

FUEL AND FEED FIRMS PROSPER

Several Companies Operate Successfully in La Grande District

The Sawyer-Holmes Mercantile company has been in existence for a period of 12 years during which it has always maintained its position as one of the leading fuel, feed and building material businesses of this section. Organized in May, 1915 by W. G. Sawyer and the late Fred Holmes, the business has always been located in the large modern building on the Jefferson and Greenwood corners. The building, which includes display and storerooms for the large stock of the company, and the office department, is 110 feet by 65 feet and is a modern well built structure. Since the death of Mr. Holmes, seven years ago, Mr. Sawyer has been the manager of the corporation of which Mrs. Holmes and Mr. Sawyer are officers. The stock includes wood and coal, lime, cement, plastering, all kinds of building material, roofing, paint, hay, grain, fireplaces, coal stoves and other products.

Erickson and Durand
Erickson and Durand, since entering the feed, packing and wholesale business in the fall of 1914, R. M. Durand and A. E. Erickson have built up one of the heaviest businesses in La Grande. An idea of the volume of their annual business may be obtained by annual production figures. For one year of business 44 cars of apples and potatoes were shipped out by Mr. Erickson and Mr. Durand. From 10 to 15 carloads of cement is handled annually. Hay, grain and poultry feed make up a large part of the business. Valvoline, Pennzoi and Saco lubricating and machine oils also form a major part of the firm's transactions. Mr. Durand and Mr. Erickson are agents here for the Albert Brothers products, said to be the largest feed concern in the northwest. The business also includes the agency for the Morton Salt company products, and do a major part of the salt business in and about La Grande.

Large Territory
Their radius of business taken in Union, Walla Walla and Baker counties, to say nothing of the wide range of cities to which their shipments go out. Their business is located at 1225 Jefferson and is conveniently near the railroad tracks. The building is a large brick one, 60 by 110 and is ample for the extensive needs of the company. Employees during the packing season number around 40. Mr. Durand and Mr. Erickson were both engaged in the fruit growing business before entering their present business. The large amount of fruit grown on the Durand property led to the organization of the fruit packing business which has grown to include many additional branches and to be one of the heaviest shipping and packing businesses in this section.

Stiles & Co.
Stiles & Co., with offices and warehouse located on North Greenwood street has grown, since its organization in 1919 to do a fuel and feed business that runs high into thousands of dollars worth of business each year. The company, which is headed by Pearl Stiles, does business in coal, feed, lime and feed. Three cars of lime are handled yearly while figures show that an average of two carloads of coal a week are shipped to the Stiles company. Two trucks and a team of regular trucks give prompt service, while during the unusually heavy season as many as 12 outfits are employed for delivery. Two men are employed regularly, besides Mr. Stiles. Mrs. Stiles has charge of the office department.

Young Bros.
Young Brothers in connection with their ice business, do a heavy business in coal and feed products. Their warehouse, which is adjacent to their office and is located by the railroad yards, is a large one and is adequate for the large storage which the company's business justifies. More than 1,200 tons of coal are sold annually. Several large trucks in addition to wagons are used to take care of the business. Frank R. Young acts as manager with his partner in Carl Young.

There are 1,667,000 acres of wheat in Oregon.

Judge's Ears Can Survive Shocking Tale

Judge J. W. Knowles, who has been a circuit court judge of Union and Walla Walla counties for many years and who has built up a wide reputation over the state, is substituting in Multnomah county for Portland judges who are on vacation.

Recently he was trying an uncontested divorce case. The wife, weeping, her lawyer was trying to draw from her the story of a certain unhappy incident of her married life.

"Tell the story," he said, "in your own words."

The woman, blushing and painfully embarrassed, replied: "I don't want to. It isn't fit for decent people to hear."

"Well, whisper it to the judge," said the lawyer.

WILL CELEBRATE LABOR DAY HERE

fought with full force of water in the hose.

The promoters of the program have concluded that some of the sports should be dropped for the sake of the merchants, and there will be stands of various kinds and descriptions after the excitement of the water fight has drifted away.

By 2:30 o'clock the crowd will be moved to the high school athletic grounds. "There the more serious part of the day's festivities will take place when Ben Osborn, executive secretary of the Oregon Federation of Labor, will bring the address of the day. Mr. Osborn is credited with being a fine speaker, well versed in the subject assigned, and a man who upholds labor and all honest but not without due regard to the welfare of others. He will be introduced by H. K. Coldridge, president of the Union county chamber of commerce. After Mr. Osborn's address and talks by others, the crowd will enjoy a sport program. Ed Meyerovich is chairman, and addresses entries in any of the following events, making them as interesting as possible and as profitable as possible to the laborer. The events with their prize money, follows:

Two-throw, between Penitence and La Grande carpenter's unions, $20.00; ground pig contest, catches gets the pig, two changing contest, $5.00 and $2.00; sawing contest, for carpenters, $5.00 and $1.00; race for union boys, 100 yards free for all, $2.00 and $1.00; 50 yards over 40 yards of age, $2.00 and $1.00; 50 yards for union men over 60, $2.00 and $1.00; wheelbarrow races, 10 yards and return, $2.00 and $1.00; ball mile race, 100 yards for all, $2.00 and $1.00; 50 yards mile race, $2.00 and $1.00; bicycle race, quarter mile, $2.00 and $1.00; one race, $2.00 and $1.00; watermelon eating contest, $2.00 and $1.00; 100 yard race for boys and return, $2.00 and $1.00; fat man's race, 50 yards, $2.00 and $1.00.

After the events at the ball park are over, allowances will be made for dinner and refreshments at 7:15 beginning the big gala event.

The boxing card will include 25 rounds of pugilistic efforts, headlined by a 10-round main event featuring Benny Wolfe, Philadelphia flash, and Delmer Allen, La Grande leather puncher. Both are expected to be sensational scrapers and a thrilling fight is anticipated.

In the six-round semi-final, Tiger Bob Robinson, of San Jose, Cal., will trade punches with Jimmy Blackwell, Eugene. Local fans are anticipated in reference to this bout, some expecting it to "start the show."

Mr. Blackwell, and both are fast and possessed of speed and endurance. Blackwell has had three fights with George Dixon winning and losing one decision. The third fight was a draw.

Dr. J. P. La Grande, will meet Jack Lavelle, of Enterprise, in a six-round special event. Lavelle is substituting for South Thompson, who was originally scheduled to fight off against Paul.

The curtain raiser will find Jim Gessner and Bud Woodfin, both of La Grande, in the ring. With both boys slingers and about equally matched, some fireworks are in order, fans believe.

At other conditions will largely center the situation relative to the boxing program at night. Weather permitting, the open air pavilion will be opened at 7:30 and 7:45 and 7:50 and will be closed at 10:00. Tickets will be sold at 10:00 and 10:15 and 10:30 and 10:45 and 10:50 and 11:00 and 11:15 and 11:30 and 11:45 and 12:00 and 12:15 and 12:30 and 12:45 and 1:00 and 1:15 and 1:30 and 1:45 and 2:00 and
