Brazilian Government Is Making Every Effort to Find Paul Redfern

RIO JANEIRO, Aug. 29 (AP)—Every effort is being made by the Brazilian government to locate Paul Redfern, the American aviator who started from Juazeiro on his flight to Brazil and whose fate is still unknown.

The efforts have been doubled since the rumor was received that he had been seen at three o'clock Sunday afternoon. This is the position of the United States, which is making every effort to find Redfern.

No News
 It is believed that if Redfern is still alive, he is probably in the United States, where he would be required to be before he was able to return to Brazil.
