral, whose twin spires are 525 feet high.

In connection with the anniversary the city museum has arranged a minster exposition. On April 15 to 15th—which will remain open until October. It includes paintings and plastic and applied art, with particular reference to the history of the minster.

Before books became so generally used, persons fortunate enough to possess any recorded them closely, often chaining those containing business records to their lodges. Thus they came to be known as "ledgers."

The name of the race which built the pyramid of Cholula in Mexico, before the period of the Aztecs, is unknown today. The purpose of the pyramid is also unknown. Its base covers more than 1,500,000 square feet.
