Now Comes a Beauty With "It"

The custom of clarifying mere beauty recently started up a rebellion in the University of Utah at Salt Lake City. A personality contest was decided upon and pictures of 45 coeds were exhibited to business men. They chose 15 and these 15 were sent to Elinor Glyn. Of the number the writer chose six who had "It." Margaret O'Rourke (above) led the list.

Farm Pointers

From 400,000,000 to 500,000,000 chicks, it is estimated, are produced annually in commercial hatcheries for sale to poultrymen and farmers, and the business still is growing rapidly.

It is like old times again, business is picking up like lightning. I went out to talk our Jersey cow this morning while my wife was ironing my shirt and before I could get back to the house the lumber yard was filled up with cars and men and some of the men had brought their wives with them. One man wanted 30 inches of shingles, another one 12 gallons of paint and another wanted some ceiling and flooring and another one wanted to get some work to do. We are doing work-shedding jobs all over the country. Some shingles, one shingles are getting on new roofs, and some we are tearing the old shingles off and making new roofs out of old roofs.
