Bobby Turns in a 68 at Minikahda
Loss of the home club was shared with Roland Mackenzie, Washington, both scoring 75. Jones' score came within one stroke of his record 67 in the second qualifying round, where he went out in a remarkable 31 and came home in 36. His two best nines added for these rounds would have given a score of 64 for the 6,609-yard course.
An enormous gallery followed Jones and Johnston and got plenty of excitement in addition to the accident of the first hole. The Albatross caught five birdies and was over par on only one hole. The fourth here he drove to rough and put his second in a sand pit. Johnston won the hole and the 15th where Jones again got in the rough and took a par.
In medal play, although many putts were conceded when the hole was safely won by an opponent the scores were:
Jones 23-23-44.
Gulstad 25-26-72.
Evans 26-25-74.
Hild 28-26-74.
Johnston 37-29-76.

NATIONAL POLICY IS GIVEN BLAME

Present Farming Crisis Due to This, Declares Chicago Leader
WILLIAMSTOWN, Mass., Aug. 25 (AP)—Blaming deliberate national policies for the present farming crisis, George N. Peck, of Chicago, president of the American council of agriculture, declared today at the institute of policies that a rectifying or adjusting measure will have to be adopted, possibly within a year. He eulogized the McNary-Haugen bill and attacked the administration measure as a dolt, a disastrous policy, allowing farmers to drain the national treasury when in need. The proposal to create a farm board to loan money to cooperating associations he described as an equally repugnant alternative.
The McNary-Haugen measure, he held, would encourage the growth and effectiveness of cooperative organization, while the other proposals would, he said, place a penalty upon cooperatives.
Peck advocated also the removal of government stimulation of competitive farm production through its reclamation and land settlement policies because expensive competition already obtains. He urged development of an extensive waterway system; protection of agriculture from deliberate or international use of instruments of credit against it; expansion of cooperative marketing to lessen the cost of distribution; and the effecting of tax adjustment.

PRETTY MISS GROWS HER OWN DRESS

Pretty Phyllis Cunningham of San Jose, Cal., soon will don a new silk dress produced entirely by her own private silkworms. She raises the worms, winds the silk from the cocoons with her own apparatus, and weaves her own fabric. The picture shows Phyllis with some of her pets and the device she made herself for reeling the silk from the cocoons.

MURDERER, TWO OTHERS ESCAPE

Wifemurderer and Jailmates Kick and Burn Their Way to Freedom
CHEHALIS, Wash., Aug. 25 (AP)—Sheriff and police in Western Washington today were asked to be on the lookout for a convicted murderer and two other prisoners who kicked and burned their way out of the county jail here early today.
Two of the prisoners, Emmett Bailey, 26, wifemurderer, whose scheduled hanging June 17, was halted by appeal to the supreme court, and A. J. Burke, 41, awaiting trial on criminal assault charges, are expected to put up a desperate fight to escape capture. The third prisoner is W. E. Roberts, 25, a negro, accused of a series of burglaries.
Sheriff Edward Degrother said he believed the break had been planned for more than two months. A steel bar, which was removed from the tank containing them, had been sawed through sometime ago and the cracks filled with colored liquid cement.
After removing the steel bars the trio set fire to the wooden scaffolding covering the brick walls, charring it sufficiently to permit them to reach and remove a number of bricks. Mortar holding the bricks in place was kicked away and the men lowered themselves to the ground with ropes made from the canvas off the bunk.

Prince Plays His Cello For Guests LONDON (AP)—Prince George has earned a name as an "entertainer." It was at one of the "Dossomthing" parties popularized by Mrs. Vernon Lewis, a New York business, in the hotel suite of the Maharajah of Rappia. After dinner the Maharajah announced that instead of the usual musical entertainment before the dancing began, everyone of his guests would have to contribute something toward the fete. The king's third son borrowed a cello and played a solo, then changed to a clarinet and did the same. A broken promise may be mended but it always shows a crack.

Sunday Parade, Halted By War, In Stride Again

LONDON (AP)—The Sunday church parade has come back to Hyde Park. For a time it appeared that the important event of olden days, which tourists included in their itinerary along with the Tower of London and Westminster Abbey, had become an obsolete function. But the show has returned this summer in all its old-time glory and current styles in feminine dress have made it more colorful than at any other period.
Fifteen at twenty years ago nearly every one who wanted to be somebody took a place in the parade on Sunday morning, immediately after church services, in the procession of the war and fashion. But during the war the big parade fell off tremendously. It might never become its real old self again this summer.
They had changed the customs. The best dressed people do less promenading than a formerly, and are content to occupy a back seat or a bench under a tree, watching the other half of the world go by for an hour or so.
Magnificent wearing all the latest Paris fashions have added zest to the parade, as have girls with fashionable frocks. Some are trailed by dogs selected to match their costumes to the dot.

SALEM, Ore., Aug. 25 (AP)—The minds of Multnomah county political leaders will be relieved by an opinion of Attorney General Van Winkle to Governor Patterson today, holding that certificates of nomination for congress in the third district special election may be filed with the secretary of state at any time between the date on which the governor's writ was issued and the date of the election. The election has been set for Oct. 13.

CURTIS FIELD, N. Y., Aug. 25 (AP)—Edward F. Schlee and William Brock, who hope to make a record flight around the world, left for Old Orchard, Maine, at 11 o'clock today on the first leg of a flight to Hartford, Conn., N. E. where they expect to start their globe-girdling expedition Saturday.
Schlee, wealthy Detroit business man, announced before leaving in his Shinson-Detroit monoplane, that the take-off from Harbor Grace, on Creighton Island, was set tentatively for Saturday. Only a small group which included the wives of the two flyers, witnessed the departure of the "Pride of Detroit". The wives said they felt their husbands "were taking the longest sporting chance of any flyers this year."
Wives Dry-Eyed
Mrs. Brock and Mrs. Schlee were both dry-eyed as their husbands mounted into the cockpit, but Mrs. Schlee broke into tears after the monoplane's motor started roaring in its preliminary tune up.
Schlee and Brock hope to circle the globe in 18 days, thereby beating the record of 23 days established last year by Linton Wells and Edward S. Evans, who traveled by airplane, train and steamer.

Hamburg Cop Killed In Riot With Radicals

HAMBURG, Germany, Aug. 25 (AP)—One policeman was killed and several other officers and onlookers were injured in communist Saeco-Vanzetti demonstrations here last night.
The communists erected barricades across street car lines and attacked police with stones and bullets. The policeman who was killed was off duty. He was dragged from a street car, severely mangled and after running a few yards was overthrown in a state of collapse. The mob again attacked him with daggers and clubs.
