A quiet of Solon hurlers proved easy for the Portland Beavers and the Beavers twice put the slugs under Sacramento, 9-3 and 8-2. Elmer Smith, Beavers outfielder, better his 41st homer in the first game.

By winning yesterday's double header, the Portland Beavers strengthened their grip on fourth place in the Pacific Coast league and are now a full four and a half games ahead of Sacramento, in fifth place. Seattle, in third place, has a lead of five and a half games over the Beavers.
This week the Beavers play Oakland at Portland and Seattle plays at Sacramento. Following this series Portland closed the season against Mission at Mission after playing at Los Angeles Sept. 20-25.

After gaining an even break in their four-game series with the Chicago Cubs, the New York Giants were in St. Louis today for seven games in four days, a series that is likely to mean much in the national league race.

Pittsburg was still two games in the lead today after having swept a three-game series with Philadelphia. The Giants battered Charlie Root, Cub pitching ace, in the fourth game at Chicago yesterday, and won 7 to 5. The St. Louis Cardinals bowled over Brooklyn again and kept pace with the Giants in second position. The Cubs were three and one-half games in the rear of the Pirates today.

The lowly Phils gave the Pirates a hard time, but Glenn Wright's

DEMPSEY, TUNNEY AMUSED AT RUMOR

Stories of Million-Dollar Flop Evoke Derision in Both Camps

LINCOLN FIELD, CRETE, Ill. Sept. 12. (AP)—Jack Dempsey worked out under the floodlights again last night, but not at his camp here. He refused one of a program of amateur boxing matches at the Broadway Armory.
Dempsey made it an evening of sparring to resume his afternoon pugilism and his evening secret boxing today. His floodlight innovation had boxing writers and fans still groggy today. But all discussion of his secret work was switched into the latest rumor, emanating from New York that Tunney had been offered a million dollars to "take a dive" for Dempsey.

Both camps were amused by the rumor. Leo Flynn, Dempsey's manager, the most of any one.

"Who would put up the money, who would hold it and who would watch the man holding it?" Flynn asked Flynn, "Dempsey and Tunney will fight on the level and Tunney will win."

Flynn promised the fight series that at least one of the night boxing sessions would be put on for their benefit, so they could get a final glimpse of the former champion in action and estimate for themselves his condition.

TUNNEY TAKES IT EASY

LAKE VILLA, Ill. Sept. 12. (AP)—Another day of complete rest, except for a little golf, was Gene Tunney's program today.

Workouts in the present hot spell would be too likely to develop stomach trouble, Billy Gilson said. Tunney spent the night with friends in Lake Forest last night and planned to drive into Chicago to see Hickard today.

There will be only two or three more days of short workouts before the fight, because the champion feels he is in the best of his ring career right now.

He slipped away from the camp yesterday without even his put and tunic, Eddie Egan, to play a round of golf at Onwenta, favorite course of north shore society.

Paired with Miss Virginia Wilson, one of the younger phenoms of the Chicago district, he played against the team of Rudy Knepper and Gordon Kelly. Tomorrow Tunney expects to resume his boxing with the public admitted as usual.

That flapping after should have stuck it out a few weeks longer on top of a Chicago hotel. Now, the chances are, he'll have to pay $40 to see Dempsey and Tunney fight.

Home settled the issue by a 2-2 score.

The Cardinals gained their victory over Brooklyn by a 2-0 score. A home run by Bottomley was the winning punch.

The Boston Braves took two more on the chin yesterday, the Cincinnati Reds winning 6-4 and 3-1.

The Philadelphia Athletics won the only game played in the American league. They downed Detroit 5-4.

Detroit Balloon Pilot Winner of Bennett Trophy

DETROIT, Sept. 12. (AP)—E. G. Hill, Detroit pilot, today was unofficially announced as winner of the annual James Gordon Bennett balloon trophy race.

Piloting his huge balloon, "The Detroit," an estimated distance of 725 miles from the starting point here, Hill brought the bag down at Basley, Va., last night 20 miles farther south than the second place Goodyear VI, also a United States entry.

As unofficially tabulated by the National Aeronautics association officials at Washington, the other leading balloons finished as follows:

Third and fourth—Harmen Germany, and Lafayette, France, 600 miles (tied).

Fifth—Hispania, Spain, 649 miles.

Sixth—Belgica, Belgium, 600 miles.

The remaining nine entries were strung out along the course between the first five and Detroit, as far north as Sugar Island by Lake Erie, off Sandusky.

Coast Football Prospects

(This is the second of a series of articles on the University of Oregon football prospects for 1927. The first, printed yesterday, discussed the centers. Today's article considers the guards, and tomorrow's the tackles.)

By Sam Wilderman
Perhaps, before considering the guard prospects it may be well to recall that Oregon will not have a single experienced center eligible for varsity competition in the fall.

But while there is a dearth of centers, the guards are plentiful, although except for Captain Beryl Hodges, of Athena, none may be considered a tried and true veteran.

Beryl, who tips the beam at some 150 pounds, is one of the bright lights of what is feared will be an exceptionally weak line. Beryl is a sure tackler and is especially valuable on the offense in opening holes.

Holt Korns of Eugene, who played on the other side of Madgen last year, and Harold Mangum, first string sub, who recently was drowned in the Willamette river when his canoe capsized, will be missing from the 1927 lineup; hence the guard outlook is none too bright.

Holt Korns, Portland, 130-pounder and a letterman last year, is expected to fill in nicely. A year of experience under Harry Ellinger last year has done Korns a world of good, and he should be a strong candidate for a regular berth this fall.

As a final effort to strengthen his line, Coach McLean has sent Merle Hanson, Portland, sub-quarterback last year, to guard Hagun, who's 175 pounds. He is not fast enough to fit in with McLean's style of play which calls for a fleet quartet of backs, but he may develop into a real lineman.

Hal Haddon, a substitute guard for two years, may become a regular. Experience is all he has, the greatest teacher. It applies to

Dick Hanley May Create a Mild Revolution in Big Ten Grid Play

CHICAGO, (AP)— Curtailment of the shift and the advent of a coach with a style of play novel in this section of the country are high spots of interest in the 1927 Western Conference season.

The greatest array of inter-conference games in the history of the conference have been scheduled and one new stadium has been built and others greatly enlarged to rare for thousands more football enthusiasts.

The outstanding inter-conference title will be the Pennsylvania-Chicago game at Chicago Oct. 22 and the Navy-Michigan battle at Ana Arbor, Nov. 12.

Richard E. (Dick) Hanley of Northwestern, the only new coach in the conference, is expected to create a mild revolution in inter-conference play as well as anything else. Hal, although not a regular, has had enough experience to make him extremely valuable. He weighs 175 pounds.

with stellar performers in the key positions.

The Washington team will be missing from the Northwestern lineup, but the Purple, under Captain Gustafson, and Michigan, 1926 co-champions, both have prospects of another brilliant team. Hanley has 15-letter men as a nucleus.

Henry Friedman is gone from Michigan, but his famous partner, Elmer Mack, and Robert Bell, all excellent backfield men, will be in the Ohio State lineup.

An entire front wall must be built at Purdue. Illinois is shy of good backfield material, and Glenn Thistlewaite who left Northwestern for the University of Wisconsin, has little proven material upon which to draw.
