CHINESE RETURN WINGS OF PLANE

Action Taken at 7:20 Tonight After British Announce Their Stand
LONDON, Aug. 18 (AP)—The Chinese government today announced that it would accept the terms of the British ultimatum regarding the return of the Chinese military planes seized after the 1926-27 revolution in China. The ultimatum, issued by the British government, demanded the return of the planes by August 18.

Biplane Able To Remain Afloat For Whole Day

WINDY (AP)—A biplane, built by the United States Army, was able to remain afloat for a full 24 hours after being ditched in the water. The plane, a Curtiss biplane, was ditched in the water on August 17, 1927, during a flight over the Atlantic Ocean. The pilot, Capt. Albert G. Stevens, was rescued by a British ship on August 18.
