Blue Mountain Fruit Exchange Sees Big Year

The Blue Mountain Fruit Exchange, in three years of business, has come to handle the major portion of the fruit and vegetable crops of Union county. This organization is composed of fruit, vegetable and potato growers, officers and directors being: Guy W. Fox, William Miller, Sherwood Williams, J. L. Westerman, and Grant Tucker. H. C. Griesel is business and sales manager.

Some idea of the volume of business handled through the exchange is shown by the fact that in excess of 200 cars of fruit and vegetables will be handled by the company this season alone.

Growth of their business has led the company to the purchase of the Oregon Grocery building at 1417 Jefferson which they will occupy about Sept. 1. Quarters and offices have always been in the Ketchikan and Orchard buildings. The new building is being thoroughly renovated and improved for the occupation of the new company.

In addition to this, the company has not business the company will engage in jobbing of local fruit and vegetables and will handle storage goods.

Their new location, providing adequate floor space for their large business, promises to be a major factor in the growth of the business.

COAT-OF-ARMS MARKS OLIVER TWIST COURT

LONDON (AP)—Thomas, who has grown from a boy to a man, is now a member of the Oliver Twist court, which is a group of boys who are known for their mischievous and sometimes law-breaking behavior.

This year until 1912 was the 100th anniversary of the birth of Charles Dickens, the author of the novel "Oliver Twist," which is a story about a boy who grows up in a workhouse and eventually finds his way out.
