MENUS

BREAKFAST—Ripe pears, cereal, cream, scrambled eggs with dried beef, oven toast, milk, coffee.

LUNCHEON—Casserole of vegetables, brown bread, cottage cheese, nut cookies, lemonade.

DINNER—Roasted flank of beef, mashed potatoes, ten-minute cabbage, romaine salad, apple pie, milk, coffee.

When making oven toast be sure that the toast is dried to the state of crispness. If the toast is merely hard it will not be popular with the family, but if it's crisp and crumbly they can't resist it.

Casserole of Vegetables
Eight small onions, 2 cups green beans, 4 medium sized tomatoes, 2 tablespoons butter, 1 teaspoon salt, 1/2 teaspoon pepper, 3 tablespoons buttered crumbs, 1 cup chopped cooked meat.

Choose tiny silver skinned onions. Peel and cook in boiling water until tender but not broken; cook beans - in boiling water to barely cover until water is cooked away. Scald and peel tomatoes. Cut in slices and cook ten minutes. Rub through a coarse sieve to remove seeds. Melt butter, stir in flour and slowly add tomato puree, stirring constantly. Season with salt and pepper and add chopped meat. Arrange onions in a well buttered baking dish and fill spaces between onions with beans. Pour over tomato sauce, covered with buttered crumbs and bake twenty-five minutes in a hot oven.

This is an excellent way to use up left-over vegetables and the meat left when making soup.
