

Local News In Brief

COMING EVENTS
Sept. 5—Labor day celebration in La Grande.

Here Yesterday—Miss Irma Pickett, of Union was a La Grande visitor and shopper yesterday.

North Powder People Here—Mrs. Edna Jacobs and party, of North Powder, spent yesterday visiting in La Grande.

Here From Elgin—Miss Genevieve Crum, of Elgin, spent yesterday visiting in La Grande.

Returns to Wenatchee—After visiting here for several weeks with her aunt, Mrs. J. P. Phay, Miss Alta Chambers left today for her home in Wenatchee, Wash.

Baker Business Man Here—J. L. Scoble, of Baker, is a business visitor in La Grande today. Mr. Scoble is registered at the Elgin.

Goes to Baker—Miss Barbara Hiatt left this morning for Baker where she will visit relatives and friends for a day or so.

Go to Lewiston—William Andrit and Art Poston left yesterday for Lewiston where they will spend several days on business. Mr. Poston has only recently returned from a trip east.

C.J. Breier Co. IN THE WEEK 1101 Adams—Store No. 15 La Grande, Ore.

SILK HOSE 79c Women's pure silk hose of extra fine gauge, reinforced rayon, elastic mercerized garter tops with ravel stop, four assortment of colors.

AT LAST! — HE'S HERE! The ONLY CHANCE LA GRANDE will ever have to see BABE RUTH! Is At The STAR TODAY and THURS. BABE COMES HOME His Own—His Only—Feature Film! with ANNA Q. NILSSON and LOUISE FAZENDA A Home Run of Romance and Thrills SCREEN SNAPSHOTS See your favorites at work and play Comedy—"THE OLD FLAME" COMING FRIDAY—MILTON SILLS

the interests of the Black Marble and Lamo company, of which he is manager at Enterprise, while here. Transportation for Picnic—Royal Neighbors or Modern Woodmen wishing transportation to the annual Modern Woodmen picnic at Riverbank park tomorrow night are requested to call Mrs. Carrie Eaton.

Back to Work—Miss Eldora Hansen resumed her work this morning at the Blue Mountain country after taking a vacation. Miss Hansen with Miss Marjorie Maguire, spent several days at Walla Walla.

Leaves For Home—Mrs. C. Heimbrecht and granddaughter, Irene Heimbrecht, left this morning for their home in Minnesota after visiting here for two months with Mrs. Heimbrecht's daughter, Mrs. A. Gullickson.

Home From Yellowstone—Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Garly have returned to their home here after a vacation trip by auto to Yellowstone national park. They were accompanied on the trip by Jack Halley, of Weiser, Ida.

Visited Brother at Cove—Mrs. E. D. McCoy and two daughters, of Portland, left this morning for their home after visiting for some time with Mrs. McCoy's brother, G. N. Cochran, at Cove.

Drive to Walla Walla—Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Elchard and children, Dorothy and Franklin, drove to Walla Walla yesterday morning on a combined business and pleasure trip. They returned today.

Here On Vacation—Miss Helen Lewis, of Portland, is visiting friends and relatives in La Grande. She is on a vacation trip and plans to go to Walla Walla lake the last of this week for a few days.

Expected Home—Mr. and Mrs. Ed Robland are expected home this evening from a vacation trip to Portland, Salem, Seaside and other Western Oregon cities. Mr. Robland is owner of the Auto Electric Service company.

Leave for Portland—Mr. and Mrs. W. V. Perkins and son, Charles, accompanied by Mrs. A. W. Nelson, left this morning by car for Portland where they will spend about a week. Mr. Perkins will look after automotive business while there.

Left This Morning—Mr. and Mrs. Hugh McLean and Mrs. G. M. Lehto, of Portland, left this morning for Twin Falls, Ida., after visiting relatives of Mr. and Mrs. McLean here for two days. They are making the trip by auto.

To Home to Olin—Mr. and Mrs. Milton Price will leave tomorrow morning by auto for Home and Carey, Ida., on a weeks vacation trip. They will visit with Mrs. Price's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Irie, at Carey, Ida. Mr. Price is shop foreman for The Observer.

Home Last Night—Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Binger and children, Jerry and Janet and Russell Nelson, returned home yesterday afternoon from a short motor trip to Portland. Mr. and Mrs. Binger visited with Mr. Binger's parents.

Home From Lake—Mrs. M. M. Miller and daughter, Miss Isabella Miller, have returned to their home here after several days at Walla Walla lake on a vacation trip. Miss Miller recently returned from Cheney, Wash., where she attended normal school during the summer.

Visiting Friends in La Grande—Mrs. Jennie Deacon, of Salt Lake City, is visiting in La Grande for several days with friends. Mrs. Deacon made her home in La Grande a number of years ago. Before coming to La Grande Mrs. Deacon visited for several days in Baker.

Install New Furnishing—The installing of a partition separating the kitchen from the conservatory is being completed this week at the Orange Blossom, by the owner, V. E. Seltz. The partition is the large walnut one which was formerly used at the Club Clear store and has several mirrors in it.

