AT THE THEATERS

Powerful And Dramatic Film At Colonial

"Lost At Sea" is the feature attraction at the Colonial theater. There is a picture that will keep an audience intensely interested from the opening scene to the highly dramatic finish.

There are certain situations in "Lost At Sea" that held the audience in a breathless suspense. There is no halting in the telling of the story and hence an unbroken tempo that speaks loudly for the directing of this powerful drama.

It would be unfair to unfold the plot of the story, for there is a surprise situation upon which the dramatic value of the picture hinges. Suffice to say that it is a domestic drama in which a woman believing she is a widow again meets her old love. What happens after that brings the picture to an exciting and dramatic close.

No better cast has been assembled for any picture shown here than that appears in "Lost At Sea." Jane Novak excels all previous dramatic roles in her portrayal of the wife and mother, while Hooty Gibson as the lover and Lowell Sherman as the husband, make their characterizations actually live. The little boy in the picture, Billy Kent, is far superior to any of the infant prodigies that have appeared on the screen and he played his part so realistically that there was many a moist eye in the audience.

Others in the cast were Natalie Kingston whose striking beauty was highlighted on Joan Standing, William H. Walling and not forgetting Hooty Gibson. The picture was more than ably directed by Louis J. Gasnier. "Lost At Sea" was suggested by the Louis Joseph Vance story "The Malheur."

For a real entertainment don't miss seeing "Lost At Sea." It will be at the Colonial theater until Friday.

Reginald Denny Is Funnier Than Ever

All the ingredients that go to make up a rib-cracking farce comedy plentifully interlarded with fast action, thrills, suspense and an appealing love theme are embodied in "Fast and Furious," Reginald Denny's latest Universal picture which opens a three-day run at the Arcade theater today.

HASNT LOST A DAY

WHEELING, W. Va.—Keeping out in the fresh air and taking lots of exercise in the prescription "colony," William Graham, 76, would give to anyone desiring to work 35 years without losing a single day. The "colony" has been a mail carrier since 1922, with no days lost. Although eligible for retirement long ago, he prefers to "carry on."

hilarity and plenty of riding and fighting to a hair-raising climax. Del Andrews directed the picture and Arthur Stalter and Mary Allen Scully collaborated on its adaptation to the screen.

FINDS AMERICANS TOUGHER
BUXTON, Eng.—English boys are not as tough as American boys. The Rev. Paul Harty Purfoy of New York said at a conference here of the National Association of Boys' Clubs. Not only do the "tough" American boys dispense with collars, he informed the English delegates, but the "regular fellows" don't even wear shirts.

GARLIC IN HOLLYWOOD
HOLLYWOOD, Cal.—Garlic does not screen well, but it has its uses in Hollywood. Mixed with bread and ground meat it is fed to malnourished and huskies working in films of the war north. Vegetarians say it prevents ailments likely to affect dogs shipped down to a place as warm as Hollywood.
