EGGS HIGHER IN PORTLAND MARKET

Production Along Coast Is Less—Shortage Is Felt in Pears

PORTLAND, Ore., Sept. 10 (AP)—Egg production in the country has shown a rather pronounced increase this week and consequent lighter receipts have been sending the market higher from day to day all along the Pacific coast. The local situation is very firm.

New quotations for today put extras up a cent to 24c, first 22c and mediums to 20c. Lower grades are unchanged.

New quotations remain unchanged on the exchange.

Dealers in seasonal fresh fruits and vegetables experienced a rather sluggish early morning business today. Quotations remained steady on most lines but tomatoes were a little weaker and ranged from 30c to 41c per box.

A shortage is being felt for pears, with few locally grown lots being received as is usual at this season. First grade commercial pack Bartlett's move readily at from $2.75 to $3.25 per box with Jumbles taking $1.50 to $1.75.

Trading in country dressed meats and poultry was fairly active at steady prices throughout the morning.

Dealers reported strengthening demand for high priced meats, with prospects for higher prices soon.

Buying orders from the English market toward the end of this week have worked to strengthen the local hog market for new crop stock.

RANK CLEARINGS