Left Last Night—Berniel Talbot, son of Mr. and Mrs. V. Talbot, left last night for San Diego, Cal., after 20 days spent at his home here on a trip. He is in the cadet section of the U. S. navy. His brother, Ernest Talbot, has also enlisted in the navy and accompanied him to San Diego.

Will go to Baker—E. Russell Scott will go to Baker Sunday, where he will speak at both the morning and evening sessions of the First Methodist Episcopal church here. In the morning his subject will be "Scouting in Baker," and in the evening he will give a Labor Day address. Mr. Scott is scout executive of the Eastern Oregon boy scout council.

Will Present Flag—E. Russell Scott, scout executive of the Eastern Oregon boy scout council, will go to Cove this evening to present to the Cove scout troop No. 5 the flag won in a recent point contest between the boy scout troops of the council. The flag was donated by Dr. W. T. Phay, president of the council, and was won by the Cove troop, of which the Rev. William M. Bradner is scout master.

Left For Portland—Miss Madeline Lewis, Richard Lewis and Clarence Street left yesterday morning by auto for Portland. Miss Lewis and her brother have been here and at Enterprise most of the summer with their slaters, Mrs. Ralph Byers and Mrs. Floyd Fletcher, Clarence Street drove up from Portland over the week end and they accompanied him home. They will spend the winter in Portland and will attend school there.

To Visit Parents—Mrs. Dwight Kloster and little son, Robby, arrived in La Grande yesterday from White Salmon, Wash., and will visit here for several days at the home of Mrs. Kloster's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Mohr. Dr. Kloster plans to join them here Labor Day and accompany them home.

Here From East—Mrs. George Hicke and daughter, Mildred, arrived here Monday night from Kansas City, joining Mr. Hicks who is here in the interests of business. Mr. Hicks is president of the Bowman-Hicks Lumber company, Mr. and Mrs. Hicks and their daughter, with Sam Bowman, who is also connected with the company, are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Ashby while here.

Will Return Home Friday—After spending the summer here at their farm near Island City, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Conkey, accompanied by their grandchildren, Jack and Helen Conkey, will leave Friday for their home in Portland. They drove to Walla Walla lake this morning where they are spending the day.

Arrives Here For School—Chester Gilbert, who has been secured for the position of principal at the Riviera school this coming season has returned to La Grande after spending the summer at Coville, Wash., and is establishing a home here. Mr. Gilbert will join Mr. Gilbert in about two weeks. Mr. Gilbert was a faculty member and coach at Riviera last year and will have charge of athletics in addition to his position as principal this year.

This new Colonial home at First street and Pennsylvania avenue, was erected this year by Mr. and Mrs. F. B. Appleby and was completed Aug. 1.

Few Changes Made—Since the business index for this edition was prepared O. M. Heacock has moved to Portland. A new concern not listed is Coale-an error omitted from the repair and service shops.

Home From Lake—Mr. and Mrs. G. I. Larison and son, John, and their guests, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Woodward and daughter, Bernice, of Portland, returned home last evening from a several day's trip to Walla Walla lake. Mr. and Mrs. Woodward and their daughter have been visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Larison.

Stop Here on Trip—"La Grande is an enterprising city," declared J. M. Peterson, who with Mrs. Peterson continued their trip this morning after visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Lee for a short time. Mr. and Mrs. Peterson, whose home is in Duluth, Minn., have been travelling in the west for some time. From La Grande they will go to Spokane. This was their first visit in La Grande which they say compares very favorably with any city they have seen in their extended travel.

Laundry Service—The Way of Progress Wipe Wash-Day Off Your Calendar Home Happiness Is Largely A Matter Of Home Leisure Why should you give up a half day or day out of each week of your life to the drudgery of washing? Present-day progress in living has wiped wash-day off the calendar. Now you deserve to have the leisure, the freedom that laundry service can bring you. More time to enjoy life—more time to devote to your family—more time to cultivate worthwhile friends. A Varied Laundry Service We offer a varied laundry service—you can send soiled clothes and linen and have them returned perfectly laundered, expertly ironed—the entire task finished for you. Or we will do the laundering and return to you rough dry if you want to do your own ironing. Or we will do part rough dry, part finished as you may wish. Complete cooperation in eliminating your work and saving you time, energy, and money. We Do All Or Part Rough Dry or Finished THE WAY OF PROGRESS — SEND IT TO THE LAUNDRY! The age of specialists is here. No longer do you think of knitting the family stockings, of baking the family bread. Such things are relics of an unprogressive, undeveloped past. Today the laundry is far better equipped with machinery and experience to do your washing and ironing than any private home could be. Every facility for careful cleaning, for expert and economical finishing is found in the up-to-date laundry. We'll be glad to discuss rates and different classes of service with you. Compare the costs, the labor, the time—and you'll "send it to the laundry." MODERN LAUNDRY STANDAR LAUNDRY MAIN 77—DEPOT ST. MAIN 56—JEFFERSON AVE.