The New York Yankees today were 15 full games ahead of Washington in the American league pennant quest. While the lowly St. Louis Browns were trimming the Senators in extra innings the Yanks were batting 12 exciting stanzas for a 5-4 victory over Chicago yesterday.

With only 39 games remaining on the schedule the Yankees could lose 25 and still tie Washington even if Bucky Harris' team won every one of its remaining 41 games.

Alvin Crowder, formerly of the Washington pitching staff, received credit for the St. Louis victory over his ex-team mates. Crowder relieved Ballou in the fifth inning and pitched eight scoreless innings, St. Louis winning in the twelfth, 6 to 5.

After three victories in a row over Cleveland, Philadelphia bowed to the Indians, 2-1.

All games in the National league were postponed by rain.

Portland took its third straight game from the Seals by a 5-4 score in a nip and tuck game. They were aided by Elmer Smith's 25th homer.

Although defeated by the Missions Bells, the Oaks did not lose ground in the pennant race, as both San Francisco and Seattle, their closest rivals, also met defeat. The Missions won by a 6 to 2 score.

Sacramento made it two out of three from the Hollywood Stars by taking a one-sided engagement, 10-4. Severeid and Hoffman hitting for the circuit.

The lowly Angels turned up on the Killifer tribe and beat Seattle 11-1, for their first win of the week.

"TAGEBLATT" DEPLORES BEAUTY CONTESTS

BERLIN (AP)—Beauty contests are described as a nuisance by the Berliner "Tageblatt."

The "Tageblatt" calls attention to a Berlin publishing house which in a circular has announced a beauty competition, at the same time asking people to subscribe to its weekly magazine. It publishes the question, "Who are the six most beautiful women of Germany?" All persons are urged to cast their vote on this question and are advised to look up the entries as they appear in the periodical.

Candidates are informed that the full name and address of every would-be movie actress will be added in a special outline for each picture published in the magazine. The circular says the magazine will prove a valuable reference sheet and study for the film trade.

CAUSED HIS DEATH

NEW YORK—Whims of fashion seems to have caused the death of Philip Horwitz, manufacturer. Decreased demand for petticoats caused him to make silk underwear and he converted a losing business into a profitable one. His estate has been appraised at $160,000. Says an affidavit filed by his estate: "He literally worked himself to death in building up his business."

Dazzy Vance No Guesser; Just Puts On Steam

NEW YORK (AP)—There may be several distinctive "schools of thought" in baseball, but Dazzy Vance, Brooklyn's great right-hander, isn't going to become gray-haired trying to out-think any batters.

Vance's idea of outguessing a batter is to put extra steam on his fast ball. He never uses a change of pace. His only counter for the fast ball is a quick-breaking curve.

"I can't slow ball 'em," the Robin pitcher said recently after bringing his major league career of strikeouts beyond the 1,000 mark. "When I started out in the majors in 1914 with Pittsburgh I had that idea of mixing them up. When I went to the Yankees two years later I had the same system. All that ever came of that system was that my arm became sore."

Arthur C. Vance on the record books but him, doesn't have to worry along about whether this batter or that hits a fast ball or a slow ball. In a pinch Dazzy's best bet is a pitch that is just too fast to see.

Kiki Cuyler, Pirate batting star, declares Dazzy has the fastest ball of any pitcher in the league and believes most of the men who face the Brooklyn veteran will agree.

Vance earned the title of "Strike-out King" in 1924 with Brooklyn. He fanned 262 batters, a record not quite equal to the best marks of Walter Johnson, but one that the Washington veteran has bettered only twice in 20 years.

Vance has played with Red Cloud in the Nebraska State league, the Yankees, Pittsburgh, St. Joseph, Toledo, Memphis, Rochester, Sacramento, New Orleans and Brooklyn. After failing to make good with the Yanks and the Pirates he drifted through the minors until he perfected his curve ball and mastered control. He has been with Brooklyn since 1922.
