Craftsmen Use Feet To Shape Trinkets

CONSTANTINOPLE, Turkey (AP)—Craftsmen who fashion trinkets with their hands and feet still thrive in and around the "Great Bazaar," a little town-like city of its own on one of the seven hills of Stamboul.

Copper and iron smiths hammer out their wares in small recesses along the miles of buildings that in dark, sooty and dusty with the dust of centuries.

Woodworkers in booths around this building use a bare foot and one hand to hold their cutting tools in turning objects on small lathes.

In olden times the ass disguised himself in a lion's skin. Nowadays the cellars supply the sheepskins.

"Listen son," said a father after surveying his sedan. "The next time your high school friends want to call a transfer company, this one has made its last trip as a school bus or dray."

"To be sure," said the girl "I'll be right, ladylike!"

"By-ah!" replied Jig Fiddlin of Clapboard Springs. "They say, no matter what happens, she never swears when there's company on the place."

Reformers who used to protest against the display of ankles were so successful that now all they have to complain of is the display of knees.

Original Airmail Sent 57 Years Ago

PITTSBURGH (AP)—What may have been the first successful delivery of mail by air was made 57 years ago in France.

Out of a mass of mail stamps of famed flights collected by Harry A. Truby, of New Kensington, vice president of the Aero-Philatelic Society of America, is one recording that on September 23, 1870, M. Jules Durout flew from Paris in a balloon with messages to Cremonville, France. At that time Paris was withstanding the Prussian siege.

Truby's collection of mail stamps includes flights over various sections of the globe.

A cup of rice will absorb three or four cups of milk when cooked in a double boiler and therefore, is much richer in food value than when boiled in water.

When The Maid Becomes Lady of The House

In Warner Bros' production of "The Gay Old Bird", starring Louise Fazenda, the maid is compelled to change places with the "maison."

The gay old bird, master of the house, receives word that his rich uncle, who has never seen birdie's wife and twins, but has promised to give him $100,000 if he is happily married. In coming, now, only an hour before the wife arrives, wife has taken the twins and fanned off home to ma. in a tantrum.

Mr. Platt, a friend of the family offers to get substitute wife, but since his girl friends turn him down at the last moment, he presses into service the dumb but well-meaning maid, played by Louise Fazenda.

The maid's burly chauffeur beau doesn't understand the arrangement and threatens to become violent while wife complicates matters by returning at the wrong moment.

Miss Fazenda's supporting cast includes John T. Murray, Joe Winter, Ed Kennedy, William Demarest, Francis Taylor and John Stepping. Herman Ray-naker directed.

"The Gay Old Bird" shows for the last time today.

Buck Jones In Thrilling Film At Star

Buck Jones and his famed horse, Silver Buck, are scoring more triumphs at the Star theater today and Saturday with the showing of "Good as Gold", a western thriller that is estimated full of suspense, thrills, stunts of daring and danger, and all in a story that is of fascinating interest. Add to this a background made up of the wonders of the Grand Canyon of the Colorado, and you have a picture that is nearly perfect entertainment.

Buck Jones, in the role of a sun-baked old gold miner, a fabulously rich gold mine by claim jumpers, gives a fine performance that is made up of hard riding, daring swinging among the chasms of the Grand Canyon over vast depths and touches of humor that caused the audience to thrill with suspense one moment and laugh the next.

Parade Cat Magazine Has Society Column

PARADE (AP)—A society column for cats has been included in the new Paris magazine, "The Feline World." The magazine is devoted only to "literary, artistic, scientific and other news concerning the feline tribe and its biped friends."

Short stories, verse, announcements of weddings, births and deaths among the four-footed furred pets and similar information is published in this new monthly, edited by "The Cat Without a Name."

Eminent cat-lovers discuss "why feline cat-lovers discuss 'whether animals' sufferings entitle them to compensations in another life,' cat psychology, plans for a free animal hospital and like subjects.
