IDE'S OPINION

SALEM, Ore., Aug. 20 (AP)—W. G. Ide, of Portland, manager of the state chamber of commerce, writes the public service commission that he believes the state chamber can be depended upon to support the commission in its fight for a cross-state railway from Crane to a connection with Natron cutoff. Ide said he would take the matter up at once with the executive committee and the board of directors. Ninety local chambers are affiliated with the state chamber.

Issues Working Upwards; Closing Quotations Firm

NEW YORK, Aug. 20 (AP)—Stock prices continued to work upward in today's stock market, but the advance was by no means uniform. Pools were again active in a number of specialties but they had difficulty in attracting an outside following.

Motors were features. Chrysler crossed 58 to a new peak on the announcement of new models and General Motors, which sold ex-dividend yesterday, approximated the year's record high. Yellow Truck issues were weak, the preferred falling 4 points.

Dupont soared over 7 points and Houston made up most of the ground lost yesterday. Railroad equipments were in good demand.

The closing was firm. Total sales approximated 656,000 shares.

Rail Extension Is Urged by Bend, Ore.

PORTLAND, Ore., Aug. 20 (AP)—Extension of the Union Pacific system's line from Crane to Bend or to Prineville is desired by the Bend chamber of commerce rather than have the line extended from Crane to a connection with the Cascade line of the Southern Pacific at Odell, according to information received today by the Portland chamber of commerce from the Bend chamber.

Hanford MacNider In Wrecked Plane

DANBURY, Conn., Aug. 20 (AP)—Hanford MacNider, assistant secretary of war was in a plane which overturned in making a landing at Danbury airport today but was unhurt. His pilot, Lieut. Maxwell Balfour of Mitchell field, Long Island, sustained a contusion of the leg.

The cause of the plane's upset was soft ground due to recent heavy rains.

CYPRUS ISLE MOTORING

Since the island of Cyprus in the Mediterranean went to England after the war, it has greatly increased its auto registration. From a dozen in 1914 the number of its cars has gone up to more than 1,000.

Selection of the right variety for the district and the farm system is regarded by the experiment station as the most important single factor in successfully growing Oregon grain crops. Standardization has many advantages one of which is better yield, since one variety is usually better than any other for each district. To find this one variety requires many tests extending over a number of years.

Is Saturday Really The Best Day to Shop?

Let's all try a new kind of Saturday next week. Instead of leaving our shopping until the last minute do a bit each day and when Daddy gets home from work pack up a picnic basket and pile the youngsters into the car for a happy half holiday in the country.

Such a day will prove more soothing to your nerves than the usual mad scramble thru the stores, and in the years to come the kiddies will look back on it as one of the pleasantest memories of their childhood.

Suppose we who live in the city try to make Saturday afternoon our Country Day!
