WOLFE, ALLEN TO MEET LABOR DAY

Philadelphia Scrapper Is Coming for Main Event—Good Preliminaries

Heavy Wolfe, 128, of Philadelphia, is scheduled to meet Deimer Allen, of La Grande, in the 10-round main event of a Labor Day celebration boxing match to be staged here on Sept. 5.

Arrangements were completed Saturday for the match. Wolfe is to have fought Allen here several weeks ago but was in an auto when en route to La Grande from Portland and had to withdraw. He is recovered from his injuries and declares he will be in the peak of condition.

Tiger Holt Robinson and Jimmy Blackwell, 160 and 154 pounds, respectively, will meet in a six-round semi-final and Ford and Thompson, both of La Grande, will meet in a special six-round event. These two boys fought a four-round scrap here at the last week, Ford winning a decision.

Jack George and Bud Woodfin are to meet in the four-round preliminary.

Page is evidently the time he was in the war which is occupied in paying the debts of the last war. On that point America will enjoy peace for another ten years yet at least.

Saltcrane scored another victory over Hollywood 5-2.

Driving Weatherly, the Angel pitcher, off the mound in the early innings Seattle continued its struggle to defeat Los Angeles 11-4.

INVISIBLE
The lumber man by the name of Pratt came to La Grande when he was flat. He started in three years ago. And tried to make a little show. An old big barn he did rent. His little dough was almost spent. He traded off his limousine. As he couldn't buy the gasoline. The trade was made for spuds to eat. As he couldn't spell the word "defeat."

The Ku Klux Klan is out of politics hereafter and will carry on work of an "invisible" nature hereafter, according to Mrs. Noble Gill Comer, imperial commander of the women of the Klan. This picture of her was taken in Indianapolis, where 25,000 Klansmen gathered for a jubilee convention.

Schneider will be conducted next summer in the same, middle west, north and west. The picture shows them together at Corvallis after 180 weeks of football school work.
